Introduction

Purpose of the Handbook

Handbook EL-505, Injury Compensation, is a comprehensive guide to help injury compensation control office (ICCO) and designated control point personnel perform their jobs.

In this handbook, we have attempted to compile and update all applicable U.S. Postal Service (USPS) regulations, policies, and guidelines into one user-friendly manual. The handbook serves as both a training tool and a reference guide. It covers many injury compensation (IC) issues, including:

- The history of the USPS Injury Compensation Program.
- Certain provisions of the Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA).
- Staffing and supplying an ICCO.
- Responses to employee injuries.
- Claims management.
- Records management.
- Limited duty and rehabilitation.
- Legal issues surrounding injury compensation.

Using this handbook alone is not sufficient for the effective management of a USPS Injury Compensation Program. A complete list of supplementary IC resource materials is, therefore, included in Chapter 1.

Finally, it is important to note that while responsible parties and means of implementation may vary from one installation to another, the USPS responsibilities and obligations set forth in the boxed portions of this guide and labeled "Obligation" are mandatory.

How to Use the Handbook

The Text

This handbook comprises 13 chapters, each beginning with a brief overview of the topics covered. Chapter 1 is considered a reference chapter and should be used to answer fundamental questions concerning workers' compensation. When a chapter is written for personnel in a specified Postal Service position, the relevant position is indicated.

The words "disabled" and "disability" are found in many statutes, rules, and regulations. They are used by the Department of Labor, the Department of Veterans Affairs, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Office of Personnel Management, and the Social Security Administration, among others. Their meaning, however, differs based on the source statute, rule, or regulation that defines what the word means. For example, an individual “disabled” as defined by the Office of Workers’ Compensation Programs statute may not meet the definition of “disabled” under the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. The meaning of these words is controlled by the context in which they are used.

Each chapter is separated into sections that refer to various situations you may encounter through the normal routine of your job. Each situation is followed by one or more responses you may make, then by specific tasks. The following is an example of what you will see:

Claims Management in Case of Death

When the ICCO receives notice of a death from a traumatic injury or potentially from an occupational disease or illness...

14.4 Contacting the Employee’s Family – supervisor or ICCO

- Contact the employee’s family, and do the following:
 - Offer assistance in completing the appropriate claim form...
 - Ensure that the employee’s family is advised of their rights under FECA...
 - Explain to the employee’s family the distinction between OPM and OWCP benefits...
- If the investigation reveals a basis to challenge the claim, prepare a challenge package in accordance with Chapter 8, Controversion and Challenge, and submit this to OWCP along with CA-5 or CA-5b.
- ◇ Ensure that family contact is conducted in accordance with the local installation’s established protocol.

Sections showing obligations that result from the law or from USPS policy are framed with solid lines and labeled “Obligation” as follows:

Obligation: Assigning Limited Duty

When an employee is not totally disabled or has partially overcome the injury or disability, the USPS must make every effort to assign the employee to limited duty consistent with the employee’s work limitation tolerance.

Sections that provide information that will help you fulfill the tasks outlined are framed with dotted lines, for example:

Assigning an Employee to Limited Duty

When an employee has partially overcome the injury or disability, the USPS must make every effort toward assigning the employee to limited duty consistent with the employee's work limitation tolerance.

The Appendixes

Throughout the handbook, you will find references to appendixes. You will find these appendixes at the end of the handbook. They are labeled as follows:

- Appendix A, Abbreviations and Acronyms.
 - Appendix B, Addresses.
 - Appendix C, Definitions.
 - Appendix D, Forms.

1 The USPS Injury Compensation Program

Overview

This chapter provides basic information about the USPS Injury Compensation Program. It first highlights the history and various provisions of the Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA). Then it describes the organization and staff responsibilities. The last part of the chapter lists valuable resource material to include in your injury compensation (IC) office.

Background Information

History

The USPS Injury Compensation Program was established in 1978 after the USPS realized it needed to establish a program to deal with the escalating costs of workers' compensation benefits. It is important to understand the history of FECA and the relationship between the USPS Injury Compensation Program and the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs (OWCP).

In 1908, President Theodore Roosevelt signed legislation to provide workers' compensation for certain federal employees in unusually hazardous jobs. The scope of the law was very restricted, and its benefits were quite limited. However, it was the first workers' compensation law to pass the constitutionality test of the U.S. Supreme Court.

The Federal Employees Compensation Act (FECA), enacted in 1916, is a workers' compensation law for civilian federal employees. Originally it included wage loss compensation, medical care, and survivors' benefits provisions. An independent quasi-judicial Employees' Compensation Commission administered the law.

Administrative responsibility for FECA was assigned to the Department of Labor (DOL) in 1950. FECA is now administered by the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs, Employment Standards Administration, U.S. Department of Labor.

In 1974, FECA was amended, increasing benefits and significantly changing the law by adding provisions such as continuation of pay (COP) and claimant's choice of physician. The effect of this amendment eventually led to the establishment of the USPS Injury Compensation Program.

Purpose of the Federal Employees' Compensation Act

FECA provides compensation benefits to civilian employees of the United States for disability because of personal injury or disease sustained while in the performance of duty. FECA also provides for the payment of benefits to dependents if a work-related injury or disease causes an employee's death. FECA is intended to be remedial in nature, and proceedings under it are non adversarial.

Family and Medical Leave Act

Provisions of the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) cover some absences for job-related injuries or illnesses that also qualify as serious health conditions.

Privacy Act

Injury compensation records are maintained by the USPS within the privacy system of records identified as USPS 120.098 (OWCP Record Copies) and 120.099 (Injury Compensation Payment Validation Records).

Eligibility

Under the provisions of the Postal Reorganization Act, 39 U.S.C. 1005(c), all employees of the USPS are covered by FECA. This coverage extends to all full-time, part-time, and temporary (including casual and transitional) employees, regardless of the length of time on the job or the type of position held. (Federal (FECA) Procedure Manual (FECA PM) 2-802)

General Provisions of the Federal Employees' Compensation Act

Employee Entitlements

Continuation of Regular Pay

An employee's regular pay may be continued for up to 45 calendar days of wage loss because of disability and medical treatment following a traumatic injury. This is to ensure that the employee's income is not interrupted while the claim is being adjudicated. COP is not considered compensation and is therefore subject to income tax, retirement, and other deductions. After entitlement to COP is exhausted, the employee may apply for compensation or use leave. (20 CFR 10.200; FECA PM 2-807)

See Chapter 4, Claims Management.
Chapter 13, Timekeeping and Accounting.

Compensation for Wage Loss

OWCP establishes the employee's pay rate for compensation purposes based on one of the following:

- Pay rate on date of injury.
- Date disability began.
- Date disability recurs if it is more than 6 months after the employee returns to full-time employment.

In cases of total disability, an employee is entitled to compensation at the rate of 66 2/3 percent of the employee's established pay if there are no dependents, or 75 percent of the pay if there are one or more dependents. Pay may include additional amounts that may be included in salary, such as premium pay, night and Sunday differential, and cost-of-living allowance.

Compensation payments for total disability may continue as long as the disability continues, which may mean the lifetime of the employee. There is no total dollar maximum. (20 CFR 10.300 through 303; FECA PM 2-900)

Medical Care

If the claim is accepted as compensable under FECA, the injured employee is entitled to medical services. These include examinations, treatments, and related services such as hospitalization, medications, appliances, supplies, and transportation, as prescribed or recommended by qualified physicians that in the opinion of OWCP are likely to cure, give relief, or reduce the degree or the period of disability (see Appendix C, Definitions, for physician). However, preventive care may not be authorized. There is no dollar maximum or time limitation on medical care. It will be provided as long as the evidence indicates it is needed for the effects of the injury. (20 CFR Subparts E and F; FECA PM 2-810 and Part 3, Medical Management, FECA PM)

SEE Chapter 4, Claims Management.
Chapter 6, Medical Management.

Vocational Rehabilitation

Rehabilitation services may be arranged to assist in training for work that the claimant can perform if the injured employee suffers a job-related handicap because of the injury and cannot resume usual employment. Rehabilitation service is supervised by OWCP but is usually provided in cooperation with state or private rehabilitation agencies. When rehabilitation is under way, OWCP may provide a monthly maintenance allowance not to exceed $200 in addition to compensation for wage loss. (20 CFR 10.124; FECA PM 2-813; OWCP PM)

SEE Chapter 11, Rehabilitation Program.

Schedule Awards

Compensation is provided for permanent loss or loss of use (either partial or total) of certain internal organs, members, or functions of the body such as arms, legs, hands, feet, fingers, toes, or eyes and loss of hearing or loss of vision.

Schedule awards may be paid for different body parts.

Each extremity has been rated for a specific number of weeks of compensation. If a serious disfigurement of the head, face, or neck results from a job-related injury, an award may also be made for such disfigurement. Schedule awards may be paid concurrently with Office of Personnel Management's (OPM) retirement benefits.

Schedule awards can be paid even if the employee returns to work or is no longer under actual medical care. Employees may not, however, receive wage loss compensation and schedule award benefits concurrently for the same injury. If an employee sustains a period of temporary total disability during the course of the award, the award may be interrupted to pay for the period of disability. The schedule award resumes after the employee returns to work. If an employee dies during the course of a schedule award from causes unrelated to the compensable injury, his or her dependents are entitled to the balance of the award at the rate of 66 2/3 percent of the employee's established pay. (20 CFR 10.304; FECA PM 2-808)

Compensation for Loss of Wage-Earning Capacity

When an injured person suffers a wage loss because of a disability that is less than total, compensation may be paid for loss of wages or wage-earning capacity (LWEC). The injury compensation control office (ICCO) may request that an LWEC determination be made by the OWCP claims examiner if sufficient medical evidence indicates that an individual who is receiving compensation has attained maximum medical improvement, is unable to return to the position held at the time of injury (or to earn equivalent wages), and is not totally disabled for all gainful employment. If the employee is reemployed at a job paying less than the original position, or if it is determined that he or she can perform the duties of a specific job that is deemed suitable by OWCP, compensation will be payable based on the LWEC determination. (20 CFR 10.303; FECA PM 2-813)

SEE Chapter 11, Rehabilitation Program.

Death Benefits

In the event of death because of employment, FECA provides up to $800 for funeral and burial expenses.

If the employee dies away from his or her place of residence, the cost of transporting the body to the place of burial is paid in full. In addition, a $200 allowance is paid for administrative costs of terminating a decedent's employee status with the federal government.

Survivors are entitled to benefits in the form of compensation payments:

- A surviving spouse with no eligible children is entitled to compensation at the rate of 50 percent of the deceased employee's salary.
- Benefits are paid to the spouse until death or remarriage before age 55. If a spouse under age 55 remarries, OWCP makes a lump-sum payment equal to 24 times the monthly compensation at the time of remarriage. The benefits of a spouse who remarries after the age of 55 are not affected by the marriage.
- If children are eligible in addition to the spouse, the spouse may receive compensation equal to 45 percent of the employee's regular pay, plus an additional 15 percent for each child, to a maximum of 75 percent of the deceased employee's regular pay. The children's portion is paid on a share and share alike basis. Eligible children include:
 - An unmarried child under the age of 18, or over the age of 18 who is incapable of self-support because of mental or physical disability.
 - A child between 18 and 23 years of age who has not completed 4 years of post high school education and is regularly pursuing a full-time course of study.

- If the deceased employee leaves no spouse, the first child is entitled to 40 percent and each additional child is entitled to 15 percent of the employee's salary up to a maximum of 75 percent, payable on a share and share alike basis.

Other surviving dependents may be entitled to compensation benefits at various percentages according to degree of dependence. Monthly payments for all beneficiaries cannot exceed 75 percent of the employee's monthly pay rate or 75 percent of the top step of a GS-15 salary, whichever is less. Other persons who may qualify are dependent parents, brothers, sisters, grandparents, and grandchildren. However, the surviving spouse and children have first priority. (20 CFR 10.306 and .307; FECA PM 2-700; Publication CA-810, Injury Compensation for Federal Employees)

SEE Chapter 4, Claims Management.

Attendant Allowance

Employees who are injured so severely that they are unable to meet their own physical needs such as feeding, bathing, or dressing may qualify to receive an attendant's allowance up to a maximum of $1,500 per month. This allowance may be paid in addition to compensation for wage loss. (20 CFR 10.305, FECA PM 2-807, Publication CA-810, Chapter 7, Compensation Benefits)

Cost-of-Living Adjustments

Compensation benefits are increased by the applicable consumer price index effective March 1 each year for all beneficiaries who have been in receipt of benefits for more than 1 year prior to that date.

Dual Benefits

FECA prohibits payment of compensation and certain other federal benefits at the same time.

- Office of Personnel Management (OPM). Except for schedule awards, a person may not receive disability benefits from OWCP concurrently with a regular or disability annuity (either Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) or Federal Employees' Retirement System (FERS)) nor may a person receive death benefits from OWCP concurrently with a survivor's annuity (either CSRS or FERS). Therefore, a beneficiary who is entitled to both benefits must elect between them.
- Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). Beneficiaries who receive compensation from the VA may also be required to elect between the benefits paid by that agency and those paid by OWCP. An election is required between VA and FECA benefits if a VA award is increased because of the compensation injury. The election is only between the increase and FECA benefits.
- Social Security Administration (SSA). An employee or the employee's survivor may receive Social Security payments payable on account of non-federal employment and OWCP benefits at the same time, subject to income limitations imposed by the SSA. For FERS employees, any portion of SSA old age retirement or death benefits attributable to an employee's federal service is deducted from compensation payable.

- Other Federal Income. An employee or the employee's survivor may receive compensation concurrently with military retired pay, retirement pay, retainer pay, or equivalent pay for service in the armed forces or other uniformed services subject to reduction of such pay in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 5532 (b).

An employee may receive severance pay concurrently with compensation for a schedule award or for loss of wage-earning capacity but not with compensation for temporary total disability.

Finally, an employee may receive unemployment compensation benefits concurrently with OWCP benefits.

Third Party Liability

In instances in which an employee's injury or death in the performance of duty occurs under circumstances creating a legal liability on some person or party other than the U.S. government, the employee (or survivor in the case of death) is encouraged to pursue a third party claim.

An employee who refuses to pursue recovery from a liable third party after being asked to do so by the DOL may be denied compensation.

The USPS may assist in obtaining a settlement. An employee who sustains a job-related injury cannot recover damages from the United States for the effects of the injury except through FECA. (20 CFR Subpart G; FECA PM 2-1100)

SEE Chapter 10, Third Party Liability.

Appeal Rights

If an employee or the survivors disagree with the final determination made by OWCP, a hearing may be requested to give the claimant an opportunity to present evidence in further support of the claim or ask that the claim be reconsidered by the OWCP district office. Also, there is a provision for additional review by OWCP and a right to appeal to the Employees' Compensation Appeals Board (ECAB), a separate entity of DOL. Three avenues of appeal are provided for employees; the USPS is not entitled to appeal. Only one type of appeal may be requested by the employee at a time. The types of appeal include:

- Hearing. The employee is entitled to either an oral hearing before an office representative or a review of the written record (but not both) as long as the request is made within 30 days of the formal decision and reconsideration has not already been requested. The employee may change his or her hearing request in writing within 30 days of OWCP's acknowledgment of the initial request.
- Reconsideration. The employee may request OWCP to reconsider a formal decision made by the district office. The request should clearly and concisely state the ground on which it is based and should be substantiated by relevant evidence not previously submitted. A reconsideration must be requested within 1 year of the date the contested formal decision was issued.
- Employees' Compensation Appeals Board (ECAB) Review. The employee may request review by ECAB, the highest authority in FECA claims. ECAB's review is based solely upon the case record at the time of the formal decision. New evidence is not considered by ECAB.

Employees residing within the U.S. or Canada have 90 days from the date of decision to file for review. Employees residing outside the U.S. or Canada must file within 180 days of the date of decision. For good cause shown, ECAB may waive a failure to file an application within 90 days or 180 days, but no more than one year from the date of the final decision. (20 CFR 10.133 through 139; FECA PM 2-1600 through 1603)

SEE Chapter 8, Controversion and Challenge.

Withdrawal of a Claim

All employees' claim forms (CA-1, Federal Employee's Notice of Traumatic Injury and Claim for Continuation of Pay/Compensation, and CA-2, Notice of Occupational Disease and Claim for Compensation) are official records of the OWCP and not the USPS. (20 CFR 10.10)

Employees who desire to withdraw a claim on these or any other official OWCP forms should be referred to OWCP.

Penalties

Penalty for False Statement

Any employee, supervisor, or representative who knowingly makes a false statement with respect to a claim under FECA may be subject to a fine of not more than $10,000 or 5 years in prison, or both. (20 CFR 10.23)

Penalty for False Claim

Any employee, supervisor, or representative who, with respect to a claim under FECA, enters into any agreement to obtain the payment or allowance of any false or fraudulent claim may be subject to a fine of not more than $10,000 or 10 years in prison, or both. (20 CFR 10.23)

Penalty for Refusal to Process Claim

Any employee or supervisor responsible for making reports in connection with an injury who willfully fails, neglects, or refuses to do so; induces, compels, or directs an injured employee to forgo filing a claim; or willfully retains any notice, report, or paper required in connection with an injury may be subject to a fine of not more than $500 or 1 year in prison, or both. (20 CFR 10.23)

Penalty for Fraudulently Claiming or Obtaining Benefits

Claimants convicted of fraudulently claiming or obtaining benefits under FECA cited in Public Law 103-333, effective 9/30/94, lose entitlement to medical benefits, compensation for wage loss, and any other benefits payable under FECA. (20 CFR 10.23)

Pending Disciplinary Action

USPS administrative disciplinary action must not be delayed based on current claim status.

Relevant Provision of FMLA

An employee may be on a workers' compensation absence because of a job-related injury or illness that also qualifies as a serious health condition under FMLA. The workers' compensation absence and FMLA leave may run concurrently (subject to proper notice and designation by the employer). At some point the health care provider providing medical care pursuant to the workers' compensation injury may certify the employee is able to return to work in a limited duty position. If the employer offers such a position, and the employee does not accept the position, the employee may no longer qualify for workers' compensation benefits, but the employee is entitled to continue on unpaid FMLA leave either until the employee is able to return to the same or equivalent job the employee left or until the 12-week FMLA leave entitlement is exhausted.

Responsibilities

Office of Workers' Compensation Programs, U.S. Department of Labor

OWCP has the exclusive authority (except as otherwise provided by law) for the administration, implementation, and enforcement of FECA. Its main responsibility is to determine whether the claimant is entitled to benefits under FECA. Claim decisions, determinations, and adjudications are made in the name of, or for, the director of OWCP.

Responsibility for FECA is vested in 12 OWCP district offices. The locations and jurisdiction of these offices are identified in Appendix B, Addresses.

U.S. Postal Service

Headquarters

The manager of Safety and Risk Management:

- Establishes policy and procedures through the vice president of Human Resources (HR).
- Coordinates and provides technical guidance in field activities to ensure uniform management of the program.
- Identifies training needs for those involved in administering the program.
- Coordinates efforts with DOL in conjunction with the USPS responsibilities under FECA.
- Provides reports to postal management at all levels about the status of the program.
- Identifies program initiatives to enhance effective program management.

Area Offices

Area HR managers:

- Implement the national Injury Compensation Program policies and directives.
- Oversee areawide program activities to ensure compliance with national policies and guidelines.

Area HR analysts for injury compensation:

- Advise Headquarters on the status of the Injury Compensation Program within the area and assist in the administration of policy, programs, and procedures that affect the program.
- Provide technical assistance and guidance to Customer Services and Sales (CSS) districts and Processing and Distribution (P&D) centers, satellite offices, and their assigned ICCO personnel in relation to the program.
- Manage and oversee cost-reduction initiatives and case management techniques.
- Define area goals and objectives within the guidelines established by Headquarters.

Districts and Plants

Customer Service and Sales district HR managers:

- Implement Headquarters and area program policies, objectives, and action plans within the district boundaries.
- Ensure that authorized IC positions are staffed, sufficient ICCO staff (HR specialists) are assigned and trained (see pp. 2 through 4), and appropriate control point personnel are designated.

Managers of P&D centers, bulk mail centers (BMCs) and air mail centers:

- Implement the objectives and policies of the program within the operations under their jurisdiction.
- Ensure that control point personnel are designated, where appropriate.

Control Offices

ICCOs are physically located at district offices and selected satellite offices. They are supervised by a senior IC specialist and staffed by a designated number of HR specialists and, in some offices, HR associates.

Senior IC specialists:

- Oversee program administration within the district boundaries.
- Supervise ICCO activities.
- Assist management in the selection and designation of ICCO or control point personnel.
- Ensure that ICCO or control point personnel are properly trained.

ICCO personnel:

- Administer and control all aspects of the Injury Compensation Program within the domiciling installation and defined area of responsibility.

Installations

Control point personnel are designated by the installation head (or functional manager in large installations). At least one control point person must be designated for each tour of operation. Control points report functionally to either the senior IC specialist or to the designated ICCO in program matters.

Control point personnel (all management levels):

- Authorize medical treatment in accordance with CFR 10.402(a).
- Review medical documentation to determine employee’s duty status.
- Coordinate activities of first-line supervisors relative to claims management efforts.

First-line supervisors:

- Perform claims management activities immediately following the injury.
- Investigate the circumstances surrounding the injury.
- Conduct all necessary coordination and follow up with designated control point supervisors and ICCOs.

Employees:

- Fulfill their obligations as set forth in this chapter.

Claims Administration Hierarchy

Claims administration responsibility always rests with the ICCO at a management level above that of the injured employee. Designated ICCO-employee relationships are as follows:

Employee	Control Level
Craft employees	District Supervisors
Postmasters
District managers and direct manager reports	Area
Plant managers
All full-time and collateral IC personnel
Area managers	Headquarters
Headquarters and Headquarters-related units (unless otherwise advised)

Resource Materials

Regulations, Policies, and Procedures

This handbook is a compilation of various USPS-issued regulations, policies, and procedures. However, because of the nature and complexity of the Injury Compensation Program, the handbook in itself is not sufficient for the effective management of this program.

To effectively manage the program, IC personnel should establish a reference library including, but not limited to, the documents listed below.

The Federal Employees’ Compensation Act, as amended, 5 U.S.C. 8101, et seq.

Copies of FECA may be obtained from the OWCP district office.

Code of Federal Regulations, 20 CFR 10

The Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) describes the provisions of the law and contains additional information concerning administration of the program. Part 10 provides helpful information for developing local procedures and responding to local inquiries. Copies may be obtained from the OWCP district office.

Federal (FECA) Procedure Manual, Part 2, Claims

The FECA PM describes the procedures used by OWCP personnel in processing claims. This manual can be of great assistance in determining whether to controvert or challenge a claim in some questionable cases. Periodic revisions made by OWCP are distributed by USPS Headquarters and area offices. For optimum benefit, it is imperative that this manual be updated with current information.

Requests for a copy should be directed to:

DIVISION OF FEDERAL EMPLOYEES' COMPENSATION
OFFICE OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION PROGRAMS
200 CONSTITUTION AVE NW
WASHINGTON DC 20210-0001

Federal (OWCP) Procedure Manual, Part 3, Rehabilitation

The Federal (OWCP) Procedure Manual (OWCP PM) contains procedures for OWCP's vocational rehabilitation program. Like the FECA PM, the OWCP PM provides insight into the criteria followed by OWCP. Ordering and maintenance procedures for this manual are the same as cited for the FECA PM.

Pamphlet CA-550, Questions and Answers About the Federal Employees' Compensation Act

Describes in nontechnical language the basic provisions of the law and includes information concerning the most common issues about entitlement and claims processing. It is intended for use primarily by employees. Copies may be ordered from material distribution centers.

Decisions of the Employees' Compensation Appeals Board

ECAB is the highest authority for appeals review in federal workers' compensation claims. Board decisions are often precedent setting and can result in revision of guidelines by OWCP. A familiarity with ECAB decisions, particularly high-profile decisions, is extremely helpful when preparing controversion and challenge packages. Copies of relevant ECAB decisions are disseminated by USPS Headquarters and area offices. Decisions and summaries are also available in various formats from private contractors.

Publication CA-810, Injury Compensation for Federal Employees, February 1994

Publication CA-810 was prepared by OWCP and is intended to serve as a handbook for all federal agencies. It provides basic information regarding the administration of FECA. Like 20 CFR, Part 10, this publication can be extremely helpful when developing local procedures and responding to local inquiries.

Handbook EL-515, Joint Rehabilitation Guidelines, May 1992

Handbook EL-515 was a joint venture by the USPS and DOL to provide procedures and guidelines for rehabilitation program efforts.

Employee and Labor Relations Manual 540, Special Postal Bulletin, August 2, 1990

The Employee and Labor Relations Manual (ELM) 540 was prepared by the USPS. It lists policies and procedures in compliance with FECA and its related regulations.

Administrative Support Manual 353, Privacy Act

The Administrative Support Manual (ASM) 353 includes instructions for applying the Privacy Act and the USPS regulations that implement it. Those who handle IC case files and payment records must be familiar with their Privacy Act responsibilities.

Management Instruction EL-540-91-1, Job-Related First-Aid Injuries

This management instruction provides policies and procedures for reporting injuries to OWCP, for determining choice of physician, and for paying medical bills to contract physicians for initial treatment of job-related first-aid injuries.

Publication 540, A Guide for Managing Injuries, November 1994

Publication 540 provides guidance to field managers in establishing or supplementing procedures for the early management of IC claims.

Handbook F-21, Time and Attendance, October 7, 1988, and Handbook F-22, PSDS Supervisor's Guide, May 1992

These handbooks address specific pay issues relevant to injured workers.

Forms and Notices

Many forms are used to collect information needed in the administration of the Injury Compensation Program, some from OWCP, and some from the USPS. It is important for IC personnel to be aware of their uses and comply with the required time frames for submitting them.

CA-1, Federal Employee's Notice of Traumatic Injury and Claim for Continuation of Pay/Compensation

The CA-1 notifies management of a traumatic injury and serves as the report to OWCP, when needed.

The employee, or someone acting in his or her behalf, should submit the CA-1 to the supervisor as soon as possible following injury but no later than 30 days for COP entitlement. Statutory requirements will be met for FECA benefits if the CA-1 is filed within 3 years from the injury.

The supervisor should submit this form to the ICCO within 24 hours from receipt from the employee.

The ICCO must submit this form to OWCP within 10 working days from the date received by the supervisor (or other postal official) from the employee.

CA-2, Notice of Occupational Disease and Claim for Compensation

The CA-2 notifies management of an occupational illness or disease and serves as the report to OWCP, when needed.

Statutory requirements will be met if filed within 3 years from date of awareness.

The supervisor submits this form to the ICCO within 24 hours.

The ICCO submits this form to OWCP within 10 working days from the date received by the supervisor or other postal official.

CA-2a, Federal Employee's Notice of Recurrence of Disability and Claim of Pay/Compensation

The CA-2a notifies management and OWCP that an employee, after returning to work, is again disabled because of a prior injury or occupational illness. It also serves as a claim for continuation of pay or for compensation. Immediately upon notification, the ICCO or the supervisor provides the employee with CA-2a.

The employee completes Part A and returns the form. If received by the supervisor, the form must be submitted to the ICCO within 24 hours.

The ICCO submits this form to OWCP within 10 working days from receipt of the form from the employee.

CA-3, Report of Termination of Disability and/or Payment

The CA-3 notifies OWCP that the employee has returned to work and/or that continuation of pay has terminated.

Immediately upon the employee's return to work, the ICCO submits the CA-3 to OWCP. The CA-3 is the preferred form recognized by both agencies even though the employee's return to work may be reported on the CA-7 or the CA-17.

CA-5, Claim for Compensation by Widow, Widower, and/or Children

The CA-5 serves as the official notice to the OWCP of the surviving widow's, widower's, and/or children's claim for compensation because of the employee's death which resulted from a job-related injury.

Upon notification, the ICCO provides the appropriate dependent with the form. The dependent, or representative, should complete the form within 30 days (but no later than 3 years after death) and return it to the ICCO. (If death resulted from an injury for which a disability claim was timely filed, the time requirements for filing the death claim have been met.)

CA-5b, Claim for Compensation by Parents, Brothers, Sisters, Grandparents, or Grandchildren

The CA-5b provides claims compensation for specified dependents when the injury results in the employee's death.

The ICCO submits the CA-5b to OWCP within 10 working days from date of receipt from the dependent.

The time requirements for CA-5b are the same as for CA-5.

CA-6, Official Superior's Report of Employee's Death

The CA-6 notifies OWCP of the employment-related death of an employee.

The ICCO submits the CA-6 to OWCP within 10 working days after knowledge of the job-related death.

CA-7, Claim for Compensation on Account of Traumatic Injury or Occupational Disease

The CA-7 is used to claim compensation if (1) injury has resulted in permanent impairment involving the total or partial loss, or loss of use, of certain parts of the body or serious disfigurement of the face, head, or neck; or (2) medical evidence shows disability is expected to continue beyond the COP period in traumatic cases and results in wage loss.

When disability is expected to extend beyond the COP period in traumatic injury cases, the ICCO provides the employee with a CA-7 10 days before the end of the COP period. The employee is instructed to complete his or her portion, have the attending physician complete the CA-20. The ICCO submits the completed CA-7 to OWCP not less than 5 working days before termination of COP.

In occupational disease or illness cases, a CA-7 should be submitted along with the CA-2 if the disability is being claimed at that time. In other instances, the CA-7 is completed and submitted to OWCP not more than 5 days after the period claimed by the employee.

CA-8, Claim for Continuing Compensation on Account of Disability

The CA-8 provides claims compensation when disability continues beyond the time covered by the claim filed on the CA-7.

CA-8s are filed on a recurring basis (usually every 2 weeks) until advised otherwise by OWCP.

If disability is expected to continue, the ICCO provides the employee with the CA-8 at least 10 days before the end of the time indicated on either the CA-7 or the previous CA-8. The employee completes his or her portion, and has the attending physician complete the CA-20a.

The ICCO submits the completed CA-8 to OWCP at least 5 days before the end of the period claimed on the CA-7 or the previous CA-8.

CA-10, What a Federal Employee Should Do When Injured at Work

The CA-10 provides employees with information regarding their rights, responsibilities, and benefits under FECA.

The CA-10 is to be posted on employee bulletin boards.

CA-11, When Injured at Work

This pamphlet provides facts about medical benefits, disability, compensation for death, and other entitlements for civilian employees of the federal government.

The CA-11 should be handed out during employee orientation.

CA-13, Work Injury Benefits for Federal Employees

The CA-13 is a card for federal employees to carry in their wallets as a reference. It provides instructions for employees and their families in the event of an employment-related injury or death.

The CA-13 should be handed out during employee orientation.

CA-16, Authorization for Examination and/or Treatment

The CA-16 authorizes an injured employee to obtain examination and/or treatment for up to 60 days and provides OWCP with an initial medical report.

The CA-16 forms are issued by the ICCO or trained control point personnel only.

The CA-16 must be promptly issued within 4 hours in traumatic injuries requiring medical attention, except first-aid injuries where the employee has elected treatment by a contract medical provider. CA-16s are rarely used for occupational illness or disease claims and only with prior OWCP approval. If the employee chooses to select a contract medical provider beyond first-aid treatment, the CA-16 should be issued in accordance with FECA for the employee's selection of the contract medical provider as the employee's treating physician.

CA-17, Duty Status Report

The CA-17 provides management and OWCP with an interim medical report containing information as to the employee's ability to return to any type of work. Initially issued by the supervisor at the time of injury, subsequent issuances are performed by either the ICCO or control point personnel. The employee is responsible for having the attending physician complete the CA-17 at each visit when there is a change in medical condition and for its prompt return to the ICCO or control point. The ICCO submits the completed form to OWCP within 10 days from date of receipt.

CA-20, Attending Physician's Report

The CA-20 provides medical support for claims and is attached to the CA-7, which provides the ICCO and OWCP with medical information. The CA-20 is initially issued by the supervisor at the time of injury when the CA-16 is not used and when the injury is not a first-aid injury treated by a contract medical provider. Subsequent issuances are the same as for the CA-17. CA-20 must be submitted promptly to OWCP upon completion of most recent examination or treatment.

CA-20a, Attending Physician's Supplemental Report

The CA-20a provides OWCP with additional medical information in connection with a supplemental claim filed on an attached CA-8. A corresponding CA-20a is to be submitted with each CA-8 filed. The CA-20a must be submitted promptly to OWCP upon completion of most recent examination or treatment.

Evidence Required in Support of a Claim for

- 35A, Occupational Disease*
- 35B, Work-Related Hearing Loss*
- 35C, Asbestos-Related Illness*
- 35D, Work-Related Coronary/Vascular Condition*
- 35E, Work-Related Skin Disease*
- 35F, Work-Related Pulmonary Illness (not asbestoses)*
- 35G, Work-Related Psychiatric Illness*
- 35H, Work-Related Carpal Tunnel Syndrome*

The 35A-through-H series of forms provides employee and management with a checklist of information required from both parties in order for OWCP to adjudicate the respective occupational illness or disease claim.

These forms should be submitted with the CA-2.

HCFA-1500, Health Insurance Claim Form

This form provides OWCP with a standard billing form to facilitate payment of medical bills.

The HCFA-1500 is issued along with the CA-16, the CA-20, and the CA-17 when the employee is scheduled for medical examination and/or treatment.

Form 2491, Medical Report – First-Aid Injuries

Form 2491 provides management with a medical report containing information regarding the employee's ability to return to work. This form is used in lieu of the CA-16/20 and the CA-17 when the employee is being treated for a first-aid injury by a contract medical provider.

Form 2491 is issued by the ICCO or control point personnel or the supervisor at the time of injury (initial examination or treatment) and follow-up visit.

Form 2556, Third Party Statement of Recovery

Form 2556 provides OWCP and the USPS with a breakdown of disbursements made from monies recovered from a third party pursuit. This form is used when the employee is represented by an attorney or has assigned the action to the USPS.

When the employee is represented by an attorney, the ICCO issues this form directly to the attorney upon notification. Upon the employee's recovery, the form must be completed promptly and forwarded to OWCP with a check for the government's lien by the ICCO.

Form 2557, Employee's Third Party Recovery Statement

Form 2557 provides OWCP and the USPS with a breakdown of monies recovered by the employee when pursuing his or her own third party action.

The ICCO issues this form promptly to the employee upon notification that he or she is pursuing his or her own action. Upon recovery, the employee returns the form to the ICCO, along with a check for the government's lien, for prompt referral to OWCP.

Form 2559, Third Party Claim – Information Request

Form 2559 provides information about the employee's action (or intended action) regarding the pursuit of a third party action.

This form is issued by the ICCO when the employee's response on Form 2562 was negative or undecided.

Form 2560, Referral of Third Party Material

This form is the cover letter for the transmittal of third party documents and information.

It is used by the ICCO when forwarding third party material.

Form 2562, Injury Compensation Program – Notice of Potential Third Party Claim

Form 2562 provides general information regarding a potential third party and the employee's intent.

This form is issued by the ICCO to the employee upon notification of a possible third party liability. The employee promptly completes the form and returns it to the ICCO for referral to OWCP.

Form 2573, Request – OWCP Claim Status

Form 2573 provides a standard format for requesting general claim status information from OWCP.

The form is used by the ICCO when needed.

Form 2577, Assignment of Claim to the USPS

Form 2577 provides the USPS with the authority to pursue a third party recovery.

This form is issued by the ICCO to the employee upon notification of the employee's lack of intent to take personal action. If in agreement, the employee completes and returns the form to the ICCO for referral to OWCP.

Publication 71, Notice for Employees Requesting Leave for Conditions Covered by the Family and Medical Leave Act

When an employee is absent from work because of an FMLA-covered injury or illness, a copy of Publication 71 is given to him or her along with the modified letter called Employee Rights, Responsibilities, and Choice of Physician (see Exhibit 3.5b).

2 Injury Compensation Office Setup

Overview

The injury compensation (IC) office or unit serves as the injury compensation control office (ICCO). To effectively manage the Injury Compensation Program and control compensation costs, the IC unit must:

- Be organized in a manner that centralizes the processing of administrative paperwork.
- Promote efficiency through the training of IC personnel as well as managers and supervisors.
- Facilitate the administrative duties and responsibilities of IC personnel by utilizing the Human Resource Information System (HRIS) and the Workers' Compensation Information Subsystem (WCIS).
- Be large enough to accommodate file cabinets and a lektriever and have at least one conference area to allow for privacy while interviewing employees or preparing and discussing individual compensation cases.

Because of the complexities of IC policies, procedures, and regulations, the unit should have all resource materials identified in Chapter 1 available for guidance and reference.

Procedures

Injury Compensation Unit

When forming an injury compensation unit...

2-1 Authorizing Injury Compensation Positions — district HR manager

- Fill the following authorized IC positions:
 - Senior IC specialist.
 - HR specialists.
 - HR associates.
- Clearly define all duties and responsibilities of IC personnel so they will be held accountable for their specific areas, programs, and compensation cases.

2-2 Supplying an Adequate Stock of Forms, Sample Letters, and Supplies — senior IC specialist

- Supply your unit with the following forms:
 - All CA and PS forms identified in Chapter 1.
 - Leave repurchase forms.
 - Form 2240, Pay, Leave, and Other Hours Adjustment Request.
 - Form 2243, PSDS Hours Adjustment Record.
 - Form 3971, Request for or Notification of Absence.

SEE Appendix D, Forms.
- Supply your office with the following correspondence:
 - Limited duty accommodations/acceptance or rejection of limited duty (see exhibits in Chapter 7, Limited Duty Program Management).
 - Leave repurchase policy notification (see Exhibit 4.19b, Sample Letter: Leave Buy Back Policy).
 - COP authorization (see Chapter 4, Claims Management).
 - Third party liability letters (see exhibits in Chapter 10, Third Party Liability).
 - Health benefit refund (see Chapter 4, Claims Management).
 - Basic controversion letter (see exhibits in Chapter 8, Controversion and Challenge).
- Furnish your office with the following office supplies:
 - Sturdy file folders with two-pronged fasteners on both sides. Do not use official personnel folders (OPFs).
 - Copy paper, legal pads, pencils, pens, paper clips, stapler, etc.
 - Bulletin board.

2-3 Supplying Office Equipment — district HR manager

- Supply your office with the following office equipment:
 - Desks with telephones.
 - Facsimile machine.
 - Telephone answering machine.
 - Computers and printers.
 - Electric typewriter (optional, depending on computer capability).
 - Copy machine.
 - Document shredder.
 - File cabinets and lektreiver.
 - Partitions.
 - Date stamping equipment.

2-4 Centralizing the Processing of IC Forms and Paperwork and the Management of Claims – district HR manager or senior IC specialist

- Ensure that IC personnel receive proper training for effective claims management and program administration.

OWCP and USPS Training Courses

IC personnel may enroll in the following OWCP or USPS courses by contacting the OWCP district office or area HR analyst for injury compensation for scheduling.

OWCP

- OWCP Basic Course, Training for Federal Employing Agency Compensation Specialists (3 days).
- Advanced Course for Federal Agency Compensation Specialists (12 hours, self-paced).

USPS

- Injury Compensation Program Administration Course (2 weeks).
- WCIS.
- HRIS.

- Arrange to assign the claims equitably among members of the staff.
One common way to assign claims is to split the alphabet between staff members and assign claims according to the last initial of the claimant.
 - Prepare a comprehensive IC policy and procedure statement to be incorporated in an accident kit so that managers and supervisors will know what to do when an injury occurs.
Establish a procedure for the:
 - Main office.
 - Station or branches.
 - Associate offices.
 - Other detached units such as vehicle maintenance facilities (VMFs) and bulk mail centers (BMCs).
 The IC policy must:
 - Require immediate notification of injury:
 - Injured employees must notify their supervisor if medically able to do so.
 - The supervisor must notify the IC unit. Record essential information on answering machine tape during IC unit off-tour hours.
 - Ensure that injured employees receive immediate medical attention following an injury or illness.
 - Ensure that injured employees are informed of their rights and responsibilities, and that entitlements are authorized.
 - Require that all claim forms and related paperwork be submitted through the unit within the specific time frame (normally as soon as possible, but no later than 2 days after receipt from the employee).
 - Ensure that the employee's duty status is ascertained.
 - Ensure that limited duty is made available and offered.
- ◇ This policy or procedure statement must be endorsed by the installation head and enforced.

3 Immediate Involvement With Traumatic Injuries and Occupational Illnesses

Overview

This chapter addresses the supervisor's role in the event that an employee suffers a work-related traumatic injury or disease or illness. (For information regarding occupational disease or illness claims, see Chapter 4, Claims Management.)

As stated in Chapter 1, one of the main reasons for the development of the USPS Injury Compensation Program was cost control. This objective, however, in no way lessens our primary responsibility for the safety and health of our employees. Accident prevention should always be our first defense. After an accident and subsequent injury have occurred, however, active involvement and claims management at all levels are paramount to accomplishing our cost control and employee welfare goals. Close coordination and cooperation between IC and supervisory personnel are vital to ensure the best interests of both the employee and the USPS.

The employee's supervisor is in an excellent position to ensure that proper and immediate actions are taken following an injury. He or she has firsthand knowledge of the employee, the working environment and, in many cases, the actual circumstances surrounding the injury. It is the supervisor who is there to ensure that the injured employee is provided with his or her benefits and rights under FECA.

In addition to the employee's supervisor, the designated control point also plays an essential role in the early management of the claim. The designated control point initially authorizes, through the issuance of the CA-16, Authorization for Examination and/or Treatment, the medical examination and treatment when an injured employee elects an outside physician and hospital (not under contract with USPS), reviews initial medical findings to determine employee's duty status, and determines when the issuance of a CA-16 is not appropriate.

A CA-16 may be issued to a hospital or clinic under contract if the employee elects that provider as a treating physician and the extent of treating the injury is beyond first aid.

Procedures

Employee Responsibilities

When a new employee is hired...

3-1 Informing Employees of Their Responsibilities — supervisor

Obligation: Notifying OWCP of Traumatic Injury or Occupational Illness or Disease

FECA requires written notice of a traumatic injury be given within 30 calendar days from the date on which the injury occurs. Failure to give notice within this 30-day period will result in a loss of entitlement to COP as well as a loss of compensation rights in the event that the claim for compensation is not filed within 3 years. The notice of traumatic injury is given on the CA-1.

An employee who believes he or she has developed an occupational disease or illness, or a person acting on behalf of the employee, must give written notice of the disease or illness to the employee's official supervisor. If, for any reason, it is impractical to give notice to the employee's official supervisor, notice of the disease or illness is given to any USPS official or to OWCP. The notice of disease or illness is given on the CA-2.

FECA specifies that notice be given to OWCP within 30 calendar days from the date on which the employee was first aware, or by the exercise of reasonable diligence should have been aware, of a possible connection between the disease or illness and the related factors or conditions of employment. Failure to give notice within this time period may result in a loss of compensation rights in the event that the claim for compensation is not filed within 3 years.

- During employee orientation, advise employees to report their injuries and illnesses immediately in order to protect their interests, receive prompt medical care, and ensure uninterrupted income.
- Regularly advise employees of their responsibilities during periodic safety meetings.
- Ensure that the employee rights and responsibilities are posted on the bulletin board along with local injury compensation policy for reporting injuries.

Supervisor and Control Point Responsibilities in an Emergency

When an emergency work-related accident or illness occurs...

3-2 Initiating Medical Treatment in an Emergency – supervisor

Medical Emergency

A medical emergency is an injury or sudden and unexpected onset of a condition requiring immediate medical care. Some problems are considered emergencies because, if not treated promptly, they might become more serious (for example, animal bites, eye injuries, deep cuts, broken bones). Others are emergencies because they are potentially life-threatening (for example, heart attacks, strokes, weapon wounds, sudden inability to breathe). In the event that there is a doubt as to the emergent nature of the emergency, it should be handled as an emergency (ELM 543.14).

- ◇ If emergency treatment is essential and securing authorization would be impractical, an employee may obtain emergency treatment without prior authorization.
- Immediately ensure that appropriate medical care is provided:
 - Advise the employee of his or her right to treatment by a USPS contract medical provider or by a private physician or hospital of his or her choice.
 - Arrange for the employee to go to the nearest available physician or hospital or to a physician or hospital chosen by the employee or by the employee’s representative.
 - In emergency situations, you must accompany the employee to the doctor’s office or hospital, or arrange for another supervisor to do so, to ensure that the employee receives prompt medical treatment.
- If there is not sufficient time to advise the employee of all rights and responsibilities, advise the employee that he or she must do at least the following, if medically able to do so:
 - Submit CA-17, Duty Status Report, and other medical evidence to the supervisor or control point within FECA requirements after the examination (or at the start of the employee’s next scheduled work shift), so that the employee’s duty status may be determined.
 - Let the treating physician know of the availability of limited duty and request the physician to provide any limitations imposed by the injury.
 - Return Form 2491, Medical Report – First-Aid Injuries.
- If there is not sufficient time to complete appropriate paperwork (see “When a nonemergency job-related accident or illness occurs...”), arrange to do it after medical care has been provided. Note that:
 - Verbal authorization may be given for medical treatment initially and the CA-16 issued within 4 hours (see 3.3, Authorizing Medical Treatment in an Emergency).
 - CA-1, Federal Employee’s Notice of Traumatic Injury and Claim for Continuation of Pay/ Compensation, should be submitted within 48 hours, if possible.

3-3 Authorizing Medical Treatment in an Emergency – ICCO or control point

Obligation: Authorizing Medical Examination and/or Treatment

Initial medical examination and/or treatment must be authorized in accordance with the FECA provisions and applicable OWCP regulations and policies governing medical care. FECA guarantees the employee the right to a free choice of physician.

- If the injury is an emergency and the employee needs medical attention immediately and selects a private physician or hospital, give verbal authorization and issue CA-16, Authorization for Examination and/or Treatment, within 4 hours. Coordinate transportation for the employee to his or her elected medical facility.
- ◇ Remember that an injured employee cannot issue a CA-16 for himself or herself. If a person designated to issue a CA-16 becomes injured, the control point at the next higher level of authority would have to issue the CA-16.

SEE Chapter 1, USPS Injury Compensation Program.

Supervisor and Control Point Responsibilities in a Nonemergency

When a nonemergency job-related accident or illness occurs...

3-4 Notifying the ICCO – supervisor

Obligation: Notifying the ICCO

The supervisor must notify the ICCO immediately or as soon as possible after an injury has been reported.

- Notify the ICCO as soon as possible after an injury has been reported. Since most ICCOs are equipped with answering machines, notification can be given on a 24-hour basis. Give the following information as soon as it is available:
 - Name of injured employee.
 - Date and time of injury.
 - Injury type.
 - Brief incident summary.
 - Description of medical care provided, if any.
 - Employee's duty status.

3-5 Advising the Employee of Rights and Responsibilities – supervisor

Obligation: Advising Employees of Entitled Benefits Under FECA

FECA provides that employees who suffer job-related disabilities are entitled to continuation of regular pay up to a maximum of 45 calendar days for a traumatic injury, compensation for wage loss if disability continues beyond 45 days, medical care, schedule awards, and vocational rehabilitation.

Obligation: Notifying Employees Whether Absences Count Toward FMLA 12-Week Allowance

Employees are to be notified in writing if related absences will count toward the 12 workweeks allowed under FMLA and, if so, provided with a copy of Publication 71, Notice for Employees Requesting Leave for Conditions Covered by the Family and Medical Leave Act.

- Review rights, responsibilities, and benefits with the employee (see Exhibit 3.5a).
 - Determine if absences related to the accident or illness are covered by FMLA.

FMLA Protection

Only employees who have accumulated a total of 1 year of postal employment and have actually worked a total of 1,250 hours during the 12 months preceding the absence are eligible for the 12-week FMLA leave allotment.

Eligible employees who are absent because of an on-the-job injury or work-related illness receive FMLA protection if either of the following two conditions are met:

- Hospital care: inpatient care (i.e., an overnight stay) in a hospital or residential care facility.
 - Absence plus treatment: a period of incapacity of more than 3 consecutive calendar days that also involves one of the following:
 - Treatment, examination, or evaluation of the condition two or more times by a health care provider or health care services provider.
 - Treatment, examination, or evaluation of the condition by a health care provider on at least one occasion which results in a regimen of continuing treatment under the supervision of the health care provider. A regimen of continuing treatment includes, for example, a course of prescription medication or therapy that requires a visit to a health care provider to initiate.

- Provide the employee with the letter called Employee Rights, Responsibilities, and Choice of Physician (see Exhibit 3.5b). If absences are covered by FMLA, use the modified letter (see Exhibit 3.5c) and attach Publication 71, Notice for Employees Requesting Leave for Conditions Covered by the Family and Medical Leave Act. Annotate a copy of the letter with the date that the employee was given the letter so that it can be forwarded to OWCP to be filed in the employee’s case file.
- Provide the employee with one of the following forms, depending on the situation:

- CA-1, Federal Employee's Notice of Traumatic Injury and Claim for Continuation of Pay/Compensation.
- CA-2, Notice of Occupational Disease and Claim for Compensation.
- CA-2a, Federal Employee's Notice of Recurrence of Disability and Claim for Continuation of Pay/Compensation.
- Proceed as indicated in 3.6, 3.7, or 3.8, depending on the situation.

3-6 Assisting the Employee in Reporting an Injury and Making a Choice of COP or Leave — supervisor

- Provide the employee with CA-1, Federal Employee's Notification of Traumatic Injury and Claim for Continuation of Pay/Compensation. Instruct him or her to do the following:
 - Complete the employee's section of the form.
 - Make choice of treating physician.
 - Elect COP, annual leave, or sick leave if time loss occurs from the job-related injury.
 - Promptly return CA-1 with supporting medical documentation, if available, to the supervisor. If the employee submits medical information later, forward that information to the ICCO for submission with the CA-1, or with the case number, to OWCP.
- ◇ The employee is responsible for submitting prima facie medical evidence of disability to the supervisor within 10 working days. If he or she fails to do so, COP can be terminated.

Prima Facie Evidence

Prima facie evidence is medical evidence that indicates the employee is disabled as a result of a job-related injury and thus cannot perform the job held at the time of injury.

- Upon receiving the completed CA-1 from the employee, do the following:
 - Document on CA-1 the date the form was received.
 - Complete the receipt attached to CA-1 and give a copy to the employee or his or her representative.
 - Review the CA-1 for completeness and accuracy, and assist the employee in correcting any deficiencies found.
 - Complete the official supervisor's report of traumatic injury, items 17 through 18.
 - Inform the employee of his or her right to elect COP or annual or sick leave for time loss resulting from the job-related injury.
 - Comment on the employee's narrative statement by either confirming it, refuting it, or providing additional, relevant, and probative information in a separate cover letter to the OWCP.
 - Complete Form 1769, Accident Report.
 - Submit the completed CA-1, a copy of Form 1769, Accident Report, and all other documentation to the ICCO within 24 hours of receipt from the employee.
 - Inform the employee whether COP will be controverted and whether pay will be terminated in accordance with one of the eight regulatory reasons.
 - Explain to the employee his or her responsibility to submit prima facie medical evidence of disability within 10 working days of the date of receipt of the CA-1 from the employee.

3-7 Assisting the Employee in Reporting an Occupational Illness or Disease — supervisor

- Provide the employee with CA-2, Notice of Occupational Disease and Claim for Compensation, and two copies of the appropriate checklist on CA-35 A-H (see Appendix D, Forms, for the individual names of these forms) for the disease reported. Instruct him or her to do the following:
 - Complete the employee’s section of the form.
 - Provide all the necessary documentation as outlined in items 1 and 2 under “Instructions for Completing Form CA-2.”
 - Promptly return the CA-2 and narrative statement within 2 days, if possible.
 - Provide detailed information for the supporting medical and factual information requested on the checklist.
 - Choose sick leave, annual leave, or leave without pay pending the OWCP adjudication of the claim, if unable to work.
 - Contact the ICCO for further guidance and compensation information.
- Upon receiving the completed CA-2 from the employee, do the following:
 - Document on CA-2 the date the form was received.
 - Complete the “Receipt of Notice of Occupational Disease or Illness” and give it to the employee or his or her representative.
 - Review the CA-2 for completeness and accuracy. If incomplete, contact the employee or his or her representative for the missing information and assist the employee in correcting any deficiencies found.
 - Complete the official supervisor’s report of occupational disease, items 19 through 34.
 - Comment on the employee’s narrative statement by either confirming, refuting, or providing additional, relevant, and probative information in a separate cover letter to OWCP.
 - Complete Form 1769, Accident Report.
 - Submit the completed CA-2, a copy of Form 1769, Accident Report, and all other documentation to the ICCO within 24 hours of receipt from the employee.

SEE Chapter 1, The USPS Injury Compensation Program.

3-8 Assisting the Employee in Reporting a Recurrence of Disability — supervisor or ICCO

- Provide the employee with CA-2a, Federal Employee's Notice of Employee's Recurrence of Disability, and instruct him or her to do the following:
 - Complete part A, items 1 through 23. Provide a narrative statement explaining the circumstances surrounding the current disability and describe the connection between the current condition and job duties to the earlier injury or occupational disease or illness.
 - Complete part C, items 1 through 8, only if no longer employed by either the USPS or another federal agency at the time of recurrence. In this case, send the form directly to OWCP.
 - Choose COP (if entitled and the 45 calendar days have not been used, and 90 days have not elapsed since first return to duty) or annual or sick leave pending adjudication of the recurrence claim.
- Upon receiving CA-2a from the employee, do the following:
 - Complete part B, items 24 through 44. Seek assistance from the ICCO, if necessary.
 - Forward CA-2a and the employee's statement to the ICCO.

3-9 Initiating Medical Treatment in a Nonemergency – ICCO or designated control point

Obligation: Ensuring Right to a Free Choice of Physician

Initial medical examination and treatment must be authorized in accordance with FECA provisions and applicable OWCP regulations and policies governing medical care. FECA guarantees the employee the right to a free choice of physician.

- Inform the employee of his or her right to treatment by a USPS contract medical provider or by a private physician or hospital of his or her choice:
 - Provide the definition of physician (if necessary).
 - Advise the employee that, at any time, and at his or her own free will, the employee may select a physician or hospital within approximately 25 miles of his or her home or work site.

Physician

A physician is any surgeon, podiatrist, dentist, clinical psychologist, optometrist, chiropractor, or osteopathic practitioner used within the scope of his or her practice as defined by state law. Exceptions are as follows:

1. Chiropractors, if their reimbursable services are other than treatment consisting of manual manipulation of the spine to correct subluxation as demonstrated to exist by X ray.
 2. Naturopaths, faith healers, and other practitioners of the healing arts, because they are not recognized as physicians within the meaning of FECA.

- ◇ In nonemergency situations, a postal supervisor is not authorized to accompany the employee to the medical facility.
- Provide the appropriate forms and make arrangements for the employee to see the physician of choice:
 - If the employee selects treatment by a USPS contract medical provider, issue the following:
 - Form 3956, Authorization for Medical Attention, if it is necessary in your installation.
 - Form 2491, Medical Report – First-Aid Injuries.
 - If the employee selects a private outside physician or hospital, issue any or all of the following forms (see 3.10, Authorizing Medical Treatment in a Nonemergency):
 - CA-16, Authorization for Examination and/or Treatment.
 - CA-17, Duty Status Report.
 - CA-20, Attending Physician’s Report.
 - HCFA-1500, Health Insurance Claim Form.
 - If the employee does not select a physician, refer the employee to the USPS contract medical provider for diagnosis and initial evaluation, advising the employee that he or she may select a physician of choice after initial evaluation by the contract medical provider in accordance with ELM 543.1.

If the employee is to be examined by the USPS contract medical provider before seeking treatment from a private physician or hospital, ensure the following:

 - The examination is performed promptly following the report of the injury.

- CA-16 is provided for the private physician of choice, within 4 hours of the injured employee's reporting of injury.
- The USPS examination in no way interferes with or delays the employee's right to seek a prompt examination and treatment from a physician of choice.

Form 2491, Medical Report — First-Aid Injuries

Form 2491 is only for USPS provider-treated first-aid injuries and can be used for a maximum of two visits per injury (one initial and one follow-up) to confirm full recovery. If treatment is required beyond the second visit, the injury is no longer considered a first-aid injury, and the same forms must be issued as those needed for treatment when an outside physician or hospital is selected, as set forth in the following section. (This is true even if the employee continues treatment with the contract medical providers.)

- Refer the employee to the IC unit for assistance if he or she wishes to change his or her treating physician.
 - ◇ For continued payment of medical expenses by OWCP, a change of the employee's initial choice of physician is permitted only with OWCP approval.

3-10 Authorizing Medical Treatment in a Nonemergency — supervisor or ICCO

Obligation: Authorizing Medical Examination and/or Treatment

Initial medical examination and/or treatment must be authorized in accordance with the FECA provisions and applicable OWCP regulations and policies governing medical care. FECA guarantees the employee the right to a free choice of physician.

- In a nonemergency, determine if CA-16 issuance is required, as shown in the information block below.
 - If it is required, issue the employee the form within 4 hours.
 - If it is not required, provide a CA-17, Duty Status Report, and CA-20, Attending Physician’s Report, to the employee for completion by the treating physician.
- ◇ The CA-20 is attached to CA-7, Claim for Compensation on Account of Traumatic Injury or Occupational Disease. When used as mentioned above, it is to be detached from the CA-7.

When to Issue CA-16

Issue CA-16 to authorize medical treatment:

- For all traumatic injuries requiring medical attention when the employee elects outside treatment, even if the initial treatment is provided by the contract physician, except as cited below.
- When the injured employee elects the USPS contract medical provider for continued medical treatment beyond the first-aid care (after the first two visits).
- Following a recurrence of disability, provided the ICCO agrees.
You must have concurrence by the ICCO for recurrence cases.

Do not issue CA-16 to authorize medical treatment:

- For first-aid injuries when medical care is provided by a USPS contract medical provider for the first two visits and the employee voluntarily accepts this care.
- Following the submission of an occupational disease or illness claim (CA-2) or an occupational disease or illness recurrence claim (CA-2a) that has not been accepted by OWCP.
Issuance of CA-16s for an occupational disease or illness claim must have prior OWCP approval. Refer all inquiries to the IC unit.
- At some future time or as the need arises.
Advanced or blanket authorization is not to be given. Advise employees who ask for it to contact OWCP in writing.
Do not issue CA-16 to authorize a change of physicians after the initial choice has been made. Refer the employee to the ICCO.

- When the employee elects a physician of choice, ask the employee to contact the selected physician by telephone to determine if the physician is available and will accept the employee for treatment. If not, the employee should be encouraged to select another qualified physician or hospital in order to obtain prompt medical care. Inform the employee of his or her obligation to advise the physician of the availability of limited duty, letting the physician know that the USPS will accommodate most restrictions.

- ◇ USPS personnel must not interfere with the medical care prescribed by the employee's attending physician. Supervisory contact with a physician or a physician's staff is to be limited to inquiries regarding the employee's duty status (see 4.5, Reviewing the Medical Documentation to Assess the Duty Status).
- Complete your portion of the following forms and give them to the employee:
 - CA-16, Authorization for Examination and/or Treatment, or CA-20, Attending Physician's Report.
 - CA-17, Duty Status Report.
 - HCFA-1500, Medical Provider's Claim Form.
- Advise the employee to report back to you following the examination and treatment, if medically able:
 - If you will not be available, let the employee know to whom he or she should report.
 - Provide a telephone number to call in case the employee is medically unable to return.

3-11 Completing and Forwarding Claim Information — supervisor

- If the employee elects either COP or sick or annual leave on a CA-1, ensure that Form 3971, Request for or Notification of Absence, is:
 - Complete for periods of disability beyond the day of injury.
 - Authorized by the IC unit.
- ◇ Form 3971 cannot be filed until the employee completes a CA-1. Until a CA-1 is filed, the employee's time must be charged to either sick or annual leave or leave without pay (LWOP) in accordance with ELM 510, Employee Benefits.
SEE Chapter 13, Timekeeping and Accounting.
- Coordinate employee's duty status with the designated control point.
When the employee is capable of returning to the work site following initial examination and treatment, the control point will review available medical documentation and determine if the employee is capable of returning to either full or limited duty.
- Upon completion of the CA-1, CA-2, or CA-2a — as soon as possible but no later than 24 hours following receipt from the employee — forward the claim package to the IC unit.
 - Submit the following documents, if available and applicable:
 - Form 3971.
 - Form 2491.
 - CA-17.
 - Other medical evidence or pertinent information.
 - Employee's Rights and Responsibilities sample letter.
 - Submit to the ICCO a copy of the investigation report (i.e., Form 1769, Accident Report, or other written accident reports), if available, so that ICCO personnel may decide if there are grounds to controvert or challenge the claim.
- ◇ Do not delay the CA-1 pending completion of the investigation.
- Maintain contact with the ICCO to ensure that the claim is properly managed and the employee is provided his or her rights under FECA.

3-12 Investigating the Claim — supervisor acting as control point

Obligation: Investigating the Injury

According to FECA, the USPS does not have the right to participate actively in the claims adjudication process. However, the USPS may investigate the circumstances surrounding an injury to an employee and the extent of the employee’s disability.

- Begin an investigation of the claim immediately upon notification that an injury has occurred:
 - Investigate the circumstances surrounding the injury and write down any facts you find.
 - If necessary, contact the ICCO and safety office so that they also may become involved in the investigation. The results of the investigation should either substantiate the claim or show doubt as to its validity.

Investigation Resources

Some of the sources and expertise available during the investigation include:

- Injured employee.
- Witnesses.
- Immediate supervisor and unit manager.
- Medical evidence.
- Safety staff.
- IC unit staff.
- Inspection Service.
- Official personnel folder.
- Vehicle accident investigator.
- Law enforcement agency.

- Determine, if possible, if a third party liability exists.
If the investigation reveals that the injury was caused by a person or organization not under the employ of the USPS or other federal agency, annotate the appropriate block on the CA-1.
SEE Chapter 10, Third Party Liability.
- After the investigation is complete, write a detailed report of your findings.
- ◇ Timely submission of reports is critical for proper processing, administration, and referral to OWCP within the established time frame of 10 working days from date of USPS receipt from employee.

3-13 Determining Duty Status — control point

- Review initial medical findings, determine employee's duty status, and assign the employee as follows:
 - Fit for full duty — return the employee to his or her regular assignment.
 - Fit for limited duty — place the employee in an assignment that accommodates his or her medical restrictions.
 - Not fit for duty — before the end of the employee's work shift on the day of injury, charge the remaining scheduled time to administrative leave. Beginning the next full day or work shift, the employee will be placed in the status annotated on the CA-1, either COP or sick or annual leave. Sick leave, annual leave, or LWOP will be used until accrued leave is exhausted (ELM 510). The employee will then be placed in a (leave without pay/injured on duty) LWOP-IOD status (see Chapter 7, Limited Duty Program Management, and Chapter 13, Timekeeping and Accounting.)
- Ensure that all medical documentation is forwarded to the ICCO and all necessary actions have been taken.
- Coordinate with employee's supervisor and review action items listed on Injury Action Checklist (see Exhibit 3.13).

3-14 Monitoring the Claim – control point

Obligation: Monitoring Duty Status

The USPS monitors the employee's medical progress and duty status by obtaining periodic medical reports.

- Maintain contact with IC unit and supervisor. If the employee has been found not fit for duty, close coordination is instrumental in facilitating a return to work status as early as medically possible.

Exhibit 3.5a

Advising the Employee of Rights, Responsibilities, and the Initial Choice of Physician

To make sure that the employee understands his or her rights and responsibilities:

- Provide the employee the sample letter called Rights, Responsibilities, and Initial Choice of Physician (see Exhibit 3.5b).
- Counsel the employee regarding rights and responsibilities, using the following summary, which is more detailed than that in the letter.

Continuation of Pay or Sick or Annual Leave

If the injury is disabling, the employee may elect to use one the following:

a. Continuation of Pay

COP may be used in the case of job-related injury for a period not to exceed 45 calendar days. (Also see Chapters 4 and 13 for additional information regarding COP.)

If the employee elects COP, he or she must:

- (1) Annotate the appropriate block on CA-1, Federal Employee's Notice of Traumatic Injury and Claim for Continuation of Pay/Compensation.
- (2) Complete Form 3971, Request for or Notification of Absence.

Advise the employee that:

- (1) He or she has the right to select COP, annual leave, or sick leave.
- (2) He or she is responsible for submitting or arranging for the submittal of prima facie medical evidence of a traumatic disabling injury within 10 working days after claiming COP. Prima facie evidence is medical evidence that indicates the employee is disabled as a result of a job-related injury and thus cannot perform the job held at the time of injury. Under the provisions of 20 CFR 10.204(a)(1), if such evidence is not received within that time frame, it may serve as sufficient reason for termination of COP, subject to reinstatement upon receipt of such evidence.

b. Sick or Annual Leave

If the employee elects sick or annual leave, he or she must:

- (1) Annotate the appropriate block on CA-1, Federal Employee's Notice of Traumatic Injury and Claim for Continuation of Pay/Compensation.
- (2) Complete Form 3971, Request for or Notification of Absence.

Advise the employee that:

- (1) The use of annual or sick leave does not extend the 45-calendar-day COP period that begins with the first period of time lost after the day or shift of injury.
- (2) Leave is limited to the amount that the employee has accrued.
- (3) An employee who elects to use sick or annual leave during the 45-day period in which COP is available is not entitled to buy back that leave with later compensation payments. (ELM 545.73b)
- (4) The employee may subsequently request COP instead of previously requested sick and/or annual leave. However, such a request must be made within 1 year of the date that leave is used, or within 1 year of the date OWCP approves the claim, whichever is later. If COP is granted, then the employee's sick and annual leave used for the period of time covering the absences for the injury will be credited to the employee's leave balance.
- (5) Pay attributable to the leave period (COP, sick leave, or annual leave) is subject to taxes and other usual payroll deductions.

Note: ICCO authorization is not required for the employee to use sick or annual leave.

Compensation

If disability extends beyond the 45-day COP entitlement period, the employee is entitled to file with the OWCP for compensation payments.

Medical Care

Injured employees are entitled to receive medical and related services made necessary by the medical condition or conditions accepted as being job-related. These services are provided by a physician or hospital of the employee's choice. When possible, the employee's choice of physician should be in writing and made part of the claim file. The sample letter Employee Rights, Responsibilities, and Choice of Physician will serve this purpose (see Exhibit 3.5b).

For continued payment of medical expenses by OWCP, a change of the employee's initial choice of physician is permitted only with OWCP approval. If an employee wishes to change his or her treating physician, refer the employee to either the ICCO or OWCP for assistance.

Return to Duty

Advise the employee of his or her obligation to return to duty (either full or limited) as soon as possible. To fulfill this obligation, the employee must:

- a. Advise the attending physician that the USPS will accommodate most limitations.
- b. Request that the physician specify the limitations and restrictions imposed by the injury.
- c. Immediately advise the supervisor or control point of those limitations and restrictions.

If the USPS has identified specific alternative positions available, advise the employee to do the following:

- a. Furnish the attending physician the description of such alternative positions.
- b. Inquire whether and when he or she will be able to perform such duties.
- c. Furnish the supervisor, the ICCO, or the control point with a copy of the physician's response.

Schedule Awards

Eligible employees may be entitled to a schedule award, defined as compensation for the permanent loss, or loss of use, of each of certain members, organs, and functions of the body. Refer employees to the ICCO or OWCP for assistance if this should occur.

Vocational Rehabilitation

OWCP's policy is to assist permanently disabled employees, injured on the job, to return to gainful employment within their medically defined work restrictions. Consideration in the return-to-work effort is always given first to the previous employer.

Advise employees that if they become eligible for participation in this program, they will be contacted by OWCP and/or the USPS ICCO. Employees may also request consideration.

Sample Letter: Employee Rights, Responsibilities, and Choice of Physician*Variant for Employee Absences Not Covered by Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA)*

[U.S. Postal Service Letterhead]

___[street address]___

___[city, state, ZIP Code]___

Dear ___[name]___:

This letter is in regard to your job-related traumatic injury of ___[date]___.

In view of your recent injury, we would like to take this opportunity to advise you of some of the benefits and responsibilities that are accorded by the Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA). FECA benefits include but are not limited to the following:

- Initial choice of physician to provide medical examination and/or treatment.*
- Payment of injury-related medical expenses.
- Up to 45 calendar days of continuation of pay (COP).
- Compensation for wage loss after the 45-calendar-day COP period expires.
- Compensation for permanent impairment of specified members and functions of the body.
- Vocational rehabilitation services.
- Death and/or survivor benefits.

* In nonemergency situations, you should advise your supervisor, medical unit, or injury compensation control office or point of initial choice of physician before treatment. This will allow for timely issuance of the appropriate medical authorization forms.

While FECA provides for the above benefits, it also places certain responsibilities on the injured employee. Specifically, it is your responsibility to:

- Complete and submit the employee's portion of CA-1, Federal Employee's Notice of Traumatic Injury and Claim for Continuation of Pay/Compensation, to your supervisor as soon as possible.
- Arrange for the submission of prima facie (i.e., true, valid, and sufficient at first impression) medical evidence of a traumatic disabling injury to your supervisor, medical unit, or injury compensation control office or point within 10 working days after claiming COP. Failure to provide medical evidence may result in termination of COP.

- If limited duty work is available and offered, you must notify your attending physician and request him/her to specify the limitations and restrictions that apply. Thereafter, immediately advise your supervisor, medical unit, or injury compensation control office or control point of the limitations and restrictions imposed by your physician.
- If offered limited duty work within the limitations and restrictions imposed by your attending physician, you are obligated to return to duty unless you request leave under FMLA.

In assigning limited duty, we will follow the provisions of the Employee and Labor Relations Manual (546.141a) so as to minimize any adverse disruptive effect on you.

Injury compensation control office or control point personnel are available to provide guidance or assistance on matters related to your injury. Additionally, such personnel will do everything possible to ensure timely receipt of benefits. If you have any questions whatsoever, visit or call the injury compensation unit at ___[telephone number]___ or contact your local OWCP.

We wish you a full and speedy recovery.

Dear ___[name]___:

This letter is in regard to your job-related traumatic injury of ___[date]___.

In view of your recent injury, we would like to take this opportunity to advise you of some of the benefits and responsibilities that are accorded by the Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA). FECA benefits include but are not limited to the following:

- Initial choice of physician to provide medical examination and/or treatment.*
- Payment of injury-related medical expenses.
- Up to 45 calendar days of continuation of pay (COP).
- Compensation for wage loss after the 45-calendar-day COP period expires.
- Compensation for permanent impairment of specified members and functions of the body.
- Vocational rehabilitation services.
- Death and/or survivor benefits.

* In nonemergency situations, you should advise your supervisor, medical unit, or injury compensation control office or point of initial choice of physician before treatment. This will allow for timely issuance of the appropriate medical authorization forms.

You are also eligible for protections provided by FMLA, since your absence qualifies as a serious health condition that is covered by that Act.

While FECA provides for the above benefits, it also places certain responsibilities on the injured employee. Specifically, it is your responsibility to:

- Complete and submit the employee's portion of CA-1, Federal Employee's Notice of Traumatic Injury and Claim for Continuation of Pay/Compensation, to your supervisor as soon as possible.
- Arrange for the submission of prima facie (i.e., true, valid, and sufficient at first impression) medical evidence of a traumatic disabling injury to your supervisor, medical unit, or injury compensation control office or point within 10 working days after claiming COP. Failure to provide medical evidence may result in termination of COP.

- If limited duty work is available and offered, you must notify your attending physician and request him/her to specify the limitations and restrictions that apply. Thereafter, immediately advise your supervisor, medical unit, or injury compensation control office or control point of the limitations and restrictions imposed by your physician.
 - If offered limited duty work within the limitations and restrictions imposed by your attending physician, you are obligated to return to duty unless you request leave under FMLA. If you choose not to accept the limited duty job offer, you may not be entitled to COP or wage loss compensation under FECA. However, you are not obligated to accept such duty during the period of FMLA protection, provided you are willing to forgo the FECA wage loss payments.

In assigning limited duty, we will follow the provisions of the Employee and Labor Relations Manual (546.141a) so as to minimize any adverse disruptive effect on you.

Additionally, such personnel will do everything possible to ensure timely receipt of benefits. If you have any questions whatsoever, visit or call the injury compensation unit at ___[telephone number]___ or contact your local OWCP.

We wish you a full and speedy recovery.

Notice for Employees Requesting Leave for Conditions Covered by the Family and Medical Leave Act

I. Qualifying Conditions

The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) provides that employees meeting the eligibility requirements must be allowed to take time off for up to 12 workweeks in a leave year for the following conditions:

1. Because of the birth of a son or daughter (including prenatal care), or to care for such son or daughter. Entitlement for this condition expires 1 year after the birth.
2. Because of the placement of a son or daughter with you for adoption or foster care. Entitlement for this condition expires 1 year after the placement.
3. In order to care for your spouse, son, daughter, or parent who has a serious health condition. Also, in order to care for those who have a serious health condition and who stand in the position of a son or daughter to you or who stood in the position of a parent to you when you were a child.
4. Because of a serious health condition that makes you unable to perform the functions of your position.

II. Eligibility

To be covered by FMLA, you must have been employed by the Postal Service for a total of at least 1 year and must have worked a minimum of 1,250 hours during the 12-month period before the date your absence begins.

III. Type of Leave or Pay

The time off counted toward the 12 workweeks allowed for the qualifying conditions can be any one or combination of the following:

- Time off you take as annual leave, sick leave, and/or LWOP in accordance with current leave policies.
- In the case of job-related injuries or illnesses, time off during which you are receiving continuation of pay (COP) and/or time during which you are placed on the Office of Workers' Compensation Program (OWCP) payroll.

Note that sick leave is available only for your own health condition except for the situations specifically designated in postal policy or collective bargaining agreements.

IV. Documentation

Supporting documentation is required for your leave request to receive final approval. Documentation requirements may be waived in specific cases by your supervisor.

- For qualifying condition (1) or (2), you must provide the birth or placement date.
- For conditions (3) or (4), you must provide documentation from the health care provider stating:
 1. The health care provider's name, address, phone number, and type of practice, and the patient's name.
 2. A certification that the patient's condition meets the FMLA definition of serious health condition, supporting medical facts, and a brief statement as to how the medical facts meet the definition's criteria.
 3. The approximate date the serious health condition commenced, its probable duration, and the probable duration of the patient's present incapacity, if different.
 4. Whether you will need to take leave intermittently or to work on a reduced schedule as a result of the serious health condition; and if so, the probable duration of such schedule, an estimate of the probable number of and the interval between episodes of incapacity, and the period required for recovery, if any.

5. For pregnancy or a chronic serious health condition: whether the patient is presently incapacitated and the likely duration and frequency of episodes of incapacity.
6. If additional or continuing treatments are required: the nature and regimen of the treatments, an estimate of the probable number of treatments, the length of absence required by the treatments, and actual or estimated dates of the treatments, if known.
7. For your own serious health condition, including pregnancy or a chronic condition: whether you are unable to perform work of any kind, any parts of your job you are unable to perform, and if you must be absent from work for treatments.
8. To care for a family member with a serious health condition: whether the patient requires assistance for basic medical or personal needs or safety, or for transportation; or if not, whether your presence to provide psychological comfort would be beneficial to the patient or assist in the patient's recovery; and the probable duration of the need for care on an intermittent or reduced work schedule basis. You must indicate on the form the care you will provide and an estimate of the time period.
 - If the serious health care condition is a result of a job-related injury or illness, the documentation requirements are provided separately.
 - If the time off requested is to care for someone other than a biological parent or child, appropriate explanation of the relationship may be required.

Supporting information that is not provided at the time the leave is requested must be provided within 15 days, unless this is not practical under the circumstances. If the Postal Service questions the adequacy of a medical certification, a second or third opinion may be required. These are obtained off the clock. However, the Postal Service will pay for these opinions, plus reasonable "out of pocket" travel expenses incurred to obtain the opinions.

During your absence, you must keep your supervisor informed of your intentions to return to work and status changes that affect your ability to return. Failure to provide information can result in the denial of family and medical leave under these policies.

V. Benefits

Health Insurance — To continue your health insurance during your absence, you must continue to pay the "employee portion" of the premiums. This continues to be withheld from your salary while you are in a pay status. If the salary for a pay period does not cover the full employee portion, you are required to make the payment. If this occurs, you will be advised of the procedures for payment.

Life Insurance — Your basic life insurance is free and continues. If you are in an LWOP status for more than a year, this coverage is discontinued; in this case you have the option to convert to an individual policy. If you have optional life insurance coverage, it continues. Your premium payments continue to be withheld from your pay check. If you are in a nonpay status, your optional insurance coverage continues without cost for up to 12 months. Thereafter you can convert this coverage to an individual policy.

Flexible Spending Accounts (FSAs) — If you participate in the FSA program, see your employee brochure for the terms and conditions of continuing coverage during leave without pay.

VI. Return to Duty

At the end of your leave, you will be returned to the same position you held when the absence began (or a position equivalent to it), provided you are able to perform the functions of the position and would have held that position at the time you returned if you had not taken the time off.

If the absence is due to your own health condition and exceeds 21 calendar days, you must submit evidence of your ability to return to work before you will be allowed to return.

4 Claims Management

Overview

This chapter addresses the various claims management stages. Good claims management is a continuing effort and does not end at the conclusion of the 45-day COP entitlement period. Claims management continues until the following occurs:

- The injured or ill worker is returned to full duty and medical care is finished.
- His or her disability is ruled by OWCP as being no longer job related.
- The employee's survivor dies or becomes ineligible, and benefits for the survivor cease.

Even when the employee is considered permanently and totally disabled, i.e., never will be able to return to work (RTW) in any capacity, supporting medical information should be reviewed periodically.

The ICCO serves two primary customers — the injured employee and the USPS. IC personnel must ensure that the employee is provided with all the rights and benefits to which he or she is entitled. At the same time, the interest of the USPS must be served by guarding against workers' compensation fraud and abuse.

Serving the interests of these two customers is neither an easy task nor one that the ICCO can accomplish alone. Close coordination and cooperation with all functional areas is absolutely necessary for a successful program. The ICCO is, however, responsible for the day-to-day program administration within the USPS. All claim documents must be tracked through the ICCO for referral to OWCP.

This chapter is divided into six sections. The first three deal with initial claims management. The last three deal with claims management for progressively longer periods:

- Initial traumatic injury claims management — what must be done as soon as the ICCO learns of the injury.
- Initial occupational illness or disease claims management — what must be done as soon as the ICCO learns of the illness or disease.
- Claims management in case of death — what must be done as soon as the ICCO learns of the death.
- Management of the 45-day COP entitlement period — what must be done during the 45-day period.
- Continued claims management — what must be done following the 45-day COP entitlement period during the first year of disability.
- Extended claims management — what must be done when total or partial disability extends beyond 1 year.

Procedures

Initial Traumatic Injury Claims Management

When the ICCO receives notice of a traumatic injury or death...

4-1 Determining If the Claim Is Reportable – ICCO

Obligation: Submitting the Claim to OWCP in a Timely Manner

A CA-1, Federal Employee's Notice of Traumatic Injury and Claim for Continuation of Pay/Compensation, is completed for job-related traumatic injuries, including first-aid cases. If the injury meets the conditions for reporting to OWCP, the ICCO submits the completed CA-1, Federal Employee's Notice of Traumatic Injury and Claim for Continuation of Pay or Compensation, and any other documents that have some bearing on the claim to the appropriate OWCP office within 10 working days after they are received from the employee.

- Determine if the claim is the result of a traumatic injury and is reportable to OWCP by checking the two following lists, and then take one of the following actions:
 - File the CA-1 for a “nonreportable” first-aid case, i.e., one that meets all of the following conditions:
 - Treatment is provided by a USPS physician, nurse, or contract medical provider.
 - The initial visit occurs during work-hours or non work hours on the day or during the shift in which the injury occurred, or during non work hours thereafter.
 - The follow-up visit for confirmation of complete recovery occurs during non work hours.
 - The employee is able to perform all duties of his or her position.
 - File a nonreportable first-aid injury in the employee’s official medical folder (OMF) or in the employee’s official personnel folder (OPF) if there is no OMF.
 - Prepare to report the claim to OWCP in other cases. An injury must be reported if it is likely to result in or has resulted in, any of the following:
 - A reportable first-aid case, i.e., one that is treated by a private physician, or that the employee simply wishes to report.
 - Prolonged treatment beyond first aid, i.e., more than initial and one follow-up visit of medical care.
 - A medical claim charged against OWCP.
 - Disability for work or assignment to limited duty beyond the day or shift of injury.
 - Continuation of pay.
 - Future disability.
 - Permanent impairment.
 - Death.
- ◇ An employee cannot be required to complete a CA-1 if he or she chooses not to. However, the ICCO should annotate the employee’s refusal to complete a CA-1.

4-2 Making an Initial Assessment Following Verbal Notification – ICCO

- Determine what the circumstances surrounding the accident were and what actions have been taken by considering the following questions:
 - Was medical care provided by a postal contract medical provider or by a private physician?
 - Was CA-16 used?
 - Were proper forms provided?
 - What is the employee's duty status?
 - Is the medical condition job-related?
 - Is the employee capable of limited duty?
 - Was a limited duty job offer made?
 - When can receipt of the claim forms be expected?
- Provide assistance in regard to forms completion, submission, required follow-up actions, etc.
- If the injury resulted in an employee fatality, use the guidelines found in 4.12, Investigating a Death From a Traumatic Injury or Potentially From an Occupational Disease or Illness.
- Notify the district HR manager through the proper chain of command of any serious breakdown in procedure, e.g., failure to provide appropriate medical care.
- ◇ If the claim is reportable, the completed CA-1 and any other documents related to the claim will need to be submitted to the appropriate OWCP office within 10 working days after it is received from the employee.

SEE 4.6, Reviewing the Information for Integrity.
4.7, Submitting the Claim Package to OWCP.

4-3 Processing Documentation – ICCO

- Date-stamp all claim documents upon receipt in the ICCO.
- Date-stamp all outgoing claim documents sent to OWCP.
- Check the documentation to ensure receipt of the following:
 - CA-1, Federal Employee's Notice of Traumatic Injury and Claim for Continuation of Pay/ Compensation.
 - All medical evidence (Form 2491, Medical Report – First-Aid Injuries, and CA-17, Duty Status Report, and other documentation).
 - The Employee Rights, Responsibilities, and Choice of Physician letter (see Exhibit 3.5b for sample) with the attachment Publication 71, Notice for Employees Requesting Leave for Conditions Covered by the Family and Medical Leave Policies (see Exhibit 3.5e).
 - Form 3971, Request for or Notification of Absence, if required.
 - Other information pertinent to the case (e.g., investigation report).
- Ensure that the data have been entered into the HRIS.
- Coordinate with safety personnel to ensure that Form 1769, Accident Report, has been completed.

4-4 Reviewing CA-1, Federal Employee's Notice of Traumatic Injury and Claim for Continuation of Pay – ICCO

- Review CA-1 for completeness and accuracy. If it is incomplete, contact the employee, the employee's representative, or the employee's supervisor for the missing information.
 - Any changes made on the Supervisor portion of the CA-1 must be lined out, initialed, and dated by ICCO personnel (or the supervisor) making the revision.
 - The Injury Compensation file must contain documentation explaining why changes made by ICCO personnel were necessary.
 - If the employee wishes to make a change to the Employee portion of the CA-1, ensure that the employee initials and dates the revision or submits the change in writing on a separate piece of paper that is signed and dated.
 - To prevent delays in submission of CA-1 forms to OWCP, if it is not possible to obtain written revisions from the employee of obvious or suspected errors in the Employee portion of the CA-1, such errors may be listed on the Supervisor portion of the CA-1 and initialed and dated by ICCO personnel (or the supervisor) identifying the errors.
- ◇ Under no circumstances may ICCO personnel revise any information on the Employee portion of the CA-1, or delay submission of the CA-1 to the OWCP.

4-5 Reviewing the Medical Documentation to Assess the Duty Status — ICCO

Obligation: Assigning Limited Duty

When an employee is not totally disabled or has partially overcome the injury or disability, the USPS must make every effort to assign the employee to limited duty consistent with the employee's work limitation tolerance.

- Review the medical documentation, e.g., Form 2491, Medical Report — First-Aid Injuries, and CA-17, Duty Status Report, to ensure that it is sufficient to assess the employee's duty status and do the following:
 - Determine if the medical documentation is consistent with the information reported on the claim form or other documentation.

Example: If the severity and length of disability appears disproportionate to the injury (e.g., the CA-17 reflects 2 weeks of total disability for a finger contusion), ensure that the treating physician is aware of the availability of limited duty.
 - If the injured employee was seen by both an outside private physician and a USPS contract medical provider, determine if there is a conflict in medical opinion (see 6.6, Responding After the Fitness-For-Duty examination (FFD) Decision).
- If duty status has not been indicated, contact the treating physician, either in writing or by telephone, for clarification for ICCO to determine if a FFD is appropriate (ELM 547.3).
- ◇ The ICCO or the control point may contact the treating physician concerning the employee's work limitations and restrictions imposed by the effects of the injury and possible job assignment. However, when possible, this contact should be made by either the health unit or USPS medical provider personnel. Contact with the treating physician for medical information other than the employee's duty status should be made only by the USPS associate area medical director, a medical provider, or the occupational health nurse administrator.

SEE Chapter 6, Medical Management.

- If the employee's duty status has been indicated, do the following:
 - If fit for full duty, (i.e., no disability, capable of working his or her regular job), determine if the employee is working. If the employee is back to regular work, no further follow-up is needed. If not, find out the reason.
 - If fit for limited duty, (i.e., partially disabled, capable of working within his or her medical restrictions), determine if a proper limited duty job offer was made.
 - Document any change in duty status. Immediately send a new CA-17 to the treating physician to formally document any change.

SEE Chapter 7, Limited Duty Program Management.

 - If totally disabled (i.e., cannot work at all in any capacity), determine whether the employee elected COP on the CA-1, and if so, whether COP has been provided.

4-6 Reviewing the Information for Integrity – ICCO

- Using the information found in Exhibit 4.6, Conditions for Compensation of Claims, review the information to determine if there is a basis to challenge the claim or any part of it with OWCP, or any reason to refer the case to the Inspection Service for investigation of possible fraud or abuse.

SEE Exhibit 4.6, Conditions for Compensation of Claims.
Chapter 8, Controversion and Challenge.
Chapter 9, Fraud and Abuse.

4-7 Submitting the Claim Package to OWCP – ICCO

- Submit the employee's claim package to OWCP within the established 10-working-day time frame. If supportive information is available, submit the entire package consisting of the following:
 - A properly completed CA-1.
 - A properly completed CA-16.
 - All available medical documentation.
 - All supportive documentation (witness statements, investigation report, etc.).
 - The signed, dated copy of the Employee Rights, Responsibilities, and Choice of Physician letter (see Exhibit 3.5b for sample).
- ◇ Do not, under any circumstances, delay submission of the CA-1. The 10-day period begins from the date of receipt by the postal official who initially receives the document. If medical reports and supportive information are not available, send a cover letter with the completed CA-1 advising OWCP what additional information will be forthcoming. This action will allow OWCP to assign a claim number and initiate the claims process.
- The OWCP will notify the employee and the ICCO of the claim number by CA-801 (postcard). This information is also available on the Workers' Compensation Information Subsystem (WCIS). If this information is not available within 5 days after submission of the initial claim to OWCP, send available supportive information, making sure the DOI and Social Security number are included for identification.
- ◇ Do not hold any information or documentation in suspense more than 5 days after submission of the initial claim to OWCP while waiting for a claim number to be assigned.

Initial Occupational Illness or Disease Claims Management

When the ICCO receives notice of a potential occupational illness or disease...

4-8 Responding to Notice of a Potential Occupational Disease or Illness — ICCO

- Date-stamp all claim documents upon receipt in the ICCO.
- Date-stamp all outgoing claim documents sent to OWCP.
- Upon receipt of CA-2, Notice of an Occupational Disease and Claim for Compensation, inform the employee of the following:
 - COP is not applicable in cases of occupational disease or illness.
 - He or she is to submit CA-7 if he or she wishes to make a claim for compensation as a result of his or her job-related disease or illness or CA-8 if the disability continues and subsequent claims are to be made.
 - Compensation benefits (i.e., payment for lost wages, payment of medical expenditures, etc.) are contingent upon OWCP's approval of the claim. If approved, compensation is not payable for the first 3 days of disability unless the disability extends beyond 14 calendar days.
 - Medical care is authorized via CA-16 only with prior approval of OWCP.
 - Supporting medical and factual information as requested on the checklists, Forms CA 35A-H, will expedite OWCP's adjudication of the claim.

4-9 Reviewing CA-2, Notice of Occupational Disease and Claim for Compensation – ICCO

- Review the completed CA-2 for completeness and accuracy. If incomplete:
 - Contact the employee, his or her representative, or the supervisor for the missing information.
 - Assist the employee or supervisor in correcting any deficiencies.
- Any changes made on the Supervisor portion of the CA-2 must be lined out and initialed and dated by ICCO personnel (or the supervisor) making the revision.
- The Injury Compensation file must contain documentation explaining why changes made by ICCO personnel were necessary.
- If the employee wishes to make a change to the Employee portion of the CA-2, ensure that the employee initials and dates the revision or submits the change in writing on a separate piece of paper that is signed and dated.
- To prevent delays in submission of CA-2 forms to OWCP, if it is not possible to obtain written revisions from the employee of obvious or suspected errors in the Employee portion of the CA-2, such errors may be listed on the Supervisor portion of the CA-2 and initialed and dated by ICCO personnel (or the supervisor) identifying the errors.
- ◇ Under no circumstances may ICCO personnel revise any information on the Employee portion of the CA-2 or delay submission of the CA-2 to the OWCP.
- Insert the appropriate codes on both the front and back of the CA-2 in the following categories:
 - Occupation.
 - Type and source of injury.
 - Agency code.

4-10 Reviewing the Claim Information for Integrity – ICCO

- Using the information found in Exhibit 4.6, Conditions for Compensation of Claims, review the information to determine if there is a basis to challenge the claim or any part of it with OWCP, or any reason to refer the case to the Inspection Service for investigation of possible fraud or abuse.

SEE Exhibit 4.6, Conditions for Compensation of Claims.
Chapter 8, Controversion and Challenge.
Chapter 9, Fraud and Abuse.

4-11 Submitting the Claim Package to OWCP or Retaining It – ICCO

- If medical expenses or lost time were incurred or are expected, submit the original completed CA-2 and accompanying documentation to the OWCP district office as soon as possible, but no later than 10 working days from when the form was received by the official supervisor.
- ◇ Do not delay submission pending receipt of supportive and requested documentation.
- If medical expense or lost time is not incurred or expected, submit the CA-2 to the district OWCP and file a copy of the CA-2 in the employee's OPF.
- Enter the claim and all other activity in HRIS to monitor the disability and OWCP's adjudication and establish call-up dates.

Claims Management in Case of Death

When the ICCO receives notice of a death from a traumatic injury or potentially from an occupational disease or illness...

Obligation: Informing Survivors of Compensation in Case of a Death

FECA provides for the payment of monetary compensation to specified survivors of an employee whose death is the result of an employment-related injury or illness and for payment of certain funeral and burial expenses.

4-12 Investigating a Death From a Traumatic Injury or Potentially From an Occupational Disease or Illness – supervisor or ICCO

- Immediately after receiving notice of an employee's death, notify the following individuals by telephone, telegram, or facsimile if available:
 - Designated area HR analyst.
 - The OWCP district office.
- Coordinate with safety personnel, the Inspection Service, local law enforcement personnel, or other investigative agencies to conduct a thorough investigation of the circumstances surrounding the employee's death.

The OHNA or the USPS contract medical provider should assist in making any necessary medical contacts (e.g., hospital emergency room, coroner's office) and securing their reports.

- IC personnel must prepare written notification on CA-6 and submit it to the OWCP as soon as possible, and within 10 working days of notification of the death.

4-13 Formally Notifying OWCP of the Death — ICCO

- Upon completion of the investigation, initiate CA-6. Submit this form to OWCP as soon as possible and send a duplicate copy to the area HR manager via the designated area HR analyst. The statutory limits for filing these claims are:
 - Within 10 working days after receiving knowledge of a death by traumatic injury.
 - Within 30 calendar days after knowing, by the exercise of reasonable diligence, that the employee's death was due to an employment-related occupational disease or illness.
- ◇ Failure on the part of the USPS to give written notice to OWCP within statutory time limits may result in a loss of compensation rights by the deceased employee's survivors in the event that the survivors fail to file a claim for compensation within 3 years.

4-14 Contacting the Employee's Family — supervisor or ICCO

- Contact the employee's family, and do the following:
 - Offer assistance in completing the appropriate claim form, i.e., CA-5, Claim for Compensation by Widow, Widower, and/or Children, or CA-5b, Claim for Compensation by Parents, Brothers, Sisters, Grandparents, or Grandchildren.
 - Ensure that the employee's family is advised of their rights under FECA to collect payment of monetary compensation to specified survivors of an employee whose death is the result of an employment-related injury and for payment of certain funeral and burial expenses.
 - Explain to the employee's family the distinction between OPM and OWCP benefits and arrange a meeting with the personnel services office for further explanation of OPM and OWCP entitlements.
- If the investigation reveals a basis to challenge the claim, prepare a challenge package in accordance with Chapter 8, Controversion and Challenge, and submit this to OWCP along with CA-5 or CA-5b.
- ◇ Ensure that family contact is conducted in accordance with the local installation's established protocol.
- If the employee's survivors are entitled to benefits, periodically review the case to ensure that the legal period of entitlement has not been exceeded.

Management of the 45-Day COP Entitlement Period

When the injured employee does not return to work immediately following a traumatic injury...

4-15 Responding to an Employee's Election of COP, Sick, or Annual Leave — ICCO

Obligation: Informing Injured Employees of Right to COP, Sick, or Annual Leave

A traumatically injured employee may elect to have COP for the first 45 calendar days of disability or to use sick or annual leave. This election must be made on the CA-1.

- Determine whether the employee has elected COP, sick, or annual leave on the CA-1.
- If the employee chooses sick or annual leave, ensure that the employee has been made aware of his or her rights and responsibilities (see Exhibit 3.5b, Sample Letter: Employee Rights, Responsibilities, and Choice of Physician).
- If the employee elects COP, follow the procedures in 4.16, Authorizing COP.

SEE Chapter 3, Immediate Involvement With Traumatic Injuries and Occupational Illnesses.

4-16 Providing COP – ICCO or designated control point

- Ensure that the supervisor has submitted the Form 3971, completed and signed with the CA-1 (see Exhibit 4.6).
- If the claim appears to satisfy the conditions for providing COP as shown in Exhibit 4.16, determine whether to:
 - Provide COP. Prima facie medical evidence must be submitted within 10 working days for COP to continue.
 - Provide COP but prepare to controvert it.
 - Withhold COP and prepare to controvert it.
 - Withhold COP and/or apply to OWCP for compensation.
- ◇ COP may be controverted for any failure to meet conditions of entitlement. COP may be withheld, however, only in limited circumstances as specified in Exhibit 4-16. Remember that the final decision regarding COP entitlement rests with OWCP.

SEE Exhibit 4.16, Conditions for Continuation of Pay, ELM 545.5.

- If the employee is entitled to COP, submit a completed and signed Form 3971. Enter the information into HRIS, and do the following:
 - Review all available medical documentation to determine the estimated return-to-work (RTW) date.
 - Track COP in segments corresponding with information cited on CA-17 or other documentation. Unless it is obvious from the beginning that the disability will be long term, never provide all 45 days of COP.
 - If medical documentation is not initially available, provide COP for 10 working days or less. This will allow for receipt of prima facie medical evidence. If not received within this 10-day time frame, COP may be terminated; however, it must be reinstated upon receipt of the prima facie evidence.
 - If medical documentation does not provide an anticipated RTW date, but continues to show total disability, use the next scheduled appointment date as a guide to track COP usage.
 - Enter a call-up date in the HRIS to review COP and duty status that corresponds with the expiration of the latest COP period. This will help to avoid any unnecessary interruptions in the employee's pay.
 - Update the COP tracking log in the employee's case file and determine the last day COP can be used and annotate the log.
- ◇ Maintain close communication with the employee's supervisor or the control point regarding the employee's duty status to help prevent erroneous use of COP, unnecessary adjustments, and interruptions in the employee's pay.

SEE Chapter 13, Timekeeping and Accounting.

- If COP entitlement is in question, determine what action to take.

SEE Chapter 8, Controversion and Challenge.

4-17 Monitoring the Medical Documentation to Determine the RTW Date – ICCO

- Closely monitor the supporting medical documentation, e.g., CA-17, to determine when the employee can return to work, in either a full or limited duty status.
- Check with OWCP to determine if medical information has been submitted directly to them.
- Contact the treating physician for an updated CA-17, if medical information is not available. (ELM 545.62)
- Initiate a FFD, if appropriate.
- Upon the employee's return, issue CA-3, Report of Termination of Disability and/or Payment. SEE Chapter 6, Medical Management.
- If it is anticipated that the employee's disability will extend beyond the 45-day COP entitlement period, issue CA-7, Claim for Compensation on Account of Traumatic Injury or Occupational Disease.

Continued Case Management

When it appears that an employee will remain totally or partially disabled beyond the first 45 days following a traumatic injury...

4-18 Monitoring a Partially Disabled Employee — ICCO

Assigning an Employee to Limited Duty

When an employee has partially overcome the injury or disability, the USPS must make every effort toward assigning the employee to limited duty consistent with the employee's work limitation tolerance.

- Assign the employee to a limited duty assignment, as specified in Section 7-4, Offering a Temporary Duty Assignment.
- Continue to monitor the medical documentation until the employee returns to full duty (see 4.5, Reviewing the Medical Documentation to Assess the Duty Status).
- If an employee files a CA-2a, Federal Employee's Notice of Recurrence of Disability and Claim for Continuation of Pay/Compensation, see Chapter 5, Recurrence of Disability.
SEE Chapter 7, Limited Duty Program Management.

4-19 Initiating Compensation for a Totally Disabled Employee – ICCO

Obligation: Advising Employee of Obligation to Return to Work

The USPS must advise the employee of his or her obligation to return to work as soon as possible.

The USPS must advise the employee that pursuant to OWCP regulations, detailed supplementary reports must be made by the physician at approximately monthly intervals in all cases of serious injury or disease, including all cases requiring hospital treatment or prolonged care.

- When it appears likely that disability will extend beyond the COP period, provide the employee with CA-7 and the attached CA-20 at least 10 days before the end of COP and instruct him or her to complete Part A, items 1 through 20, on CA-7 and return it to the ICCO within 5 working days to preclude interruption of pay.
- Date-stamp all claim documents upon receipt in the ICCO.
- Date-stamp all outgoing claim documents sent to OWCP.
- Upon receipt of CA-7 from the employee:
 - Complete CA-7, Part B, items 21 through 38.
 - If the employee wishes to make a change to the Employee portion of the CA-7, ensure that the employee initials and dates the revision or submits the change in writing on a separate piece of paper that is signed and dated.
 - To prevent delays in submission of CA-7 forms to OWCP, if it is not possible to obtain written revisions from the employee of obvious or suspected errors in the Employee portion of the CA-7, such errors may be listed on the Agency portion of the CA-7 and initialed and dated by ICCO personnel (or the supervisor) identifying the errors.
 - Any changes made on the Agency portion of the CA-7 must be lined out and initialed and dated by ICCO personnel (or the supervisor) making the revision.
 - The Injury Compensation file must contain documentation explaining why changes made by ICCO personnel were necessary.
- ◇ Under no circumstances may ICCO personnel revise any information on the Employee portion of the CA-7 or delay submission of the CA-7 to the OWCP.
 - To ensure the continuation of health benefits, if the employee has been enrolled with health benefits since the first opportunity or for 5 years immediately preceding the start of injury compensation or from or before 12/31/64, note this fact in the “Remarks” section, showing the enrollment code and the beginning and ending dates of the pay period in which the employee’s normal pay ceased.
- Forward the completed CA-7 to the OWCP district office along with the completed CA-20 by the 40th calendar day of COP.

If the CA-20 has not been returned with the CA-7, submit the CA-7 to the OWCP and advise them that the employee has not returned the required medical documentation.

- Inform the employee of his or her rights and responsibilities (see Exhibit 4.19a, Employee Rights and Responsibilities in Extended Cases).

An employee who uses sick or annual leave after the 45-day COP period expires may be entitled to buy back sick leave with compensation payments (see Exhibit 4.19b, Sample Letter: Leave Buy Back Policy).

- Forward any subsequently completed CA-8 and any other accompanying medical reports to OWCP within 5 working days upon receipt from the employee.

SEE Chapter 13, Timekeeping and Accounting.

4-20 Initiating Actions for Continuing Health Benefits Enrollment – ICCO

- If the total period of disability is less than 29 days, no action needs to be taken on health benefits enrollment. When the total period of disability is more than 29 days in an LWOP-IOD status, coordinate with the personnel services office to ensure that necessary and appropriate actions are taken:
 - If the employee is separated, contact OWCP to determine whether or not the enrollment can be transferred to OWCP.
 - If enrollment can be transferred, OWCP will request transfer by letter (see Exhibit 4.20a, Sample Letter: Request for Transfer of Federal Employees Health Benefit (FEHB) Enrollment to OWCP). Send all Forms SF-2809, Health Benefits Registration Form – Federal Employees Health Benefits Programs, and SF-2810, Federal Employees Health Benefits Program – Notice of Change in Health Benefits Enrollment, and any other health benefits documentation in the employee's OPF to OWCP (see Exhibit 4.20b, Sample Letter: Transfer of FEHB Enrollment to OWCP).
 - If OWCP does not request transfer for the employee who has been in LWOP-IOD status for 10 months, ICCO will coordinate with the personnel services office to send out a letter of transfer with supporting documentation to transfer health benefits enrollment to OWCP (see Exhibit 4.20b, Sample Letter: Transfer of Federal Employees Health Benefit Enrollment to OWCP).
 - If enrollment cannot be transferred, terminate the enrollment.
 - If the employee makes any permissible change in enrollment, notify OWCP by letter as soon as possible of the change and its effective date and file the letter in the IC file.
 - If the enrollment has been transferred to OWCP and the employee subsequently is separated, notify OWCP by letter of the separation so that OWCP knows how to dispose of the enrollment if compensation payments cease.

Extended Claims Management

When the employee remains totally or partially disabled beyond 1 year...

4-21 Determining Whether an Employee Is Eligible to Participate in an In-House Rehabilitation Program – ICCO

Obligation: Reassigning an Employee Following Limited Duty

Limited duty is a temporary accommodation. If medical findings indicate that the employee has reached maximum medical improvement (MMI), he or she should either be returned to full duty or permanently reassigned to a modified position under the Rehabilitation Program.

- When an employee has been working in a limited duty assignment for 1 year to determine whether the employee is eligible to participate in the USPS in-house rehabilitation program by reviewing the medical documentation.
- If the medical documentation is not definitive, first check with OWCP to see if they have more current definitive medical information. If not, schedule the employee for an FFD. After the FFD is completed and an opinion rendered, do the following:
 - If the medical evidence supports the employee’s capability of performing full duty, submit a copy of the doctor’s opinion letter along with all pertinent medical documentation to OWCP.
 - If the medical evidence indicates the employee still has restrictions but further improvement is expected, continue the employee’s limited duty assignment. Reevaluate in 6 months or the time frame specified by the examining physician for the anticipated improvement.
 - If the employee’s medical restrictions are deemed to be permanent by the examining physician, and such restrictions prevent the employee from ever returning to the employee’s regular position, proceed with an in-house rehabilitation effort.
- ◇ Conflicts in medical opinion must be ultimately resolved by OWCP before initiating any change in the employee’s status. See 6.6, Responding After the FFD Decision.

SEE Chapter 11, Rehabilitation Program
ELM 546

4-22 Determining Whether to Separate or Not to Separate an Employee After Remaining in an LWOP-IOD Status – ICCO

Obligation: Allowing LWOP-IOD Status for 1 Year

Disabled employees who receive OWCP compensation are placed in an LWOP-IOD status for an initial period of up to 1 year from the date OWCP compensation begins.

- At the end of the first year, determine whether to separate an employee from the USPS rolls by initiating the following actions:
 - Permit the employee to remain in a LWOP-IOD status for an additional period to allow for a thorough review of the case.
 - Request current claim status and copies of latest medical reports from OWCP.
 - Schedule the employee for an FFD.
 - If the medical documentation reflects that the employee is capable of performing full duty, do the following:
 - Ensure that any existing conflict in medical opinions are resolved by OWCP before initiating any other actions (see 6.6, Responding After the FFD Decision).
 - Direct the employee back to work by a letter that is signed by the district HR manager or designee and includes the following items:
 - The medical opinion as to duty status.
 - The report-to-duty date and time.
 - Where and to whom the employee should report.
 - A statement advising employee that failure to report may result in disciplinary action, including removal.
 - A description of job duties to include physical requirements of a job.
 - Forward a copy of the letter to the appropriate functional manager and forward all copies of correspondence along with all pertinent medical documentation to OWCP.
 - If medical evidence supports temporary partial disability (i.e., the employee still has restrictions that prevent him or her from performing full duty), but further improvement is expected, issue a written limited duty job offer. Check with the treating physician to determine the period needed for medical improvement of the employee.
 - If medical evidence supports permanent partial disability (i.e., the employee's restrictions are permanent, and he or she will never be able to perform full duty, but is capable of limited work), issue a written job offer for a permanent modified position under the provisions of the Joint DOL-USPS Rehabilitation Program (see Chapter 11, Rehabilitation Program).
 - If medical evidence supports temporary total disability (i.e., the employee has not reached maximum improvement, but a return to work is expected), and if the anticipated return to work is expected within 6 months from date of examination, extend the LWOP-IOD status.
SEE Chapter 11, Rehabilitation Program.
- Reevaluate the employee's duty status at the end of the 6-month period.
 - Initiate separation action when medical documentation supports permanent total disability, i.e., the employee will never be able to return to work in any capacity.

4-23 Separating an Employee in an LWOP-IOD Status From USPS Rolls – ICCO

- Prepare a request letter for separation action addressed to the manager of Safety and Risk Management at Headquarters, containing the following information:
 - A brief history of the employee’s injury.
 - The date the employee entered into an LWOP-IOD status. The employee must have been in an LWOP-IOD status for 1 year before separation is requested.
 - Conclusive medical reports that are no more than 6 months old and a summary of pertinent medical documentation substantiating the request for separation.
 - A request to the area HR analyst for confirmation to terminate the employee’s LWOP-IOD status and initiate separation action. The request is to be agreed with by the district HR manager and the appropriate functional manager and be signed by the district manager.

◇ Submit your request directly to Headquarters unless your area ICCO has requested a review of the separation request before Headquarters’ review.

The employee must be maintained on USPS rolls until a formal decision is received from Headquarters.

- Upon concurrence with the manager of Safety and Risk Management at Headquarters, submit a memorandum to the personnel services office through the district HR manager that requests the local personnel services office to:
 - Initiate employee notification and separation action.
 - Advise the employee of his or her retirement rights in the notification letter.

Retirement Rights

If the employee is covered under the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) and has 5 or more years of creditable civilian service, he or she will be eligible to file an application for disability retirement under CSRS, provided the application is filed with OPM within 1 year from the date of separation from the Postal Service.

If the employee is covered under the Federal Employee’s Retirement System (FERS), and has 18 months or more of creditable civilian service, he or she will be eligible to file an application for disability retirement under FERS, provided the application is filed with OPM within 1 year from the date of separation from the Postal Service.

If the employee is a non career employee, he or she must be advised to file with the Social Security Administration.

- Terminate the LWOP-IOD status and take appropriate separation action if the following are true:
 - The employee does not file a retirement application within the 14-day period.
 - The employee is covered under the CSRS and has less than 5 years creditable civilian service. (ELM 545.93)
 - The employee is covered under FERS and has less than 18 months creditable civilian service.
 - Enter a call-up into HRIS of 1 year to follow up with personnel services on status of separation action for review until compensation ceases. Ensure that HRIS is annotated when the employee has been separated.
 - ◇ Separation under these provisions does not preclude subsequent reemployment if medical status should change.

4-24 Ensuring That Eligible Employees Receive Their Health Benefits Refund — ICCO

Obligation: Ensuring Refund of Health Benefits

The Health Benefits Refund Program is designed to reimburse injured employees for an over-deduction of health benefits premiums by the OWCP.

For the first year of compensable disability, OWCP deducts the employee portion of health benefits premiums at the USPS rate. Thereafter, the deduction is made at the standard rate applied by the OPM for federal employees. The OPM employee share of the premium cost is higher than the USPS employee share. Therefore, injured employees may be eligible for a refund for over-deduction of health benefits premiums.

- To determine that the employee is eligible for a refund, ensure that all of the following criteria are met for the period of compensable disability:
 - The employee must be in an LWOP-IOD status. Employees who are separated from the USPS are not eligible for a health benefit refund.
 - The employee must receive OWCP compensation payments with health benefits premiums deducted at the OPM rate.
 - A period of at least 1 year must have elapsed since the employee was initially placed on OWCP compensation.
- Initiate Form 202, Health Benefits Refund Payment Authorization, and verify the information on the WCIS. Form 202 is initiated on a quarterly basis.
 - Calculate amount of refund to be paid by subtracting the difference between the OPM health benefits premium rate and the Postal Service rate of the health benefits plan selected by the employee.
 - Obtain approval on the completed Form 202 from the district HR manager or district manager.
 - Forward Form 202 to the appropriate district finance office for payment using account identifier code (AIC) 587, Fees for Service—Postal Operations.
 - File the original Form 202 in the employee's IC file and send one copy to the employee's OPF and two copies to the finance office.

In turn, the finance office will send the refund and a copy of Form 202 to the employee.

 - Ensure that the injured employee has continuation of enrollment for health benefits.

4-25 Initiating Health Benefits Refund — ICCO or designated control point personnel

- To ensure that an eligible employee receives his or her health benefit refund:
 - Initiate Form 202, Health Benefits Refund Payment Authorization, on a quarterly basis.
 - In calculating the amount of the refund to be paid, subtract the difference between the OPM health benefits premium rate and the Postal Service rate of the health benefits plan chosen by the employee.
 - Obtain approval of the facility manager or designee.
 - Submit two copies of the refund authorization to the finance office for payment using AIC 587, Fees for Service — Postal Operations.
 - File the original Form 202 in the employee's injury compensation file and one copy in the OPF.

The finance office will forward the refund and one copy of the Form 202 to the employee and retain one copy for its records.

Reassignment and Reemployment

When a current employee is to be reassigned or a former employee reemployed...

4-26 Considering a Former or Current Employee for Reemployment – ICCO

Obligation: Ensuring Reemployment or Reassignment of Employees Injured on Duty

Disability Fully Overcome Within 1 Year

When an employee fully overcomes the injury or disability within 1 year after the commencement of compensation payments from OWCP, or after compensable disability recurs, the USPS must give an employee the right to resume employment in the former or an equivalent position.

Disability Fully Overcome After More Than 1 Year

When a current or former employee fully overcomes the injury or disability more than 1 year after compensation begins, the USPS must give the current or former employee priority consideration for reemployment or reassignment into the former position or an equivalent one.

Disability Partially Overcome

- Current Employee: When an employee has partially overcome a compensable disability, the USPS must make every effort toward assigning the employee to limited duty consistent with the employee's medically defined work limitation tolerance. In assigning such limited duty, the USPS should minimize any adverse or disruptive impact on the employee.
- Former Employee: When a former employee has partially recovered from a compensable injury or disability, the USPS must make every effort toward reemployment consistent with medically defined work limitation tolerances. Such an employee may be returned to any position for which he or she is qualified, including a lower grade position than that which the employee held when compensation began.

- When an injured employee or former employee is being considered for reassignment or reemployment, ensure that postal obligations are met.

To ensure priority consideration of former employees who fully recover from their compensable disabilities more than 1 year after the start of compensation, enter their names on an employment list in two groups.

- Groups 1: All those entitled to 10-point veteran preference. They must be considered for employment before persons in Group 2.
- Groups 2: All other former employees. These former employees must be considered before other sources of recruitment, such as transfers from other agencies, reinstatements, or appointments from hiring registers.
- Current Employees. When an employee has partially overcome a compensable disability, the USPS must make every effort toward assigning the employee to limited duty consistent with the employee's medically defined work limitation tolerance (see 546.611). In assigning such limited duty, the USPS should minimize any adverse or disruptive impact on the employee.

SEE Chapter 11, Rehabilitation Program.

4-27 Ensuring Recognition of Appeal Rights – ICCO

Obligation: Ensuring Notification of Restoration Appeal Rights

OPM Appeal Rights

- Disability Fully Overcome Within 1 Year
An employee who has fully overcome the injury or disability within 1 year after the commencement of compensation payments from OWCP may appeal to the Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB) if he or she believes a proposed offer of reemployment does not meet the requirements of restoration as outlined in the OPM regulations. The letter of appeal must be submitted within 30 days after the date of the offer or 30 days after the date of reemployment, whichever is later. (5 CFR 353.301)
- Disability Fully Overcome After More Than 1 Year
A current or former employee who fully overcomes the injury or disability more than 1 year after compensation begins may appeal to the MSPB only when he or she has requested restoration through formal application to the installation head and restoration has been refused. An appeal of the denial of restoration must be filed with MSPB within 30 days from the day the denial letter is received. Upon restoration, however, the injured worker is not given the right to appeal the nature of the restoration. (5 CFR 353.303)
- Disability Partially Overcome
A current or former employee who partially overcomes the injury or disability may appeal to the MSPB only when he or she has requested restoration through formal application to the installation head and restoration has been refused. The current or former employee may then appeal to the MSPB for a determination of whether the USPS is acting arbitrarily and capriciously in denying them restoration. (5 CFR 353.304 and 401)

FECA Appeal Rights

When the employee receives a written decision from OWCP, the employee will also receive a copy of his or her appeal rights (as outlined in Chapter 8, Controversion and Challenge). The employee is advised to read the information carefully and to specify clearly which one of the procedures he or she is requesting in appealing a decision.

- When an injured current or former employee is entitled to restoration rights upon return to work but believes he or she has not received proper consideration for restoration or has been improperly restored, ensure that the current or former employee understands his or her right to appeal to the MSPB under CFR 353.

Exhibit 4.6

Conditions for Compensation of Claims

For a claim to be compensable under FECA, it must satisfy five basic conditions.

Time

The claim must be filed within the statutory time limits as follows:

- Written notice of injury or death must be filed within 30 days after the occurrence of the injury or death (a timely claim for compensation also constitutes a timely notice of injury).
- The original claim for disability or death compensation must be filed within 3 years after the occurrence of injury or death, although allowances will be made in the following cases:
 - The USPS had actual knowledge of the injury or death within 30 days after occurrence, acquired from the immediate supervisor's firsthand observation, from another employee, from USPS medical personnel, from an entry into the employee's OMF, or from results of tests conducted by the ICCO in connection with known occupational hazards.
 - Written notice of injury or death was given within 30 days of its occurrence.

Normally, timeliness is not a factor when challenging entitlement to compensation benefits. It is rare that the 3-year time frame cited above is exceeded. However, timeliness is frequently a basis for controverting and withholding COP. It is not uncommon for an employee to exceed the 30-day requirement for filing written notice of injury. (ELM 544.212)

If the claim was not filed within the time limits given, contact the OWCP district office. OWCP may excuse late notice of injury or death if exceptional circumstances exist.

These time limits apply only to injuries and deaths that occurred on or after 9/7/74. Contact OWCP regarding injuries that occurred before this date.

Postal Service Employee

The injured employee or decedent must be or have been an employee of the USPS at time of injury or exposure, regardless of the length of time on the job or the type of position held (including casual and transitional).

Occasionally, a question will arise as to whether an injured worker has "employee" status under FECA. This usually occurs in cases involving contract drivers or contract cleaners. OWCP will determine this factor using any of the following criteria:

- Whether the worker performed services or offered services to the public generally as a contractor, or was permitted to do so by the USPS.
- Whether the worker was required to furnish any tool or equipment.
- The period of time the work relationship was to exist.
- Whether the USPS had the right to discharge the worker at any time and, if so, when and under what circumstances.
- Whether the USPS had any right to control or direct the manner in which the work was performed.
- The manner in which payment for the worker's services was determined.
- Whether the activity that the worker was engaged in was a regular and continuing activity of the USPS.

Fact of Injury

The employee or decedent must have sustained an injury as defined in FECA.

The following issues must be addressed:

- Whether the alleged incident or exposure actually happened.
- Whether the alleged incident or exposure happened in the manner cited by the employee.

Example: A clerk alleged injury to the left side of her body when she slipped on water in a rest room. However, an eyewitness stated that when she walked into the rest room, she found the claimant sitting on an ashtray, asleep. When the eyewitness awoke the claimant, she became startled and collapsed to the floor as she attempted to stand up. The eyewitness further stated that there was no water on the rest room floor, and the claimant noted that her legs were numb.

In order to establish a fact of injury in a traumatic case, the employee has to establish that the injury occurred while in the performance of duty in the time, place, and manner alleged, and that the injury resulted from a specific event or incident. An injury does not have to be confirmed by an eyewitness in order to establish the fact that an employee sustained an injury in the performance of duty, but the employee's statement must be consistent with the surrounding facts and circumstances and subsequent cause of action.

Performance of Duty

The injury, illness, or death must have resulted from an incident or circumstance occurring while the employee was performing official duties.

The injury, illness, or death must have resulted from one or more of the following situations:

- The employee's performance of regular or special assigned duties, including activities considered reasonable incidents of employment (e.g., established coffee breaks).
- A requirement imposed by the employment.
- An employee's fear and anxiety regarding his or her ability to carry out official duties.

Injuries resulting from employment matters other than those cited above are generally regarded as not arising out of, or in the course of employment and, therefore, are not covered by FECA. In some cases, however, it is difficult to define the "performance of duty" factor, so it is imperative that the ICCO investigation be thorough and accurate.

Example: A carrier was injured in a vehicle accident while delivering his or her assigned route. The initial information received stated that the carrier was assigned to a foot route, did not have a drive-out agreement, and utilized his or her private vehicle without authorization. Based on this initial information, it appeared that the carrier's actions removed him or her from the scope of his or her regular assigned duties and, in turn, provided a basis to challenge the claim.

A further investigation, however, revealed that the use of private vehicles (without drive-out agreements) was common practice at the employee's station, and in fact many carriers also used private vehicles without a drive-out agreement with the full knowledge of their supervisor. The fact that management was aware and obviously condoned this practice placed it in the realm of regular assigned duties and made it a compensable employment factor.

Causal Relationship

The injury, disability or death must be caused by conditions of employment.

Causal relationships are medical issues and must be supported by medical documentation provided by a recognized physician.

Four types of causal relationships are recognized:

- Direct causation — when the injury or factors of employment, through a natural and unbroken sequence, result in the claimed condition.

Example: As a result of a slip and fall on ice, a carrier fractures his arm.

- Aggravation — when a preexisting condition is worsened, either temporarily or permanently, by an injury arising in the course of employment. Compensation is payable for the duration of the aggravation as medically determined.

Example: A mail handler's preexisting degenerative disc disease is aggravated when the gate of an all-purpose container falls on him.

- Temporary aggravation — a limited period of medical treatment or disability until the employee returns to his or her pre-injury physical status. Compensation is payable only for the period of aggravation established by the weight of the medical evidence, and not for any disability caused solely by the underlying disease.
- Permanent aggravation — when a condition persists indefinitely because of the effects of the job-related injury or when a condition is materially worsened such that it will not revert to its pre-injury level of severity.
- Acceleration — when a job-related injury or disease hastens the development of an underlying condition and the ordinary progression of the disease would not account for the speed with which a condition develops.

Example: An employee's diabetes may be accelerated by a work schedule so erratic that it prohibits the regular intake of food required by persons with this condition.

- Precipitation — when a latent condition manifests itself because of factors of employment. As with aggravation, precipitation may be either temporary or permanent.

Example: A custodian with tuberculosis, latent for a number of years, has renewed exposure in the workplace. In this case, the acceptance of the claim is limited to how long the work-related tuberculosis lasts. Entitlement to compensation ends once the person recovers.

Exhibit 4.16

Conditions for Continuation of PayProviding COP

An injured employee's request for COP must be granted by the USPS except in the following six circumstances:

- The disability is caused by an occupational disease.
- The injury occurs off USPS premises and the employee is not performing official "off premise" duties.

Example: Employee comes into the post office to pick up paycheck on scheduled day off; changing a tire in the parking lot located on postal premises.

- The injury is caused by one of the following:
 - The employee's willful misconduct.
 - The employee's intent to kill or injure himself or herself or another person.
 - The employee's intoxication by alcohol or illegal drugs.
- The injury is not reported on CA-1 within 30 days following the injury.
- Work stoppage first occurred more than 90 days following the injury.
- The employee initially reports the injury after his or her employment has terminated.

When casual employees or other employees with specific terms of employment are injured, provide COP only through the end of their appointments.

The USPS may controvert the employee's right to COP for reasons other than the six circumstances cited above. However, the final determination of COP entitlement lies with OWCP.

Withholding and Terminating COP

The ICCO is responsible for challenging a claimant's case if it is found that the five basic conditions have not been met and for controverting COP to which the claimant is not entitled. COP may also be withheld or terminated during the 45-day COP period only in those cases meeting the criteria specified in FECA's implementing regulations. In questionable cases, contact the area HR analyst for guidance. Ensure that the USPS is in compliance with FECA.

Do not withhold or terminate COP in the following situations:

- As part of disciplinary action, or as a result of a disciplinary action that terminates employment, unless written notice of termination for cause was issued to the employee before the date of injury.
- Pending OWCP's controversion decision.
- In cases when either one of the following applies:
 - Facts of injury are questionable.
 - Medical evidence does not establish causal relationship.

Immediately notify the employee if COP is either withheld or terminated.

Controverting and Withholding COP

Controvert and withhold COP in the following situations:

- The injured worker was not a USPS employee at the time of the injury or exposure.
- The injury or exposure did not occur on USPS premises and the employee was not in the performance of duty.
- The injury is proximately caused by one of the following:
 - The employee's willful misconduct.
 - The employee's intent to bring about injury or death to himself or herself or another person.
 - The employee's intoxication by alcohol or illegal drugs.
- The employee suffers an occupational illness rather than a job-related traumatic injury. In this case, the employee may apply for compensation or take annual or sick leave.
- The employee files the CA-1 more than 30 days from the date of injury.
- The employee files the CA-1 after the termination of employment.
- Work stoppage occurs more than 90 days after the date of the injury.

In cases where timeliness of filing is at issue, contact OWCP. Allowances are sometimes made for unusual circumstances.

Terminating COP

Terminate COP in the following situations:

- The employee does not submit prima facie medical evidence within 10 working days after claiming COP. In this case, ensure that the employee is aware of this requirement and of the fact that COP may be reinstated upon receipt of such evidence.
- The ICCO receives medical evidence that the employee's treating physician has found the employee to be no longer disabled, but capable of performing the duties of the position held at the time of injury. In this case, direct the employee back to work.
- The ICCO receives medical evidence that the employee's treating physician has found the employee to be partially disabled and the employee does not respond to a written limited duty assignment offer within 5 working days of such offer.
- The ICCO receives notification from OWCP that COP should be terminated.
- The employee's scheduled period of employment expires or employment is otherwise terminated, provided the date of termination of employment was established before the date of injury.

Exhibit 4.19a

Employee Rights and Responsibilities in Extended Cases

When an employee remains totally or partially disabled beyond the first 45 days following a traumatic injury, he or she must be advised of the following rights and responsibilities:

- He or she is obligated to return to work as soon as possible.
 - He or she has the right to file a claim for compensation on CA-7.
 - He or she is responsible for having the treating physician complete the attached CA-20, Attending Physician's Report, in duplicate, and forward the original to OWCP and the duplicate to the ICCO (enclose an official postage-paid return envelope).
 - OWCP compensation may be used after the 45-day COP expires but there is a waiting period of 3 calendar days before compensation begins. This period begins immediately after the end of the 45-calendar day COP period, may not be satisfied by using sick or annual leave, and must be a non-pay status.
 - If the disability continues for more than 14 calendar days after the expiration of the 45-day COP period, then the 3-calendar-day waiting period is no longer applicable.
 - He or she may be entitled to buy back leave used with compensation payments.*
 - If disability extends beyond the period claimed on CA-7, subsequent claims are submitted on CA-8, Claim for Continuing Compensation on Account of Disability.
 - He or she is responsible for submitting or arranging for the submission of medical evidence in support of the claim. CA-20a, Attending Physician's Supplement Report, is attached to CA-8 for this purpose.
 - He or she must complete CA-8, items 1 through 14, and forward it to the ICCO for completion of items 15 through 24.
 - He or she must file CA-8 every two weeks during the period of disability unless otherwise instructed by OWCP.
- * Employees on USPS rolls may buy back leave. Employees on the rolls must be advised, in writing, by the ICCO or control point following their return to duty that the buy back must be initiated within 1 year of the return or within 1 year of the date OWCP approved the claim, whichever is later. Employees who are being separated because of disability or other reasons must be advised, in writing, before separation that they cannot buy back leave after they are off the rolls.

5 Recurrence of Disability

Overview

This chapter addresses the roles of the supervisor, control point, and ICCO when an employee experiences a recurrence of disability from a job-related traumatic injury or occupational illness or disease.

Care must be taken to differentiate a true recurrence of a disability, a disability caused by a new injury or illness, or a compensable condition related to a previous disabling injury or illness so that the proper procedure can be followed. Supervisors and IC personnel must remain alert to whether there is an “intervening cause” that may signal the occurrence of a new injury and whether that intervening cause occurs on or off duty.

A disability resulting from a job-related incident or incidents identifiable in time and place is considered a new injury or illness. The term “recurrence” is reserved for a spontaneous return or increase of disability without an intervening cause. This chapter addresses these distinctions and provides examples that will help in making the differentiation.

Procedures

Report of Recurrence to Supervisor

When an employee is again disabled as a result of the original compensable injury or illness...

5-1 Identifying a Recurrence of Disability — supervisor

Obligation: Initiating a Claim in Case of Recurrence

The employee must immediately notify his or her supervisor of the recurrence of disability.

The supervisor must immediately initiate CA-2a, Federal Employee's Notice of Recurrence of Disability and Claim for Continuation of Pay/Compensation.

- Discuss the situation with the employee when he or she reports a recurrence of disability. With the help of Exhibit 5.1, determine if a recurrence of disability, a new injury or illness, or a related compensable condition exists (see Exhibit 5.1, New Injuries and Illnesses vs. Recurrences).
- Prepare to controvert or challenge any element of the recurrence of disability not deserving a specific benefit.
- ◇ Contact the area HR analyst or the OWCP district office to request instructions in any case where there may be doubt that the symptoms or disability are the result of the initial injury.

5-2 Initiating Claim Forms — supervisor

- If the injury or illness is new, provide the employee with either CA-1, Federal Employee's Notice of Traumatic Injury and Claim for Continuation of Pay/Compensation, or CA-2, Notice of Occupational Disease and Claim for Compensation, and follow directions for processing as outlined in Chapter 4, Claims Management.
 - If the injury or illness is consequential or intervening, provide the employee with either CA-7, Claim for Compensation on Account of Traumatic Injury or Occupational Disease, or CA-8, Claim for Continuing Compensation on Account of Disability; write a letter of explanation to OWCP if necessary; and follow directions for processing as outlined in Chapter 4, Claims Management.
 - If the injury or illness is a recurrence of disability, initiate the following steps:
 - Provide the employee with CA-2a.
 - Instruct the employee to do the following, requesting the ICCO for assistance as necessary:
 - Read the “Instruction for Employee” portion on CA-2a.
 - Complete the CA-2a, Part-A, items 1 through 23.
 - Submit all factual and medical evidence in support of the determination of recurrence of disability.
 - Promptly return the completed CA-2a.
 - Review the employee's completed portion of CA-2a and complete Part B, items 24 through 44.
 - Immediately forward the completed CA-2a, along with any attachments or statements, to the ICCO or the designated control point.
 - Issue CA-16, Authorization for Examination and/or Treatment, to authorize examination or treatment for the recurrence of disability provided:
 - The claim is for an injury, not an illness.
 - OWCP has not disallowed the original claim.
 - More than 6 months have not elapsed since the employee last returned to work.
- In those situations when the USPS cannot authorize the examination and treatment, contact the ICCO so that IC personnel can contact the OWCP district office for the employee to obtain authorization.

Notice of Recurrence to ICCO

When the ICCO receives notice of an employee's recurrence of disability...

5-3 Responding to Notice of a Recurrence of Disability – ICCO

Obligation: Processing a Recurrence Claim

If, after having been discharged from medical treatment, an injured employee again has symptoms or disability under circumstances from which it may reasonably be inferred that the symptoms or disability are due to an injury previously recognized as compensable by OWCP, the ICCO authorizes the required medical care, if applicable; provides COP, if applicable; and informs the employee of compensation entitlement if COP is exhausted or the period of COP entitlement has expired.

- Date-stamp all claim documents upon receipt in the ICCO.
- Date-stamp all outgoing claim documents sent to OWCP.
- Upon receiving CA-2a, review the form for completeness and accuracy and complete Part B, items 24 through 44, if the employee's supervisor has not already done so. If the form is incomplete, contact the employee or his or her representative for the missing information and assist the employee or representative in correcting any deficiencies found.
- If the employee wishes to make a change to the Employee portion of the CA-2a, ensure that the employee initials and dates the revision or submits the change in writing on a separate piece of paper that is signed and dated.
- To prevent delays in submission of CA-2a forms to OWCP, if it is not possible to obtain written revisions from the employee of obvious or suspected errors in the Employee portion of the CA-2a, such errors may be listed on the Agency portion of the CA-2a and initialed and dated by ICCO personnel (or the supervisor) identifying the errors.
- Any changes made on the Agency portion of the CA-2a must be lined out and initialed and dated by ICCO personnel (or the supervisor) making the revision.
- The Injury Compensation file must contain documentation explaining why changes made by ICCO personnel were necessary.
- ◇ Under no circumstances may ICCO personnel revise any information on the Employee portion of the CA-2a or delay submission of the CA-2a to the OWCP.
- Authorize medical care by using CA-16 if the supervisor has not done so.
In those situations when the USPS cannot authorize the examination and treatment, contact the OWCP district office for the employee to obtain authorization.
- Provide COP up to the amount of any remaining COP, if all the following conditions are met:
 - Recurrence of disability stems from a traumatic injury, not an occupational disease or illness.
 - The original claim of disability has not been denied by OWCP.
 - The 45-day COP period has not been exhausted.
 - The disability recurs within 90 days of the date the employee first returns to work following the initial period of disability.
- Obtain periodic medical evidence on CA-17, Duty Status Report, in cases where pay is continued.

- Inform the employee that he or she must initiate a claim for compensation on CA-7 if any of the following conditions are met:
 - Recurrence of disability stems from an occupational illness or disease.
 - The 45-day COP period has been exhausted.
 - Disability recurs more than 90 days after he or she first returns to work.
- If CA-7 has previously been submitted, instruct the employee to file the claim on CA-8.
- Submit the original completed CA-2a and accompanying forms and documentation, if any, to the OWCP district office as soon as possible. If there is a lost time workday, make a copy of the CA-2a for the IC claim file and a copy for Safety.
- ◇ Never delay submission of the CA-2a to OWCP pending receipt of medical report and documentation.
- Prepare to controvert or challenge any element of the recurrence of disability not deserving a specific benefit.
- ◇ Contact the area HR analyst or the OWCP district office to request instructions in any case where there may be doubt that the symptoms or disability are the result of the injury.

Notice of Return to Work

When an employee returns to work...

5-4 Notifying OWCP of Employee's Return to Work — ICCO

- The employee may have returned to work by the time CA-2a is submitted to OWCP. If so, no notice of return to work is required. If not, when the employee does return to work, complete and forward CA-3, Report of Termination of Disability and/or Payment, to the OWCP.

Exhibit 5.1

New Injuries and Illnesses vs. Recurrences

Distinguishing Between New Event and Recurrence

Confusion in distinguishing a recurrence of disability from a new injury or illness occurs when physicians relate symptoms back to an old injury without considering whether there is an intervening cause or whether it occurs on or off duty. The same is true when a previous condition is exacerbated by an occupational disease.

New Injury or Illness

If, while the employee is in the performance of duty, a second incident occurs and precipitates an injury, even if the injury is to the same part of the body previously injured, it is considered a new injury. If a new exposure to the same causes again precipitates an occupational disease or illness, it is considered a new illness. Both result from a circumstance that is considered an intervening cause that occurs during the performance of duty.

Because compensable conditions include aggravations and accelerations of preexisting or underlying conditions, aggravation of a previous injury may be diagnosed as a new traumatic injury. The definition applies without consideration of the length of time since the last injury. For instance, an employee may have bona fide back injuries on 2 consecutive days.

A condition from a previous injury may be aggravated by stress or strain in the work environment. This condition constitutes a new occupational disease.

A new injury is reported on CA-1; a new illness on CA-2.

Define or refer to traumatic injury and occupational disease as:

- Traumatic injury means a wound or other condition of the body caused by external force, including stress or strain. The injury:
 - Must be identifiable as to time and place of occurrence and member or function of the body affected.
 - Must be caused by a specific event or incident, or series of events or incidents, within a single day or work shift.
 - May also include damage to or destruction of prosthetic devices or appliances.
 - Occupational illness or disease means an illness or disease produced by one of the following:
 - Systemic infections.
 - Continued or repeated stress or strain.
 - Exposure to toxins, poisons, fumes, etc.
 - Other continued and repeated exposure to conditions of the work environment over a longer period of time than a single day or work shift.

Related Compensable Conditions

Two other kinds of injury or illness are compensable because of their relationship to a previous job-related injury or illness. Although there is an intervening cause, it does not occur while the employee is in the performance of duty.

- A consequential injury is an injury that occurs outside the performance of duty but is considered to be the result of a job-related injury or a weakness or impairment caused by a work-related injury. Included in this definition are injuries caused by weakness from or treatment for an accepted job-related injury.

Example: Crutches prescribed for an on-the-job ankle injury cause a shoulder condition. The shoulder condition is a consequential injury because, although it occurred during non work hours, it resulted from impairment caused by a work-related injury.

- An intervening injury is an injury that occurs outside the performance of duty to the same part of the body originally injured and is considered to be at least partially the result of the original job-related injury rather than the result of the second injury alone. The resulting condition is considered related to the original injury unless the second injury alone is established as its cause.

There is no designated form to advise OWCP of a consequential or intervening injury. A CA-7 or CA-8 is used if necessary to request compensation.

Example: An employee sustained a job-related injury to his left knee and began receiving compensation benefits. He underwent vocational rehabilitation and returned to a suitable job. He later filed a claim for recurrence of disability when he re-injured the left knee while playing basketball. In view of his left knee condition, playing basketball was not a reasonable activity, and the recurrence of disability filed was not the result of the natural consequence or progression of his job-related injury but was due to an independent, intervening cause attributable to his own intentional conduct (ECAB Decision No. 90-0594, issued 11/16/90).

Recurrence

A recurrence of disability is a spontaneous return or increase of disability because of a previous injury or occupational disease without intervening cause.

A CA-2a is used to report a recurrence of injury or illness.

Selecting the Appropriate Form

Sample Case #1

A window clerk sustains a sprained right ankle from tripping on a mail sack. After a brief period of disability and physical therapy, she returns to her regular duties, which are sedentary. Following her return to work, she is selected for a letter carrier position requiring long periods of standing and walking. She had applied for the position before her ankle injury. After 3 months as a letter carrier, the employee complains of ankle pain and submits medical evidence certifying that she is disabled for the letter carrier job. The medical report states that the prolonged walking has aggravated the employee's weakened ankle. What form, if any, is needed at this time?

Answer: This employee would need to file CA-2, Notice of Occupational Disease and Claim for Compensation. She has identified the repeated stress and strain of walking as the source of her current disability. The claimant needs to submit medical and factual evidence in support of her claim.

A secretary with the USPS is currently performing limited duty as the result of a back injury suffered on the job 2 weeks ago. While he is typing at his desk, he is jarred by a mail cart hitting his chair. His previously moderate back pain is suddenly unbearable. He leaves work immediately to return to the physician who has been treating him. Should he file another claim form?

Answer: In this situation, the employee has sustained a new injury. He can associate the onset of pain with a specific event identifiable by time and place of occurrence within one work shift or workday. This applies even though he was only released to limited duty and is still under treatment. Accordingly, he should file CA-1, Federal Employee's Notice of Traumatic Injury and Claim for Continuation of Pay/Compensation, and is entitled to another 45 days of COP for any time lost.

Sample Case #3

A postal inspector is confined to desk work after sustaining a low back injury during a scuffle with a suspect. She is receiving physical therapy three times a week. On Monday morning, she calls in sick saying that she lifted her small daughter over the weekend and exacerbated her back pain. What should she do now?

Answer: This employee appears to have sustained an intervening injury. This is an injury that occurs outside the performance of duty to the same part of the body originally injured. The resulting condition is considered related to the original injury unless the second injury alone is established as its cause. Because the inspector is still under active medical treatment and has only been released to limited duties, it is unlikely that the second injury alone is enough to cause her current disability. There is no form designed to advise OWCP of an intervening injury. This employee should simply inform OWCP of the second incident by letter. She should also submit a medical report that includes an opinion on the relationship between disability and the original injury. If her eligibility for COP has expired, she will also need to file CA-7, Claim for Compensation on Account of Traumatic Injury or Occupational Disease.

Sample Case #4

An occupational health nurse with the USPS has been performing modified work since sustaining a wrist injury 6 months ago. The physical demands of his modified work are very light; however, he has made frequent complaints of wrist pain to his supervisor. Despite the complaints, the employee has not seen his treating physician since returning to work 4 months ago. Late on a Thursday afternoon, he says he cannot take the pain any longer and is going to his physician. The following day, he reports to his supervisor that the doctor has taken him off work and is recommending surgery. The doctor feels the current problems are related to the original injury. What is required of the employee?

Answer: The employee seems to have had a recurrence of disability. He should be requested to file a CA-2a, Notice of Recurrence of Disability and Claim for Continuation of Pay/Compensation; supporting documentation; and CA-7, Claim for Compensation on Account of Traumatic Injury or Occupational Disease, for lost time.

6 Medical Management

Overview

This chapter addresses basic medical management procedures, as well as various services and medical management tools available to assist the ICCO. Effective medical management from the onset of the injury or illness is the key to returning injured employees to work as soon as possible.

The first section of the chapter illustrates situations and responses encountered when managing medical claims. The second section details what medical bills may be submitted for payment and what steps to take for processing.

The chapter is primarily written for ICCO personnel; however, a few sections pertain to the responses of the OHNA when tracking occupational injuries and illnesses.

Procedures

Medical Evidence

When determining an injured employee's duty status...

Obligation: Requesting Medical Examinations

The USPS has the authority to require the employee to undergo a medical examination to determine whether the employee meets the mandatory medical requirements of the position held or is able to perform the duties of that position. This examination cannot, however, interfere with issuance of CA-16, with the employee's free choice of physician, or with any authorized examination or treatment. (ELM 545.2, Authorizing Examination and/or Treatment, and ELM 543.1, Initial Medical Examination and/or Treatment. For emergency treatment, refer to ELM 545.24.)

6-1 Ensuring That Medical Evidence Substantiates the Injured Employee's Duty Status – ICCO

Obligation: Securing the Treating Physician's Duty Status Statement

The physician or hospital must, for each visit of the employee, make a professional statement showing that the employee is one of the following: fit for duty; fit for limited duty, with the work tolerance limitations indicated; or not fit for duty, with an expected return-to-duty date indicated.

- Inform the employee that his or her physician or hospital must, for each visit, make a professional statement showing that the employee is one of the following:
 - Fit for duty.
 - Fit for limited duty, with the work tolerance limitations indicated.
 - Not fit for duty, with an expected return-to-duty date indicated.

Injury Beyond First Aid

When the injury requires more than two visits, it is no longer considered a first-aid injury, and Form 2491 may no longer be used. When the injury goes beyond first aid (third visit) and the criteria set forth in Chapter 3, Immediate Involvement With Traumatic Injuries and Occupational Illnesses, are met, CA-16 is issued.

- Instruct the employee to advise the physician that limited duty is available. Have the employee provide the treating physician with all the appropriate medical forms for all visits to the treating physician subsequent to the initial visit.
 - If the employee elects treatment by a USPS contract medical provider, issue the following forms:
 - For a first-aid injury, provide Form 2491, Medical Report – First-Aid Injuries. This form is used for the follow-up visit as well as the initial visit.
 - For treatment beyond first aid, provide the following forms:
 - CA-16, Authorization for Examination and/or Treatment.
 - CA-17, Duty Status Report.
 - HCFA-1500, Health Insurance Claim Form (billing).

- If the employee elects treatment by a private physician, provide the following forms:
 - CA-16, Authorization for Examination and/or Treatment (required by 20 CFR 10.402a for traumatic injuries).
 - CA-17, Duty Status Report.
 - CA-20, Attending Physician's Report.
 - HCFA-1500, Health Insurance Claim Form (billing).
 - When medical reports do not reflect duty status, contact the treating physician to clarify the employee's availability for either full or limited duty, and follow up with a letter with an enclosed CA-17 (see Exhibit 6.1, Sample letter: Limited Duty Availability). (ELM 545.62)
- SEE Section 6.8, Processing Medical Payments, for payment of medical bills beyond the second visit.

6-2 Reviewing Medical Documentation – ICCO

Obligation: Monitoring Medical Progress

The USPS monitors the employee's medical progress and duty status by obtaining periodic medical reports to determine if the employee will be able to return to work in the near future or to further clarify medical work restrictions imposed.

- Review the medical evidence and address the following:
 - Whether the medical findings indicate the employee is capable of returning to either full or limited duty.
 - If capable for full duty, immediately return the employee to his or her regular position.
 - If capable for limited duty, arrange for a limited duty assignment. If the employee is already on limited duty, determine if the medical findings indicate if the restrictions have been either increased or decreased and if so, change the employee's limited duty assignment accordingly.
 - Whether the cited period of disability is consistent with the nature of the injury. Consult with either the OHNA or the USPS contract medical provider.
 - Whether information provided in Block 12 of CA-17 is consistent with Side B of Block 7.
 - Note that, because of unfamiliarity with the forms, physicians sometimes indicate in Block 12 that the employee is incapable of returning to work; however, a review of the restrictions may reveal that the employee can perform limited duty tasks.
 - Whether the medical findings indicate that therapy is required. If so, do the following:
 - Advise the installation head to emphasize to the employee the importance of participating in scheduled therapy treatment to facilitate the recovery process.
 - Report, in writing, missed appointments to OWCP.
 - Whether a referral request for nurse intervention is appropriate (see Exhibit 6.2a, Medical Management Tools, and Exhibit 6.2b, Sample Letter: Referral Consideration for the Nurse Intervention Program).

SEE Chapter 7, Limited Duty Program Management.

6-3 Contacting the Treating Physician – ICCO

- When the USPS medical provider or OHNA is unable to do so, contact the treating physician if additional information is needed because of inconsistencies relative to the employee's duty status or if there are incomplete medical reports. (ELM 545.62) The designated control point may contact the treating physician if clarification is needed following the initial examination.
- When making such contacts, ensure the following:
 - USPS personnel and the staff of USPS contract medical providers are not interfering with the medical care prescribed by the employee's attending physician.
 - Inquiries are limited to information regarding the medical condition of the employee, or the employee's ability to return to full or limited duty.
- When communicating with the treating physician, professionally present the pertinent facts and request the treating physician's medical opinion.
- Contact the treating physician when requesting a new CA-17, updating medical progress. Ensure that the following are accomplished:
 - Document any change in duty status authorized by the treating physician.
 - When duty status information is given, issue a new CA-17 with a cover letter, requesting the treating physician to confirm the information in writing.
 - Send copies of such correspondence to the employee and to the OWCP district office, and forward copies of the physician's response to both, once it is received.
- ◇ Assignment of employee to appropriate duty status must not be delayed. If written confirmation from the treating physician is pending, initiate the assignment based on information received in the documented telephone contact.

6-4 Initiating a Fitness-for-Duty Examination – ICCO, OHNA

Fitness-for-Duty Examination

A fitness-for-duty examination (FFD) is a physical examination conducted by a contract medical provider to determine the employee's current medical status. The purposes of the FFD are to evaluate medical status, confirm or verify limited duty assignments, and assist in the rehabilitation effort.

- Initiate an FFD at any time if there are unresolved questions regarding the employee's duty status (ELM 547.3).
- ◇ Unsupported findings of disability or unresolved inconsistencies may be challenged by the ICCO personnel.
- The FFD may include the parts of the anatomy being treated as a result of the job-related injury, provided the examination in no way disturbs or interferes with the treatment regimen. Remember that the purpose of the FFD is to determine the employee's capability of performing work. Therefore, if the employee is obviously totally incapacitated (e.g., immobile), an FFD would be inappropriate. The fact that an injured or ill employee is scheduled for a series of treatments or appointments with a physician or hospital does not by itself, however, establish that the employee is not fit for duty.
- Schedule an appointment for an FFD following approval of appropriate official with the USPS contract medical provider as follows:
 - Schedule the FFD as soon as possible after the employee's appointment with his or her treating physician. This will allow the USPS contract medical provider to review the most current medical information at the time of the FFD.
 - Issue a scheduling letter to the employee. (It is encouraged that two copies be sent: one by regular mail and one by certified mail with return receipt requested) directing him or her to report for the FFD (see Exhibit 6.4, Sample Letter: Employee FFD Scheduling). Prepare the letter for the signature of the district HR manager, and include the following information:
 - Reason for the FFD in accordance with ELM 547.3.
 - Date, time, and location of the examination.
 - Instructions to bring updated medical information.
 - Possible consequences if employee fails to appear.
 - When a short lead time cannot be avoided, contact the employee by phone, and follow up with written confirmation.
- When the employee fails, without good cause, to appear for the FFD, contact the local labor relations office to discuss possible administrative action. Advise OWCP if the employee does not report for the FFD examination and request the claims examiner to schedule the employee for a second opinion examination if the employee continues to be uncooperative.

6-5 Initiating a Fitness-for-Duty Examination Consultation — ICCO, OHNA

- An FFD consultation occurs when the USPS contract medical provider requires a board-certified specialist's opinion, requires a specific test to be performed before rendering his or her own opinion regarding the employee's condition, or when permanent personnel actions are being considered (e.g., permanent reassignment under the USPS in-house rehabilitation program). In these instances, initiate the following:
 - Coordinate efforts with the USPS contract medical provider or the OHNA.
 - Schedule an appointment with an appropriate board-certified specialist (or laboratory or facility for a test).
 - Send a letter to the board-certified specialist or laboratory including or indicating the following:
 - A statement of what information is needed, the type of test to be performed, and billing instructions.
 - A summary of the employee's pertinent medical history. (Include appropriate medical reports, test results, etc.)
 - The signature of either the USPS contract medical provider or the OHNA. If neither are available, the senior IC specialist can sign the letter (see Exhibit 6.5a, Sample Letter: Board-Certified Specialist FFD Consultation Scheduling).
 - Send a second scheduling letter to the employee that contains the information as listed above that advises him or her that the consultation is part of the previously initiated FFD and instructs the employee to bring updated medical information (see Exhibit 6.5b, Sample Letter: Employee FFD Consultation Scheduling). It is encouraged that two copies of the letter be sent: one by regular mail and one by certified mail with return receipt requested.
- If the USPS contract medical provider wants to see the employee again following an FFD consultation, schedule the employee for a follow-up FFD. Follow the procedure mentioned in 6.4, Initiating a Fitness-for-Duty Examination.

6-6 Responding After the Fitness-for-Duty Examination Decision – ICCO

- Obtain a copy of the USPS contract medical provider's medical opinion. Advise the employee of the FFD results in writing (usually with a copy of Form 2485, Medical Examination and Assessment), if the USPS contract medical provider has not already done so.
Remember that the FFD determination is not limited to the employee's regular duties but is based on whether the employing installation can provide alternative duties that the employee can perform safely.
- When the USPS contract medical provider agrees with the treating physician, do the following:
 - Place the employee (or have him or her remain) in the appropriate duty status (e.g., fit for limited duty).
 - If deemed appropriate based on medical findings, schedule the employee for a follow-up FFD (e.g., medical findings may indicate employee is currently totally disabled, but is expected to improve within 2 weeks).
 - Obtain copies of all pertinent medical reports for referral to OWCP.
- When the USPS medical provider needs to clarify the employee's duty status because of incomplete medical reports, lack of specific or conflicting medical restrictions from the treating physician, ensure that the USPS medical provider does the following:
 - Contacts the treating physician to attempt to obtain the clarifications.
 - Follows up with written confirmation when a change in duty status occurs when advised by the ICCO.
- ◇ Physicians under contract to the USPS who are not considered postal employees are not allowed by federal regulations to contact the employee's medical provider.

Authority for Medical Issues

No administrative action may be taken to change the employee's compensation or duty status until all medical issues are resolved. When the USPS contract medical provider does not agree with the treating physician, the injured employee's duty status may not be changed without the concurrence of the treating physician.

OWCP has sole authority regarding the disposition of medical issues, and the medical data on which the OWCP decision is based become the ruling medical authority. OWCP will determine if a second opinion or an independent medical examination (IME) is required and will schedule the appropriate examinations. Therefore, work assignments are determined in accordance with the medical suitability and work restrictions identified, not with what the treating physician submitted.

For purposes of work assignment, the USPS contract medical provider is permitted to further restrict an employee's work activities, but cannot lessen the restrictions placed on the employee by the treating physician or the OWCP's medical authority determination.

- When contact with the treating physician fails to resolve the difference in medical opinions, do the following:
 - Obtain a detailed report from the USPS contract medical provider that includes medical rationale to support his or her opinion along with all supporting documentation.

- Prepare a controversion or challenge package for submittal to the OWCP district office upon receipt of the USPS medical contract provider's report.

SEE Chapter 8, Controversion and Challenge.

USPS Contract Medical Provider Review of Medical Evidence

A review by the USPS contract medical provider is critical in cases involving any question about the following:

- The employee's fitness for full or limited duty.
- A relationship between the job-related injury and preexisting medical problems.
- A causal relationship between the medical condition and factors of employment.
- The employee's achievement of maximum medical improvement.
- The use of a medical consultant or specialist by OWCP for a second opinion or an IME. The use of a board-certified specialist as part of an FFD does not constitute a "second opinion" under the intent of FECA. The use of a specialist can, however, further support the opinion of the USPS contract medical provider.
- A change of employee's treating physician.

- Monitor status by reviewing OWCP correspondence. If necessary, request periodic status updates using Form 2573, Request — OWCP Claim Status.

If OWCP fails to respond within a reasonable period of time (e.g., 8-12 weeks), refer the matter to the designated area HR analyst.

- Upon receipt of OWCP's decision, take one of the following actions:
 - If the ICCO agrees with the decision, place the employee in the following work assignments:
 - If the employee is found fit for limited duty, see Chapter 7, Limited Duty Program Management.
 - If the employee is found fit for the Rehabilitation Program, see Chapter 11, Rehabilitation Program.
 - If the employee is found fit for full duty, issue a letter directing the employee to report back to his or her regular position.
 - If the ICCO disagrees with the decision and has evidence to support such disagreement:
 - Contact the designated area HR analyst by telephone and review the case.
 - If the area HR analyst is in agreement with the ICCO's position, forward the case to the area HR analyst for further follow-up with the OWCP district office and, if necessary, USPS Headquarters.
 - Use HRIS call-ups to monitor medical progress through resolution.

SEE Chapter 7, Limited Duty Program Management
Chapter 11, Rehabilitation Program

6-7 Contacting the Occupational Health Nurse Administrator for Assistance in Claims Management – ICCO

- IC personnel may contact the OHNA for the following information:
 - A list of injured or ill employees on COP, OWCP rolls or limited duty, or in the Rehabilitation Program maintained to assist the ICCO office in tracking IC claims.
 - Review of interim medical reports from the treating physician to monitor the treatment and prognosis for recovery.
 - Assistance in facilitating return of the employee to regular duty and ensuring job suitability for those who cannot return to regular duty.

Medical Payments

When medical expenses are incurred...

6-8 Processing Medical Bills — ICCO

Medical Payments

Medical payments may be paid either by the USPS or OWCP. The USPS pays medical bills for the following:

- First-aid cases treated by USPS contract medical providers.
- Management directed medical services, e.g., FFDs, consultative examinations, and tests.

Medical bills arising from these visits, including first-aid visits, may include office visits, X rays, lab work, pharmaceutical bills, and miscellaneous medical expenses. Use HRIS to generate the Medical Bill Certification Form to authorize payment of medical bills for job-related injuries that are not paid by OWCP.

OWCP pays for all medical bills resulting from a job-related injury or illness for which a CA-1, Federal Employee's Notice of Traumatic Injury and Claim for Continuation of Pay/Compensation or CA-2, Notice of Occupational Disease and Claim for Compensation, is filed, except medical management services (see Exhibit 6.2a, Medical Management Tools).

- When payment is made by the USPS for first-aid bills or management-directed medical services, make arrangements for local payment by using AIC 577, Medical Expenses — On-the-Job Injury or Illness, and support with a completed medical bill certification (MBC) form.
 - Provide documentation by doing the following:
 - Date stamp all bills.
 - Enter the data into the HRIS Medical Management Application, and use the system to generate a completed MBC form.
 - When first-aid treatment is provided by a USPS contract medical provider, and the employee elects not to file CA-1, Federal Employee's Notice of Traumatic Injury and Claim for Continuation of Pay/Compensation, initiate the processing of the bill, using Form 7381, Requisition for Supplies, Services, or Equipment, and charge the bill to AIC 578.
 - Provide documentation by doing the following:
 - Date stamp all bills.
 - Enter the data into the HRIS Medical Management System, and use the system to generate a completed MBC Form.
 - Ensure that the completed MBC form is signed by the senior IC specialist.
 - Forward the completed MBC form, with the bill, to Finance for payment.
 - When treatment continues beyond the initial first two visits for first-aid treatment provided by a USPS contract medical provider and payment is made by OWCP, do the following:
 - Advise OWCP in writing to preclude dual payment for the initial two visits.
 - Instruct the USPS contract medical provider to establish a new account when submitting subsequent bills (after two visits) to the OWCP.
 - Date stamp all bills. Bills, other than hospital and pharmaceutical bills, are submitted on HCFA-1500, Health Insurance Claim Form.

- Forward the bills to OWCP as soon as possible but no later than 10 working days after receipt.

6-9 Reviewing Medical Payments – ICCO

- When medical bills are paid by the USPS, obtain the HRIS-generated logs and summaries of local payments to track and monitor the medical expenses.
- When medical bills are paid by OWCP, do the following:
 - Review bill payments monthly to determine if any duplicate or erroneous payments were made and to facilitate timely corrective action, when needed, by accessing the Exceptions segment of the Bill Payment System (BPS) under the WCIS.
 - Upon identification and verification of a duplicate or erroneous payment, submit all pertinent information to OWCP with a request to collect the overpayment and credit the USPS on the charge-back report. Forward a copy of the bill and payment in question to the area HR analyst.
- ◇ Contact the area HR analyst when assistance is needed for either the identification or collection of duplicate or otherwise erroneous bill payments.

Date of Injury: _____

Dear ___[name]___:

We understand that you are providing medical care to our employee, ___[name]___, secondary to the job-related injury he or she sustained on ___[date]___.

When a postal employee is injured in the performance of duty, our aim is to ensure that he or she receives prompt medical attention and other benefits as provided by the Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA). Under this Act, we have an obligation to provide suitable limited duty work, and employees have an obligation to return to work or seek work when able.

Accordingly, if ___[Mr./Ms. name]___ is physically unable to perform the activity outlined on the enclosed CA-17, Duty Status Report, side A (Supervisor portion), alternative work is generally available. [Inclusion of the following sentence is optional.] Attached are a few examples of the types of limited duty assignments that are available.

Kindly complete side B (Physician portion) of the CA-17. If you indicate that ___[Mr./Ms. name]___ has physical restrictions, we will make every effort to provide an accommodation fully consistent with the restrictions imposed. Please return the CA-17 in the self-addressed envelope provided.

Should you have any questions, please call our contract medical provider or occupational health nurse administrator at ___[telephone number]___. Thank you for your attention to and cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

Medical Management ToolsOffice of Workers' Compensation Program's Early Nurse Intervention Program

The Office of Workers' Compensation Program's (OWCP) Early Nurse Intervention Program uses registered nurses to intervene in identified compensation cases for purposes of assisting the injured employee, shortening the period of disability, and reducing compensation costs. The nurses interact with the injured employee, treating physician, employing office, and claims examiner to hasten the worker's recovery from the effects of the injury, and to promote a return to the pre-injury level of activities.

The role of the nurse is as follows:

- Establish a supportive relationship with the injured worker and instill confidence that the medical management effort can be effective, beneficial, and lead to resumption of activities of the pre-injury level.
- Provide the injured worker an opportunity to discuss the injury and the medical treatment.
- Gather sufficient information about the injured worker's condition and ongoing medical treatment to recommend and coordinate appropriate medical services designed to expedite recovery.
- Assist the treating physician and injured worker to establish the best timing for and choice of medical services and treatment modalities.
- Monitor the injured worker's medical condition and the treatment provided.
- If necessary, assist the injured worker in obtaining authorizations or other services from OWCP district offices as well as provide information to OWCP about non-work-related medical conditions that may affect recovery.
- Encourage the injured worker to cooperate with medical treatment and other efforts to prepare for return to a higher level of activity and, as feasible, return to work.
- Assist in identifying and reviewing the limited duty assignment.

Currently, OWCP attempts to have nurse intervention occur within 45-90 days after the date of injury. The OWCP claims examiner decides which cases will be referred to the program. The program is especially useful in cases of orthopedic disability. Cases involving surgery, prolonged treatments such as physical therapy without clear goals or direction, multiple concurrent medical and psychological issues, and catastrophic injuries are also likely to benefit from the program.

Although the claims examiner decides whether a case should be referred for inclusion in this program, the ICCO may request the claims examiner to consider specific cases for referral. While the program is designed to target new injuries, other cases may also be recommended (e.g., medically stagnant cases). After a referral request is initiated, use Human Resources Information System (HRIS) to check on status (see Exhibit 6.2b, Sample Letter: Referral Consideration for the Nurse Intervention Program).

Medical Initiatives

In addition to the OWCP Early Nurse Intervention Program described above, there are other management tools available to assist ICCO personnel in returning injured employees to work or bringing cases to a resolution. USPS medical contract provider services should be coordinated with the area medical director for his or her advice and professional opinion.

Medical Management Services

There are numerous private concerns that provide a variety of medical management services, including in-depth assessments of all medical documentation and other pertinent data. Such services have proven beneficial in certain cases involving review of complex medical issues.

Some companies allow for contracting on a case-by-case basis. When considering whether to contract with a medical management service, contact three to five of the company's clients to determine their degree of satisfaction with the services, fees charged, and return on investment.

Routine Use of Records

Authority for disclosure of medical information for routine use of records to nonpostal personnel is cited in ASM 120.098 (f) under Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System. The routine use of records cited in section (f) provides disclosure to agents and contractors where records or information may be disclosed to an expert, consultant, or other individual who is under contract to the Postal Service to fulfill agency function, but only to the extent necessary to fulfill that function.

Physical Capability Testing

Many rehabilitation and therapy services offer a variety of testing techniques as a tool to help determine an injured worker's capability to return to work. It must be noted, however, that the testing itself is of little benefit unless used as a diagnostic tool to assist an authorized physician (preferably a board-certified specialist) in developing a medical opinion. If deemed appropriate by the USPS contract medical provider, testing would be conducted as part of the FFD. It is imperative that the physician who will be using the results of these tests be familiar with and have confidence in the testing techniques being utilized. This must be established before entering into a contract with a testing service.

Another available testing procedure includes the following:

- Functional capacity evaluation (FCE). An FCE is a whole body test that consists of a series of evaluative procedures to determine a worker's physical demand level. It is designed to measure the employee's pain or fatigue level and can be stopped at any time by the patient.

In order to assist the above physician in the medical evaluation, please bring a current narrative report prepared by your treating physician. The report should include the following:

1. Diagnosis.
2. Dates of treatment.
3. Prognosis.
4. Results of pertinent medical studies.
5. Specific work restrictions (if any) and their duration.
6. Prescribed medication, including that which is required while working.
7. Date of anticipated return to work (either full or limited duty).
8. Medical justification for current disability (either total or partial).

During the course of this examination, it may be medically determined that additional testing may be warranted. Therefore, please allow additional time for these studies. It would be helpful if you bring current medical documentation. Failure to report for this examination may be cause for disciplinary action.

7 Limited Duty Program Management

Overview

This chapter addresses limited duty provided to an employee who has physical limitations identified by a qualified treating physician stemming from an on-the-job injury or illness. The limited duty program is designed to accommodate injured employees who are temporarily unable to perform their regular functions.

Effective utilization and management of limited duty assignments benefits the USPS as well as the injured employee. These assignments permit employees to work within their medically prescribed physical restrictions. Limited duty often accelerates recuperation as employees generally recuperate faster if they are as active as possible. Moreover, limited duty employees retain the discipline of going to work every day, continue their contribution to the USPS, and are regarded as productive workers. Finally, since limited duty employees work at the job site, they are often motivated to return to their regular job as soon as possible rather than continue doing a lesser skilled limited duty assignment. Early return to the regular job is the ultimate objective of the limited duty program.

Limited duty is an integral aspect of injury compensation program administration and, if managed effectively, makes a significant contribution to cost containment and control initiatives.

Procedures

Limited Duty Program

When a limited duty program is needed...

Obligation: Assigning Employees to Limited Duty Positions

The USPS has legal responsibilities to employees with job-related disabilities under OPM regulations. Specifically, with respect to employees who partially recover from a compensable injury, the USPS must make every effort to assign the employee to limited duty consistent with the employee's medically defined work limitation tolerance. The USPS, in assigning employees to limited duty, must minimize any adverse or disruptive impact on the employee (ELM 546.141).

7-1 Establishing an Informal Limited Duty Program – ICCO

- Establish a standard procedure that accomplishes the following:
 - Requires all injured employees who are partially disabled to report to their regular supervisor.
 - Directs supervisors to find appropriate duty for the employee well within the work limitations imposed by the attending physician, and notify the ICCO accordingly.
 - Requires IC personnel to assist the supervisor in finding a suitable assignment, if the supervisor's initial response is that he or she does not have any work that the injured employee can do, by doing the following:
 - Review the work restrictions with the supervisor to determine the frequency and duration of physical tasks so as to define the physical requirements and determine exactly what the injured employee can do.
 - If the supervisor is unable to usefully employ an injured employee within his or her assigned work station, broaden the search by following the USPS priority assignment policy and obtain assignment approval from the next appropriate level of management (see Exhibit 7.1, Limited Duty Assignment Guidelines).

7-2 Establishing a Formal Limited Duty Program – ICCO

Formal and Informal Limited Duty Programs

A formal program differs from an informal one in that it uses a special job bank set up by the ICCO and appropriate managers. This special bank consists of limited duty tasks that are filled only by injured employees. Normally, this approach is most effective in large installations.

- Establish a special bank of limited duty tasks to be filled only by injured employees by doing the following:
 - Analyze the types and numbers of injured employees to determine the most common work restrictions.
 - Identify existing tasks that meet the most common work restrictions.
 - Create limited duty assignments according to the guidelines (see Exhibit 7.1, Limited Duty Assignment Guidelines).
- Ensure that each limited duty assignment chosen for the job bank:
 - Has clearly specified physical requirements to enable IC personnel to determine whether the proposed limited duty assignments are safely within the imposed work restrictions established by the treating physician.
 - Has a range of difficulty so that as the injured employee’s medical condition improves, the physical demands of the assignment may be gradually increased. Increased physical demand helps promote recovery.
 - Is responsive to USPS guidelines (see Exhibit 7.1, Limited Duty Assignment Guidelines).

7-3 Establishing an Effective Tracking System – ICCO

- Input into HRIS (or prepare a list of, if necessary) all employees on limited duty, and carry out the following:
 - Generate a status report every accounting period on limited duty employees and provide copies to all functional managers.
 - Require each employee to provide periodic updated medical reports of duty status.
 - Establish call-up dates to monitor the duration of the limited duty status and to coincide with the next scheduled medical evaluation.
 - Review medical documentation with the OHNA or USPS contract medical provider.
 - When the period of limited duty appears to be excessive for the nature or type of injury, or medical documentation lacks supporting rationale, arrange for an FFD. Before the FFD, coordinate with the OHNA or the contract medical provider to discuss the prognosis with the treating physician. Check for additional medical information in OWCP file.
 - If the physician conducting the FFD finds the employee capable of returning to regular duty, request the area medical director or associate area medical director to contact the employee's treating physician and discuss the FFD findings. Forward the FFD findings to OWCP district office with a cover letter.

SEE Chapter 6, Medical Management.

Limited Duty Assignments

When an employee is able to return to work in a limited capacity...

Obligation: Requirement for Written Job Offers

FECA requires that the USPS notify the employee immediately of the description of the job and its physical requirements and of the date the job will be available. To facilitate early return to work, the USPS may contact the employee by telephone, but must provide written confirmation of the job's availability as soon as possible thereafter. (20 CFR (b) (1) and (d) (1) (2)) (ELM 546.62)

7-4 Offering a Limited Duty Assignment – ICCO

- If medical documentation indicates the employee is capable of performing limited duty, do the following:
 - Identify a limited duty assignment (see Exhibit 7.1, Limited Duty Assignment Guidelines).
 - Ensure that the limited duty assignment is consistent with medically prescribed physical restrictions. Consult with the OHNA, contract physician, or the treating physician if you have any doubts (see Exhibit 6.1, Sample Letter: Limited Duty Availability).
- Offer a limited duty job assignment in writing and include the following information:
 - A description of the duties to be performed.
 - The specific physical requirements of the position and any special demands of the workload or unusual working conditions.
 - The organizational and geographical location of the job.
 - The date on which the job will first be available.

If the employee is at the work site and has not lost work time beyond the date of the injury, extend the offer immediately. If the employee is not currently working, initially offer the job by telephone and follow up with a written job offer (see Exhibit 7.4, Sample Letter: Limited Duty Assignments).

7-5 Following Up After the Limited Duty Assignment Is Offered – ICCO

- If the job offer is accepted:
 - Submit the job offer along with the employee’s written acceptance to OWCP.
 - Follow up with the employee to confirm that he or she has returned to duty.
 - Submit CA-3, Report of Termination of Disability and/or Payment, to OWCP if there have been periods of disability.
- If the job offer is declined:
 - Submit the job offer and declination with a cover letter to OWCP for adjudication.
 - Monitor the case to ensure that OWCP renders a decision as to the suitability of the limited duty job offer and takes appropriate action to terminate or reduce the compensation or COP if applicable (see Exhibit 7.5a, Sample Letter: Limited Duty Job Offer, and Exhibit 7.5b, Modified Distribution Clerk Job Description).
- Manage the limited duty assignment to ensure that the employee returns to his or her regular duty assignment at the earliest possible date.

Exhibit 7.1

Limited Duty Assignment GuidelinesBasic Considerations

The USPS should minimize any adverse or disruptive impact on the employee in assigning limited duty. (ELM 546.141)

Consider the following when making limited duty assignments:

- Match the limited duty job as closely as possible to the regular job. Do not make the limited duty job more desirable than the employee's regular job.
- The limited duty work environment should be similar to that of the regular job. If the limited duty environment is more attractive, it may seem like a reward. If the environment is less attractive, it may seem like a punishment.
- The limited duty job should have similar pay. To put an injured employee in a job that pays more than the regular job creates a problem, especially if the employee performs well. To put an injured employee in a lower paying job (i.e., a job that requires less skill) makes poor use of resources.
- Little or no training should be required. Don't expect supervisors to train someone in a skilled assignment when they know he or she will only be there a short time.
- The assignment should result in a tangible product and should not be a "make work" job.
- The assignment should be a function where temporary additional help is useful. This will help ensure that injured employees make a useful contribution to the organization.

Priority for Assignment

Whenever possible, assign qualified employees to limited duty in their regular craft, during regular tour of duty, and in their regular work facility.

Prioritize the limited duty assignment in the following manner:

- To the extent that there is adequate work available within the employee's work limitation tolerances, within the employee's craft, in the work facility to which the employee is regularly assigned, and during the hours when the employee regularly works, that work constitutes the limited duty to which the employee is assigned.
- If adequate duties are not available within the employee's work limitation tolerances in the craft and work facility to which the employee is regularly assigned within the employee's regular hours of duty, other work may be assigned within that facility.
- If adequate work is not available at the facility within the employee's regular hours of duty, work outside the employee's regular schedule may be assigned as limited duty. However, all reasonable efforts must be made to assign the employee to limited duty within the employee's craft and to keep the hours of limited duty as close as possible to the employee's regular schedule.
- An employee may be assigned limited duty outside of the work facility to which the employee is normally assigned only if there is not adequate work available within the employee's work limitation tolerances at the employee's facility. In such instances, every effort must be made to assign the employee to work within the employee's craft within the employee's regular schedule and as near as possible to the regular work facility to which the employee is normally assigned.

If it is necessary to change any of the elements to meet the employee's physical limitations or to provide the employee with suitable work, the elements must be changed in this specific order:

Priority of Choice	Regular Craft	Regular Tour	Regular Facility
1st	Within	Within	Within
2nd	Outside	Within	Within
3rd	Within	Outside	Within
4th	Outside	Outside	Within
5th	Within	Within	Outside
6th	Outside	Within	Outside
7th	Within	Outside	Outside
8th	Outside	Outside	Outside

Questions and Answers About Limited Duty

- Q. What are the differences between limited duty and light duty?
- A. Limited duty is provided to employees who have partial disabilities which stem from a job-related injury or illness.
- Limited duty does not have to be requested, rather it is made available and offered.
- Limited duty comes under the purview of FECA 5 U.S.C. 8101, et. seq.
- Normally, light duty is provided to employees who have partial disabilities from non-job-related medical conditions.
- Light duty must be requested in writing.
- Light duty comes under the purview of Article XIII of the National Agreement (including but not limited to American Postal Workers Union (APWU) and National Association of Letter Carriers (NALC).)
- Q. If a full-time employee's schedule is changed as a result of being placed in a limited duty assignment, is such employee entitled to out-of-schedule premium pay?
- A. No. Exceptions to the obligation to pay "out-of-schedule premium" to full-time employees for work performed outside of schedule include situations in which the employee's schedule is temporarily changed for a limited duty assignment as required by FECA, as amended (Handbook F-21, Time and Attendance, 232.23b).
- Q. If an eligible employee who is regularly assigned to a night tour of duty is rescheduled to limited duty on the day tour, is the employee entitled to receive an equivalent amount of night differential when rescheduled to day work?
- A. Yes. COP and compensation payments both include night differential. Thus, if the employee is not compensated for the loss in salary (i.e., night differential), the employee would be entitled to COP (if otherwise eligible) or compensation. If the employee is entitled to COP, night differential can be paid as COP and count as a "COP day," even though the employee works 8 hours of limited duty.
- Q. If a limited duty employee is found to have permanent partial disabilities resulting from a job injury, can the limited duty assignment be made permanent?
- A. No. All limited duty assignments are temporary. If medical documentation confirms that an employee has permanent physical restrictions, the employee must be officially reassigned, i.e., a Form 50, Notification of Personnel Action, is initiated to show a rehabilitation program classification (see Chapter 11, Rehabilitation Program).
- Q. To what labor distribution code (LDC) or operation should limited duty hours be charged?
- A. Generally, limited duty hours are charged to LDC 68, operation 959.
- Q. Is it mandatory to charge limited duty hours to LDC 68, operation 959?
- A. No. LDC 68 is used to record the hours of all employees who are temporarily assigned to a modified position, either part-time or full-time, in order to accommodate medical restrictions imposed as a result of a job-related injury or illness. This does not include employees who are essentially performing their regularly assigned duties with minor modifications (Handbook F-2, Functional Management).
- Q. Can employees on limited duty work overtime?
- A. Yes. An employee can work overtime so long as overtime work is not medically contraindicated. However, under such circumstances, overtime work should be approached with caution.

- Q. How many hours of limited duty should be granted a part-time flexible employee who normally does not work a 40-hour workweek?
- A. Whenever possible, a part-time flexible employee should be granted the number of limited duty hours that are equivalent to the average of the employee's weekly workhours for the 1-year period immediately preceding the date of injury, excluding overtime. (20 CFR 10.205b)
- Q. How many hours of limited duty should be granted a part-time flexible employee who has been employed less than a year?
- A. Whenever possible, an employee should be granted the number of limited duty hours that are equivalent to the average of the employee's weekly workhours during the period of appointment, excluding overtime. (20 CFR 10.205c)

8 Controversion and Challenge

Overview

This chapter addresses situations in which the USPS identifies information in the course of processing a claim that leads it to question the validity of the injury or resulting disability. If, after a thorough review and investigation, this information leads to allegations that are supported by specific factual evidence, and such evidence is relevant to the basic claim requirements, the USPS is obligated to dispute either the entire claim or any element of it by one or both of the following:

- Controversion, i.e., disputing the entitlement of COP for a traumatic injury.
- Challenge, i.e., disputing any aspect of a claim except COP entitlement or disputing the entire claim for either a traumatic injury, occupational disease or illness, or survivor benefits.

The five basic conditions that must be met for a claim to be compensable under FECA are also discussed. The following issues must be considered:

- The claim must be filed within the statutory time limits.
- The injured employee or decedent must be or have been an employee of the USPS at the time of injury or exposure, regardless of the length of time on the job or the type of position held (including casual and transitional).
- The employee or decedent must have sustained an injury as defined in FECA.
- The injury, illness, or death must have resulted from an incident or circumstance occurring while the employee was performing official duties.
- The injury, disability, or death must have been caused by conditions of employment.

The responsibility for satisfying these five conditions rests with the claimant. Once the claimant has made a prima facie case (at first appearance, before investigation), OWCP has the responsibility of making a decision on the basis of evidence presented, or notifying the claimant of what additional information is needed. If the claim has already been accepted and benefits are being paid, OWCP must prove that payments should not continue. (20 CFR 10.110.)

Because the claimant needs only to present a prima facie case, the task of further developing the case rests with OWCP. The mere fact that an employee fails to respond to an OWCP request for further information is not, in itself, cause for denial. Depending on the particular circumstances involved, OWCP claims examiner takes additional measures, including writing directly to physicians and witnesses, scheduling medical examinations, making conference calls, etc. It is essential that the circumstances surrounding a claim be investigated as soon as possible so that the ICCO's position may be presented in an accurate, professional, and timely manner.

Procedures

Basis for Controversion or Challenge

When the USPS decides there is reason to controvert or challenge a claim...

8-1 Establishing a Basis for Controversion or Challenge – ICCO

Obligation: Recognizing the Basis for Controversion or Challenge

It is the responsibility of the ICCO to controvert or challenge a claim if any of the basic requirements or conditions are not met. A case will not be considered compensable by OWCP if it fails to meet any of the five basic requirements or considerations.

- When reviewing a claim for possible controversion or challenge, determine if the five basic conditions (see Exhibit 4.6, Conditions for Compensation of Claims) have been met:
 - The claim must first satisfy the statutory time requirements of FECA.
 - The injured or deceased individual must be an “employee” within the meaning of the law.
 - The employee must in fact have sustained an injury or disease.
 - The employee must have been in the performance of duty when the injury or illness was sustained.
 - There must be a causal relationship between the condition claimed and the injury or disease sustained.

8-2 Determining If the Entire Claim, or a Portion Thereof, Should Be Controverted or Challenged – ICCO

- Determine if the entire claim, or a portion thereof, should be controverted or challenged:
 - Challenge the entire claim, controverting COP if necessary, when there is reason to believe that the employee is not entitled to any of the benefits he or she is claiming. (ELM 545.51 and ELM 545.52)
 - Example: A claim filed as a traumatic injury is clearly one which is better classified as an occupational disease or illness. In this case, challenge the entire CA-1. Advise the employee to file a CA-2, Notice of Occupational Disease and Claim for Compensation.
 - Challenge any portion of a claim, controverting COP if necessary (see Exhibit 4.16, Conditions for Continuation of Pay), when there is evidence that the employee is not entitled to specific benefits under FECA.

Example: Medical evidence supports 2 days of disability but the employee takes 4 days. Controvert the last 2 days of COP and withhold COP the last 2 days. (20 CFR 10.204(a)(2))

Example: An employee is on OWCP’s periodic rolls. After 2 years of collecting compensation, medical evidence indicates that the disability is no longer related to employment factors. Challenge the continued compensation payments.

SEE Exhibit 4.16, Conditions for Continuation of Pay.

Temporary USPS Assignments and COP

When casual employees or other employees with specific terms of employment are injured, COP is provided only through the end of their appointments (see Chapter 13, Timekeeping and Accounting).

Examples:

- If a casual employee is hired for 89 days and is injured on the 84th day, COP is paid only through the 89th day. However, if disability continues beyond the 89th day, CA-7 is initiated 5 working days before the termination of the COP.
- If an employee is hired for an appointment not to exceed 89 days and on the 40th day into the appointment the appointment is changed to 60 days because of lack of work, and then an injury occurs on the 44th day of the appointment, COP is paid through the 60th day.

◇ In other questionable cases not described above, contact the designated area HR analyst for guidance in determining whether to withhold or terminate COP.

Controversion or Challenge

When controverting or challenging a claim...

8-3 Preparing the Controversion and Challenge Package — ICCO

Obligation: Preparing the Controversion and Challenge Package

The controversion and challenge package must be thoroughly documented and tailored to the facts of each case. If a written explanation of the dispute is not submitted by the USPS, OWCP may accept the employee's report of injury as factual.

Importance of the Claim Package

The importance of a carefully prepared and well-documented claim package cannot be overemphasized.

- If the claim form has not already been submitted, review it carefully for completeness and accuracy in preparation for submittal. If CA-1 is used, clearly mark item 35 and provide an explanation for the controversion provided.
Do not delay submitting the claim pending collection of data to support a controversion or challenge.
- ◇ Early and proper identification of controverted or challenged claims is essential to permit OWCP to give these claims priority in processing, and to avoid the possibility of substantial or erroneous payment of COP or compensation benefits.
SEE Chapter 4, Claims Management.
- Prepare exhibits that contain the factual information necessary to support the controversion or challenge action. Arrange the exhibits in chronological sequence. Use the following examples as exhibit possibilities:
 - Witness statements, both positive and negative. You may need to include those statements from witnesses, who, although working in the immediate vicinity of the alleged accident, had no knowledge of it.
 - Supervisor's statement.
 - Medical evidence.
 - Diagrams and maps.
 - Photographs.
 - Time and attendance records.
 - Other documents obtained by investigation.
 - Investigative memorandum, i.e., results of the investigation conducted by the Inspection Service.
 - Results of environmental studies conducted by safety personnel.
- Prepare a cover letter, the most important part of the package. Keep the letter brief and construct it to include the following elements:
 - An introduction that contains the following information:
 - Claimant identification.
 - Nature of the claim.

- A statement that the claim, or portion of the claim, is being controverted or challenged.
- Presentation of evidence including the following:
 - Documented evidence, attached as exhibits.
 - Factual information for which supporting documentation may not be available (e.g., knowledge of outside employment). Do not use hearsay information. All evidence must be from credible sources, be complete, and be clear. Use HRIS call-up to track receipt of requested information.
- A simple summary in the last paragraph referring to the FECA statute and containing statements of the following:
 - What is being controverted and why.
 - What is being included as supporting references and attachments.
 - What action is being requested.

Further References to Use in the Cover Letter

In addition to acquired evidence, the following may be used to further support the ICCO position:

- Reference to precedent-setting ECAB decisions.
 - It is essential, however, to ensure that the ECAB decision is relevant to the case. Caution must be used when comparing a seemingly similar situation. The surrounding circumstances must be considered when determining the applicability of an ECAB decision. ECAB decisions are to be referenced by name and number, i.e., John Smith, 10 ECAB 921. There is no need to attach a copy.
 - Review of content and criteria set forth in applicable FECA PM.
 - This review can be extremely helpful. Not only does this assist in familiarizing ICCO personnel with FECA terminology, but it provides insight into the rationale used by OWCP when adjudicating the claim.

8-4 Submitting the Controversion or Challenge Package to OWCP – ICCO

- Submit the package as soon as possible, updating HRIS and filing a copy of the package in the case file.

8-5 Notifying the Employee of Controversion or Challenge — ICCO

- Notify the employee, in writing, that his or her claim is being controverted or challenged (see Exhibit 8.5, Sample Letter: Employee's Notice of Controverted or Challenged Claim).

Disposition by OWCP

When OWCP renders a decision...

8-6 Responding to OWCP's Formal Decision – ICCO

Obligation: Noting OWCP's Pretermination Notice

When evidence of record shows that compensation benefits should be terminated or reduced, the claimant will, in most cases, be issued a written notice of the proposed action and be given the opportunity to submit relevant evidence or argument. A pretermination notice will be provided in virtually all cases where the proposed action is based upon medical or other evidence obtained by OWCP. Such notice is also required in all cases where full periodic payments may be terminated, including cases on the short-term roll, except when termination is based on the following:

- Death of the claimant.
 - Return to work.
 - Suspension or forfeiture of compensation.

Notice of proposed reduction or termination of compensation benefits does not constitute a formal decision. Therefore, no USPS action may be initiated based on this notice. (See FECA PM 2-1400 for further information.)

OWCP's Formal Decision

OWCP's decision will be issued as either a compensation order or letter of denial with a copy to the USPS.

- When the controversion or challenge is upheld, (i.e., compensation benefits are denied), do the following:
 - Initiate the following administrative action:
 - Send the Employee's Notice of Claim Denial (see Exhibit 8.6) to the employee initiating claim recovery of benefits.
 - If medically appropriate, direct the employee back to work.
 - Ensure that the employee has received his or her appeal rights in the letter from OWCP and monitor any appeal activity.
 - Update HRIS and use HRIS call-up to track follow-up actions.
- When controversion or challenge is denied by OWCP, i.e., entitlement to compensation benefits is upheld, expect notification by OWCP explaining the rationale for denying the challenge and upholding the claim.
- If the ICCO disagrees with OWCP's decision and such disagreement is based on valid reasons, discuss the case by telephone with the area HR analyst. If the area HR analyst agrees, forward the case to the area HR analyst's office for resubmission to OWCP.

Appeals

When an employee wishes to appeal OWCP's decision...

Obligation: Recognizing OWCP Final Authority

The final authority in OWCP in the determination of a claim is vested in the director. The decision contains findings of fact and a statement of reasons. A copy of the decision, together with information as to the right to a hearing, to a reconsideration, and to an appeal to the Employees' Compensation Appeals Board, will be mailed to the claimant's last known address. A copy will also be sent to the USPS.

8-7 Ensuring That the Employee Is Informed of His or Her Rights and Obligations – ICCO

- When reviewing compensation orders or letters of denial, ensure that the employee receives the pertinent appeal rights from OWCP according to the circumstances of the case and advise him or her of the leave options available (see Exhibit 8.6). The USPS has no appeal rights under FECA.

Employee's Appeal Rights and Scheduling a Hearing

Reconsideration. In order to support a request for reconsideration, new evidence or argument for error in fact or law must be submitted within 1 year from date of issuance of OWCP district office decision. This time requirement applies only to decisions rendered on or after June 1, 1987. There is no time limitation for decisions made before this date.

Any request not accompanied by such new evidence will be denied as insufficient prima facie evidence.

Applications for reconsiderations are processed at OWCP district office as outlined in FECA PM 2-1602.

Before reaching a decision, OWCP will provide the USPS with copies of any pertinent new evidence submitted by the claimant and will be allowed 15 days for review and comment. However, new medical evidence will not be provided since it is not considered pertinent for review and comment by the employing agency. OWCP has sole responsibility for evaluating medical evidence.

Hearing. An employee may request a hearing in any case where the injury or death occurred after July 4, 1986. The hearing must be requested before any reconsideration is undertaken. New evidence may be submitted in connection with a hearing, but it is not required. (Section 5 U.S.C. 8124)

In place of an oral hearing, a claimant may request a review of the written record. Such a review would not involve attendance by the claimant. As with the oral hearing, the claimant may submit any evidence or argument deemed relevant.

As with the reconsideration process, the USPS will be provided with copies of pertinent documentation submitted by the employee and allowed 15 days for review and comment.

Applications for hearings and reviews should be mailed within 30 days of issuance of OWCP district office's decision. They are processed by the Branch of Hearings and Review, OWCP National Office, as outlined in FECA PM 2-1601.

Review by ECAB. ECAB will not consider new evidence; therefore, any appeal to this body will proceed on the basis of the record as it stands at the time OWCP decision was made.

Requests for appeal should be filed within 90 days from the date of OWCP district office decision for employees in the U.S. or Canada (180 days for employees residing outside the U.S. or Canada); however, ECAB may extend the period for filing up to 1 year if good cause is shown for the delay.

ECAB is a separate entity from OWCP within DOL. ECAB processes review applications as outlined in FECA PM 2-1603.

.....

Scheduling a Hearing

OWCP hearing representative will mail a notice to the employee or the employee's representative, and to the USPS, specifying the date, time, and place for the hearing at least 15 days before the scheduled hearing date. With the exception of unusual circumstances, hearings will be scheduled within 100 miles of the claimant's home. (The USPS will receive a separate notice advising of its right to have a representative attend the hearing and obtain a copy of the hearing transcript.)

The employee may withdraw the request for a hearing at any time before the hearing by written notice, or on the record at the hearing itself. The request for postponement must be in writing, must be received by the Branch of Hearings and Review at least 3 days before the date of the scheduled hearing, and must show good cause for postponement.

If the employee fails to appear at a scheduled hearing, he or she may request that another hearing be scheduled, but must do so within 10 days after the date set for the hearing.

8-8 Reviewing the Case and Making the Appropriate Arrangements — senior IC specialist

- When notice of a hearing is received, review the case to determine whether attendance at the hearing is necessary.
- ◇ The USPS need not send a representative in every case but should send a representative to those hearings that involve fact of injury, performance of duty, or special interest.
- Complete OWCP hearing notice that asks if the USPS will send a representative to the hearing and if the USPS wishes to receive a copy of the hearing transcript.
- ◇ Always request a copy of the transcript. You may also need to request a copy, in writing, at the hearing.
- Select a USPS representative to attend the hearing, e.g., the senior IC specialist, the HR specialist handling the case, a USPS attorney, etc. Make the necessary arrangements and inform the representative that he or she is to attend the hearing as an observer without the right to question or participate in any manner unless the claimant or the hearing representative specifically requests information from the USPS.
- Ensure that the USPS representative reviews and is thoroughly familiar with, the claimant's OWCP case and related grievances, i.e., EEO complaints and Merit Systems Protection Board actions.
- Confirm the day before the scheduled hearing and by telephone that the hearing is still planned.

8-9 Disputing the Transcript Findings – ICCO

- When the hearing transcript is received, thoroughly review all the facts presented in the transcript, make written notations where conflicts exist, and compile any additional documentation that would substantiate the USPS position.
- Prepare a letter to OWCP hearing representative citing the areas in dispute with supporting documentation attached. List the disputed areas in sequence as they appear in the transcript and identify them by page number and paragraph. Submit this letter to OWCP hearing representative within 15 days following the release of the transcript.
If a written explanation of the dispute is not submitted, OWCP may accept the employee’s report of injury as factual.
- Send a copy of the response to the claimant or the claimant’s authorized representative.
- ◇ If cases involve complex issues that warrant legal analysis or further interpretation of FECA or USPS policies, refer to the chief field counsel and the designated area HR analyst for assistance and guidance.

The Final Decision

If the OWCP hearing representative who is evaluating the evidence and testimony, needs additional case development, he or she will remand the case back to the OWCP district office.

When all evidence and testimony are evaluated, OWCP hearing representative will issue a decision that affirms, reverses, remands, or modifies OWCP district office’s decision.

8-10 Responding to the Appeal Decision – ICCO

- If the decision is adverse to the claimant, advise the employee of his or her appeal rights again.
- If a new OWCP decision is received, take the same steps described in 8.6, Responding to OWCP's Formal Decision.

File No: ___[OWCP case number]_____

Dear ___[name]___:

This is in reference to ___[name]___ who was injured on ___[date]___ when he/she was involved in a motor vehicle accident. ___[name]___ filed a CA-1 on ___[date]___ (Attachment 1). Since ___[name]___ is not an employee of the U.S. Postal Service, his/her entitlement to Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA) benefits is being challenged. Please be aware that continuation of pay has been withheld.

[Describe the circumstances, e.g.:

The U.S. Postal Service has a contract with Highway Services Trucking, Inc. to transport mail (Exhibit A — Copy of Contract). Mr. Stayman is employed by Highway Services Trucking, Inc. as a driver. Mr. Stayman is not on the U.S. Postal Service payroll nor does the U.S. Postal Service have any direct supervisory authority over him.]

In view of the above, it is requested that ___[name]___'s claim for benefits be denied since ___[he/she]___ is not a Postal Service employee under the purview of FECA.

Your attention to this matter is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Dear ___[name]___:

This letter is in reference to our employee, ___[name]___, ___[title]___, who filed a CA-2, Notice of Occupational Disease and Claim for Compensation, for stress on ___[date]___. The initial claim package was forwarded to your office on March 8, 1995. Based on an investigation into the circumstances surrounding this claim, we are challenging ___[name]___'s entitlement to Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA) benefits.

[Describe the circumstances, e.g.:

On January 22, 1995, Ms. Ruby filed an Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) complaint alleging she was being harassed by her supervisor. She cited the manner in which he spoke and assigned work to her as the source of the harassment. This allegation was investigated via the EEO process and a decision was rendered on February 28, 1995. The decision concluded that the preponderance of evidence failed to support a finding of harassment (Attachment 1 — Statement from senior EEO management representative at local office.)

On March 2, 1995, Ms. Ruby was seen by her treating physician, Dr. Samuel S. Stone. Ms. Ruby provided Dr. Stone with the same history of harassment as mentioned above. However, she failed to mention to Dr. Stone that the allegation of harassment was found to be unsupported upon investigation. Dr. Stone diagnosed Ms. Ruby with stress-related disability because of harassment in the workplace (Attachment 2 — copy of Dr. Stone's report). Ms. Ruby provided an inaccurate history regarding her allegation. She implied to both her treating physician and your office that the harassment was a matter of fact. However, the evidence of record failed to support this finding.]

In view of the above, it is our contention that ___[name]___ has not established fact of injury and ___[his/her]___ entire claim should, therefore, be denied.

This is in reference to our employee, ___[name]___, ___[title]___, who alleges that he/she was injured on ___[date]___. Circumstances surrounding his alleged ___[injury type]___ provide grounds for challenging the entire claim.

[Describe the circumstances, e.g.:

On the date of the alleged injury, Mr. Doe was observed reporting for work with a noticeable limp in his right leg (Exhibit A — Statement from Supervisor). Upon returning from his route, Mr. Doe reported that he had tripped over a sprinkler head at 202 Deerfield Lane and injured his right leg. He requested medical treatment and was issued a CA-16 to see Dr. Fawn.

After our safety specialist investigated the premises at 202 Deerfield Lane, he discovered that there was no sprinkler system at that address (Exhibit B — Statement from Safety Specialist). Further investigation revealed that a fellow employee named Mr. Buck had seen Mr. Doe, an avid tennis player, playing tennis at the local park on March 5, 1995, the evening before the alleged injury (Exhibit C — Statement from Mr. Buck).]

Based on our investigation, it appears that ___[name]___ did not sustain ___[his/her]___ injury while in the performance of duty. We request, therefore, that ___[name]___'s entire claim be disallowed.

Your timely adjudication of this claim would be greatly appreciated.

This is in reference to your injury claim filed on ___[date]___ for ___[nature of injury]___ . Under the Federal Employees' Compensation Act, the U.S. Postal Service may formally express opposition to a claim whenever doubt exists as to entitlement to benefits. In regard to your claim, this office disputes your entitlement to ___[benefit(s) being controverted or challenged]___ for the following reason(s): ___[reason(s) for dispute]___.

All pertinent documents have been sent to the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs (OWCP). However, you can submit the medical reports and/or related bills directly to OWCP. If you choose to send information directly to OWCP, please furnish a copy of the medical report to the Injury Compensation Control Office (ICCO) to ensure that appropriate and timely actions are taken with regard to the claim. For your convenience, you may continue to submit this information to the ICCO for prompt handling and submission to OWCP. Upon adjudication, OWCP will issue a final decision in writing.

[If applicable, add a statement regarding the withholding or termination of COP. Also add:] Please be aware that pay has been terminated pending OWCP's decision. In the interim, you may elect to use either sick or annual leave. If you do not have sufficient leave to cover your absence, you may request regular leave without pay (LWOP). Please advise your immediate supervisor of your election as soon as possible. If election is not made within 7 days from receipt of this letter, your period of disability related to this claim will be automatically charged to LWOP.

If you have any questions or wish to submit additional evidence, you may contact the ICCO at ___[telephone number]___.

9 Fraud and Abuse

Overview

This chapter identifies the criteria needed to identify suspected fraud and abuse cases for further investigation by the Inspection Service and outlines procedures for referring cases to the Postal Inspection Service. The investigation of IC cases involving possible fraud and abuse comes under the jurisdiction of the Inspection Service. The objective of the Inspection Service is to assist ICCO personnel in reducing compensation costs resulting from fraudulent claims and to gather information leading to the removal of dishonest employees from the USPS.

Although the terms fraud and abuse are related, they are not interchangeable.

Fraud is an intentional deceptive act, or series of acts, committed by an individual with the intent to cause the USPS or OWCP to grant benefits that would not normally be provided under FECA, for example, a faked injury or concealment of facts indicating that an injury occurred off duty. Abuse is excessive, extravagant, or improper use of FECA in a manner contrary to its legal use in order to acquire additional benefits for personal gain, for example, prolonging the length of the recovery period needed for a job-related injury.

The key difference between fraud and abuse is intent. When employees apply for or receive FECA benefits to which they are not entitled, they are abusing FECA. This abuse may occur because the employees are ignorant of the law and its provisions or because they genuinely feel that they are entitled to those benefits. When employees deliberately apply for FECA benefits that they know they are not entitled to, they are committing fraud. Abuse is not always fraud, but fraud is always abuse. Since the inception of Inspection Service investigations into FECA fraud and abuse, several distinct types of fraud and abuse have been identified. Some of the types identified are the following:

- Concealing, with intent to defraud, prior injuries or physical impairment when hired.
- Reporting an on-the-job injury when the injury occurred off the job.
- Fabricating an injury or falsifying the extent or seriousness of the real injury.
- Engaging in and concealing outside employment while receiving compensation payments.
- Regularly engaging in activities that are inconsistent with the alleged injury or medical restrictions.
- Failing to return to work after recovering from an injury.
- Continuing to accept compensation when no longer disabled, or no longer an employee of the USPS, or without making any effort to return to work.

Procedures

Fraud and Abuse

When fraud or abuse is suspected...

Obligation: Recognizing the Penalty for Conviction of Fraudulent Workers' Compensation Claim

An individual convicted of a violation of 18 U.S.C. 1920, as amended, or of any other fraud related to the application for or receipt of benefits under Subchapter I or III of Chapter 81 of Title 5, forfeits, as of the date of the conviction, all entitlement to any prospective benefits provided by Subchapter I or III for any injury occurring on or before the date of conviction. Such a forfeiture of benefits is in addition to any action the Secretary may take under section 8106 or 8129 of title 5, United States Code.

If an individual has one or more dependents as defined under section 8110(a), the Secretary of Labor may, during the period of incarceration, pay to such dependents a percentage of the benefits that would have been payable to such individual computed according to the percentages set forth in section 8133(a)(1) through (5).

9-1 Determining If Fraud or Abuse Exists – supervisor

- To determine whether fraud or abuse may exist, consider the following warning signals:
 - There are no witnesses to the accident (if there were witnesses, consider their reliability), and the circumstances surrounding the injury are suspect.
 - The injury cannot have logically happened as described.
 - The employee sustains a minor accident which resulted in a disabling soft tissue injury with an inconsistent length of disability.
 - The injury is not reported on the day of occurrence.
 - The employee has a history of leave abuse or has previously filed questionable claims.
 - The injury is reported when disciplinary action is pending or leave of any type is denied.
 - The injury occurs shortly before an employee's defined termination date.
 - The employee is known to have recently engaged in outside activities (sports or other work) that could cause similar injury inconsistent with the employee's medical restrictions.
 - The employee has a confrontation with his or her supervisor before the accident.
 - The treating physician handles multiple claims and always indicates disability.

9-2 Responding to a Possible Case of Fraud or Abuse – supervisor

Obligation: Submitting Information to OWCP

The USPS has the responsibility to submit to OWCP, at any time, all relevant and probative factual and medical evidence in its possession or evidence that it may acquire through investigation or other means.

- When it appears that fraud or abuse has occurred, do the following:
 - Immediately notify the ICCO.
 - Document all pertinent information.
 - Forward all documentation to the ICCO.

9-3 Responding to Notification of Possible Fraud or Abuse – ICCO

- Using the Fraud and Abuse Referral Checklist (see Exhibit 9.3a) as a guide, determine if the case should be forwarded to the Inspection Service as follows:
 - If one or more of the items in Section A are checked, refer the case to the Inspection Service.
 - If one or more of the items in Section B are checked, consider referring the case to the Inspection Service; however, evaluate each case on an individual basis. Refer a case only when there is strong probable cause to believe fraud or abuse is present.
- If appropriate, refer the case to the Inspection Service. Prepare a referral memorandum to be signed by the senior IC specialist and include all pertinent documentation (see Exhibit 9.3b, Sample Letter: Referral Memorandum).
- In instances where evidence is likely to be moved or destroyed, or where emergency attention is indicated, immediately contact the Inspection Service by telephone or in person. Follow up the contact, in writing, as indicated above.
- Forward the initial claims package to OWCP within the established time frame, regardless of whether the case is referred to the Inspection Service.
- Do not include the referral when submitting the claim package because at this stage it has not yet been determined if an investigation by the Inspection Service is warranted.
- ◇ Referral methods may vary according to local agreements between the ICCO and Inspection Service units.
- Enter the referral information into a tracking system.
- Maintain contact with Inspection Service personnel. They will determine if the case is accepted for investigation (jacketed) or declined.
 - If the case is jacketed, the Inspection Service will conduct an investigation.
 - If a preliminary review indicates that an additional investigation would be unproductive, the Inspection Service will return the file to the ICCO with an explanation.
- Prepare a controversion or challenge package if the Inspection Service's investigation supports the existence of fraud or abuse.
- Upon completion of the investigation, the Inspection Service will issue an investigative memorandum to the installation head and a copy to the ICCO containing information that will assist the ICCO in deciding the course of action to be taken.

SEE Chapter 8, Controversion and Challenge.

Inspection Service Reward Program

In accordance with 39 CFR 233, the Inspection Service pays rewards for information leading to the detection of persons or firms who obtain or seek to obtain money, property, or services from the USPS through any fraudulent activity, including the use of false or fraudulent claims or statements, or who successfully reduce or seek to reduce the amount of money owed to the USPS through fraud.

Rewards are payable only from the proceeds recovered through criminal, civil, or administrative action. The amount paid is determined at the discretion of the Chief Postal Inspector, but will not exceed one-half of the amount recovered. Private citizens and postal employees, except postal inspectors and Law Department employees, are eligible to receive rewards. However, these individuals must initiate action for payment of a reward because it is unlawful for any government employee to solicit or suggest the filing of a claim against the government. See Exhibit 9.3a, Fraud and Abuse Referral Checklist, and Form 557, Application for Reward, in Appendix D, Forms.

9-4 Monitoring Fraud and Abuse Cases — senior IC specialist

- At quarterly intervals, review the status of all referrals with the postal inspector assigned to handle local IC matters. Use HRIS call-up dates to schedule review dates and the HRIS-generated pending referrals report to assist in the actual review.

10 Third Party Liability

Overview

When a third party a person or organization other than the USPS or another U.S. agency is responsible for a job-related injury or illness for which an employee receives benefits under FECA, either DOL or the USPS may want to attempt to recover damages from the third party or the insurer.

Damages in this case means (1) what DOL is entitled to for wage compensation and medical and related benefits paid out and (2) what the employee is entitled to for pain, suffering, damage to property, and out-of-pocket expenses not covered by FECA benefits. Although USPS COP is not recoverable, the USPS gains from the recovery of DOL funds because the USPS liability to DOL is reduced by the amount recovered. To serve the interests of the USPS, ICCO personnel need to do these things:

1. Identify potential third party cases and provide the initial investigation and documentation.
2. Assess the feasibility of attempting to recover damages by considering whether the third party is clearly at fault, how rapid recovery might be, and whether the payoff would be large enough to warrant the considerable effort involved.
3. If DOL has authority to pursue recovery (in cases of job-related illness and some job-related injury), identify the case for DOL, supply necessary documentation, request DOL to pursue the claim, and then monitor the case.
4. If the USPS has authority to pursue recovery, find out whether the employee will attempt to do this on his or her own behalf, with or without the aid of an attorney, or whether the employee will assign this task to the USPS. You will not want to accept assignment, of course, if you have determined that pursuit is not feasible. If it is feasible, continue this pursuit under the guidance of the area HR IC analyst.
5. Once a settlement is reached, make sure that settlement funds are disbursed properly between the employee and DOL.
6. Once the settlement funds are disbursed, make sure that OWCP credits the appropriate payment amount to the USPS.

Procedures

Potential Third Party Case

When a third party is involved in a job-related injury or illness...

10-1 Recognizing a Potential Third Party Case – ICCO

- Review CA-1 especially item 29 and the description of the accident in the case of traumatic injury, CA-2 in the case of occupational illness, or CA-5 or 5b in the case of death to determine if a third party is involved and whether that third party could be responsible for the injury, illness, or death and thus liable for the damages.

Common Circumstances for a Third Party Claim

Although a third party recovery case can arise from many circumstances in which a third party's act or failure to act results in the injury or death of an employee, the most common circumstances include, but are not limited to, these:

- Automobile accidents.
 - Animal attacks.
 - Tripping, slipping, and falling on sidewalks, steps, and other portions of nonfederal property.
 - Defective machinery, automobiles, and equipment.
 - Physical attacks and other assaults.
 - Defects in leased postal premises.

10-2 Investigating the Potential Third Party Case – ICCO

- Coordinate an investigation of the incident resulting in injury or the circumstances of illness, doing the following:
 - Review Form 1769, Accident Report, and CA-1, CA-2, CA-5, or CA-5b to determine if they are adequate to provide needed information and determine third party liability.
 - If necessary and possible, obtain a detailed, written statement from:
 - The injured employee.
 - Any witness to the incident.
 - Any other person who may be acquainted with the facts or is identified as having pertinent information.
 - If necessary, obtain:
 - The name, address, and telephone number of the third party.
 - A detailed description of the place where the incident occurred and all the circumstances concerning the incident.
- If any further investigation of the incident has been made by the local police, USPS vehicle services, USPS safety personnel, the Inspection Service, or any other organization, obtain a copy of the reports and the investigative file.
SEE Handbook M-19, Accident Investigation Tort Claims, for information and procedures regarding investigative techniques and guides.

10-3 Notifying the Employee and the Third Party of a Potential Third Party Claim – ICCO

- When you have identified a potential third party case, provide the following to the injured employee and a copy to OWCP (updating HRIS):

- Notice to the Injured Employee of Potential Third Party Claim and OWCP Procedures (see Exhibit 10.3a for sample letter).
- Form 2562, Injury Compensation Program – Notice of Potential Third Party Claim.

Ask the employee to complete and return Form 2562 immediately.

- If you have not received the completed Form 2562 within 15 days, provide the injured employee (updating HRIS):
 - Second Request, Notice of Potential Third Party for Claim Form 2562 (see Exhibit 10.3b).
Follow up as necessary to secure the completed form.
- Immediately send to the potential third party (updating HRIS):
 - Notice to the Third Party of the Injury (see Exhibit 10.3c).

10-4 Determining Whether DOL or the USPS Has Authority to Pursue Recovery of Damages – ICCO

- Note whether DOL or the USPS is responsible for recovering damages.

Obligation: Noting Responsibility for Pursuing the Claim

FECA (5 U.S.C. 8131-2) provides that if an injury or death of an employee compensable under FECA is caused by a third party, DOL may require the employee receiving the benefits (or the beneficiary) to do one of the following:

1. Assign to the United States any right of action he or she may have (1) to force the third party to pay damages or (2) to share in money received in satisfaction of a liability claim.
2. Prosecute the action in his or her own name.

If the employee refuses to assign right of action to the United States or to prosecute an action in his or her own name when required to do so by the Secretary of Labor, he or she may be denied compensation by DOL.

An agreement between the director of OWCP, DOL, and the USPS (November 1980) provides that to more efficiently and effectively accomplish the stated purpose of FECA, OWCP agrees that the USPS may administratively pursue recovery of damages from the third party who is responsible for the injury sustained by a USPS employee in all cases of traumatic injury except in any of the following cases:

- a. When the injury results in the death of the employee.
- b. When the injury occurs outside of the United States or Canada.
- c. When the third party is a common carrier.
- d. When malpractice or product liability is involved.
- e. When injuries are sustained by more than one employee in the same incident (group injuries).

Pursuit of recovery of damages in those cases and in occupational illness cases is the responsibility of DOL.

DOL Authority

When DOL has authority to pursue recovery of damages...

10-5 Notifying OWCP of a Potential Third Party Claim – ICCO

- Send to OWCP, together with CA-1, CA-2, CA-5, or CA-5b (updating HRIS):
 - Notice to OWCP of Third Party Involvement (see Exhibit 10.5).
 - A copy of the completed Form 2562.
 - The investigation report and other file material needed to support the case.
- ◇ If the CA-1, CA-2, CA-5 or CA-5b has already been submitted to OWCP, forward these items as soon as possible. Do not delay submitting the CA-1, CA-2, CA-5 or CA-5b pending receipt of third party information.

SEE 4.7, Submitting the Claim Package to OWCP.

10-6 Monitoring the Case – ICCO

- When DOL has authority, take no direct action to recover damages. When the claim clearly reflects a potential for high-dollar settlement, or when there is clear-cut liability and the possibility of a quick settlement, follow up to see that OWCP encourages the employee to initiate a claim, either with or without the aid of an attorney.
- Monitor the progress of OWCP's action and obtain periodic status reports until the case is closed.
- Refer to the area HR IC analyst any such cases that are closed without a payment from the third party.

USPS Authority

When the USPS has authority to pursue recovery of damages...

10-7 Keeping DOL Updated — ICCO

- Forward copies to OWCP of all letters issued together with other pertinent third party claim documents.

10-8 Determining Whether the Employee Intends to Pursue Third Party Action — ICCO

- On the basis of answers to Form 2562 and other information you have, determine whether the employee intends to pursue the claim and, if so, whether the employee is represented by an attorney.

USPS Pursuit of Recovery

When the employee wants to assign the claim to the USPS for recovery...

10-9 Deciding Whether to Accept Assignment – ICCO

- Decide whether it is feasible to pursue recovery of damages.
 - If not, provide the employee:
 - Notice to the Employee of the USPS Decision Not to Accept Assignment and Information on Employee Options (see Exhibit 10.9a).
 - If so, provide the employee (updating HRIS):
 - Notice to the Employee of the USPS Decision to Accept Assignment (see Exhibit 10.9b).
 - Form 2577, Assignment of Claim to the USPS.

Obligation: Assuming Authority to Accept Assignment and Sign Release

The following are authorized to accept voluntary assignment of an employee's claim against a third party:

1. An area HR IC analyst.
2. A senior IC specialist.
3. An attorney from the Headquarters Claims Division of the Law Department.

A senior IC specialist can sign a release on behalf of the USPS before disbursement when requested by the third party or insurance carrier.

Factors in Deciding Whether to Accept Assignment

Negotiating third party settlements is a cumbersome process requiring coordination of efforts with the employee, third party, attorney, and insurance company, and completion of numerous forms and letters. This work load can be reduced by being selective in choosing third party cases for pursuit. The general premise is that work-hours expended should result in significant dollar recovery.

- ◇ Pursue a third party claim only when it clearly reflects a potential for high-dollar settlement or when there is clear-cut liability and the possibility of a quick settlement.

10-10 Pursuing Recovery of Damages – ICCO

- When you receive assignment of the employee's claim on Form 2577, send to the third party and to his or her insurer, if known (updating HRIS):
 - Notice to the Third Party of Assignment of the Postal Employee's Claim and Request for Settlement Discussion (see Exhibit 10.10a).
 - A copy of the completed Form 2577.
- If you do not initially receive a reply to the notice to the third party of assignment of the claim to the USPS, follow up by sending to the third party and to his or her insurer, if known (updating HRIS):
 - Request to the Third Party for Settlement (see Exhibit 10.10b).

A reasonable amount to request is three to five times the amount of the lien (see Exhibit 10.10c, Claim Negotiation, for information on computing the lien and projecting a settlement figure).

- When you receive a reply to the notice to the third party of assignment of the claim to the USPS (Exhibit 10.10a) or to the request for settlement (Exhibit 10.10b), attempt to negotiate a settlement of the government's and the employee's claim.
- ◇ Contact the area HR IC analyst if you need assistance.
SEE Exhibit 10.10c, Claim Negotiation.

Obligation: Recovering Damages When the Case Is Assigned to the USPS

When the employee has indicated that he or she does not wish to pursue a recovery from a third party and has assigned the claim to the USPS, the USPS with certain adjustments is entitled to recover from the third party or his or her insurer the compensation and medical and related expenses paid by DOL on behalf of the employee. In addition, the USPS is entitled to recover on behalf of the employee those damages to which the employee may be entitled. Such damages may consist of payment for pain and suffering sustained by the employee, any damage to the employee's personal property, and out-of-pocket expense not covered by FECA benefits.

- When you recover damages, provide the employee and the area HR IC analyst:
 - A copy of Form 2556, which indicates the employee's total entitlement.Make sure that OWCP district office is provided with copies of all documents pertaining to the recovery.

Employee Pursuit of Recovery

When the employee pursues third party action not represented by an attorney...

10-11 Notifying the Employee of the Government's Lien and Monitoring the Case – ICCO

- Furnish the employee (updating HRIS):
 - Form 2557, Employee's Third Party Recovery Statement.
 - Notice to the Employee of the Government's Lien (see Exhibit 10.11a).
- Mail to the third party and/or the insurer (updating HRIS):
 - Notice to the Third Party and/or Insurer of the Government's Lien (see Exhibit 10.11b).
- Monitor the status of the case as necessary, sending periodic letters requesting status or action taken (updating HRIS):
 - At least every 60 days after the notice of the government's lien is given to the employee, check with the employee to determine the status of the case. If necessary, send Notice to the Employee of the Government's Lien and Request for Further Information (see Exhibit 10.11c).
 - If within 6 months after the accident a recovery has not been made, or if before that time there is information that the action on the claim has been terminated, contact the employee for the status of the recovery action.
- If the employee decides not to pursue or is unsuccessful in the recovery attempt, proceed in accordance with "When the employee does not pursue third party action or is unsuccessful in the recovery attempt..."
- When you receive notification from the postal employee that the case has been terminated:
 - Obtain, verify, and correct if necessary the settlement sheet, Form 2557, Employee's Third Party Recovery Statement, and payment due the USPS.
 - Forward settlement sheet in accordance with 10.15, Disbursing Settlement Funds.
- Provide the employee and the area HR IC analyst a copy of Form 2557, which indicates the employee's total entitlement. Ensure that OWCP district office is provided with copies of all documents pertaining to the recovery.

Attorney Pursuit of Recovery

When the employee pursues third party action represented by an attorney...

10-12 Notifying the Attorney of the Government's Lien and Monitoring the Case – ICCO

- Forward to the employee's attorney (updating HRIS):
 - Form 2556, Third Party Statement of Recovery.
 - Notice to the Attorney of the Government's Lien, together with the copies of pertinent reports referred to in that letter (see Exhibit 10.12a).
- Monitor the status of the case as necessary, sending periodic letters requesting status or action taken (updating HRIS):
 - Within 30 days after mailing the notice of lien, send Request for Status and Transmission of Further Information (see Exhibit 10.12b) to the attorney who is representing the postal employee.
 - Within 90 days after mailing the notice of lien and request for status, try to obtain a status report on the progress of the case by contacting the attorney directly. Continue to obtain status reports as frequently as necessary.
 - Within 90 days after any request for a status report has been made, send a follow-up letter to the attorney.
 - Within 15 days after the follow-up letter is sent, contact the employee regarding status of the case. If recovery still has not been made, do one of the following:
 - Monitor progress if the case is still in the process of recovery.
 - Send the case to the area HR IC analyst for further action.
- When you receive information that a third party recovery of damages is imminent, contact DOL for an up-to-date statement of all disbursements made by DOL and advise the employee or the employee's attorney of those disbursements.

Obligation: Recovering Damages that the USPS Is Entitled to Recover From Proceeds Paid to the Employee

The USPS, with certain adjustments, is entitled to recover from the proceeds paid to an employee by a third party the amount of compensation and medical and related expenses paid by DOL on behalf of the employee. COP monies cannot be recovered.

- When you receive notification from the postal employee's attorney that the case has been terminated:
 - Without payment of any damages to the USPS:
 - Verify the nature of termination and do one of the following:
 - Attempt to obtain a voluntary assignment if the case appears to have merit.
 - Close the file.
 - By payment of damage to the employee:
 - Obtain and verify the settlement sheet, Form 2556, Third Party Statement of Recovery, and payment due the USPS.
 - Forward the settlement sheet to the appropriate USPS disbursement office in accordance with 10.15, Disbursing Settlement Funds.

- Provide the employee and the area HR IC analyst a copy of Form 2556, which indicates the employee's total entitlement. Ensure that OWCP district office is provided with copies of all documents pertaining to the recovery.

Employee Indecision or Failure

When the employee does not pursue third party action or is unsuccessful in the recovery attempt...

10-13 Deciding Whether to Seek Assignment — ICCO

- Decide whether it is feasible to pursue recovery of damages.
SEE 10.9, Deciding Whether to Accept Assignment.

10-14 Seeking Assignment of the Case to the USPS — ICCO

- Furnish the employee (updating HRIS):
 - Form 2559, Third Party Claim — Information Request.
 - Request for Information From the Employee and Notice to the Employee of the Government’s Lien (see Exhibit 10.14).
- Seek resolution as necessary:
 - If you do not receive Form 2559 within 15 days, contact the employee directly or through the employee’s supervisor to determine what action the employee intends to take against the third party.
 - If the employee advises:
 - That he or she will seek recovery against the third party, proceed in accordance with “When the employee pursues third party action represented by an attorney...” or “When the employee pursues third party action not represented by an attorney...,” as appropriate.
 - That he or she will not seek recovery against the third party, or is unable to decide what action he or she will take, ask whether the employee will agree to assign his or her claim against the third party to the USPS by signing Form 2577, Assignment of Claim to the USPS.
 - If the employee declines to make the assignment:
 - Refrain from saying or doing anything to the employee that could be regarded as pressuring or coercing the employee to agreeing to the assignment.
 - Point out that the USPS is not ordering or directing the employee to either sue or assign the claim, but advise the employee of the following information:
 - By assigning a claim to the USPS, the employee will enable the USPS to attempt to shift the financial liability for the employee’s injury from the USPS to the true wrongdoer, i.e., the third party.
 - The ultimate recovery that the employee will realize for the injury cannot possibly be reduced by the employee’s agreement to the assignment. An employee is entitled to a minimum of 20 percent of the net recovery after the expense of the recovery (attorney’s fees, property damage, and court costs only) have been deducted. In addition, any surplus amount realized in the third party action that exceeds the amount of the employee’s compensation payments and the expense of realization or collection will be paid to the employee.
 - DOL is authorized to require pursuit or assignment of the claim and to terminate an employee’s compensation payments if he or she refuses to pursue or assign what appears to be a valid third party claim.
 - If the employee continues to refuse to pursue or assign his or her claim, then refer the file to the area HR IC analyst. Use Form 2560, Referral of Third Party Material, to transmit the file. Take no further action to obtain an assignment after the file is referred.

Settlement

When settlement has been made...

10-15 Disbursing Settlement Funds – ICCO

- If the third party check is made payable to OWCP and includes only OWCP payment, send the check and Form 2556 or 2557, as applicable, directly to OWCP.
- If the check is made payable to the USPS:
 - If it includes only OWCP payment, deposit the check and issue a Treasury check or no-fee money order to OWCP.
 - If it includes OWCP payment with the employee's share, includes payments issued in installments, or is payable to the postmaster, the following procedures apply:
 - Deposit the check or monies in the postmaster's trust account.
 - Request a receipt Form 3544, Post Office Receipt for Money. Include the employee's name and OWCP claim number on the receipt.
 - Together with Form 2556 or 2557, whichever is applicable, forward to the accounting office Memo to the USPS Disbursement Office Advising of Disbursement to Be Made (see Exhibit 10.15).
 - Have the accounting office issue to the appropriate parties, i.e., OWCP and postal employee, no-fee money orders or Treasury checks that include the employee's name and OWCP claim number.
 - If the third party makes installment payments, see that disbursements are issued to the postal employee at periodic intervals (3 or 6 months) until the total expected monies from the third party are collected.

Subject: Notice of Potential Third Party Claim

To:

File Number: ____ [OWCP case number] _____

Date of Injury: _____

Our records show that on the above date you sustained an injury under circumstances that may place liability for damages upon a third party (a person or organization other than an employee or organization of the United States government).

Under the provisions of Title 5, United States Code, 8131, the Secretary of Labor can require a workers' compensation beneficiary to prosecute an action for damages in his or her own name when injury or death occurs under circumstances that indicate legal liability to pay damages on a party other than the government.

As a beneficiary of workers' compensation, you are asked to seek the recovery of damages from such a third party. When you recover damages, you will be entitled to keep a minimum of 20 percent of the net recovery, but out of the remainder of the damages recovered, you must reimburse the United States for any payments made to you.

Enclosed is Form 2562, Injury Compensation Program — Notice of Potential Third Party Claim. Kindly complete this form and return it in the self-addressed envelope provided. The USPS encourages you to pursue this claim in one of the following ways:

1. Retain an Attorney: Your own lawyer can usually obtain the best settlement. The required 20 percent and any other money remaining after payment of the attorney's fees and reimbursement of government expenses is yours to keep. To find a lawyer, you might check with your union steward or other postal employees. The state or local bar association will generally have a list for referral service in the yellow pages. Most attorneys will accept such a claim on a contingency basis; i.e., if no settlement is reached, they will not charge you.
2. Self Pursuit: You can pursue the claim yourself. To do this, contact the third party or that party's insurance company yourself and request a settlement. The amount of recovery is up to you, but you should take into consideration your obligation to reimburse the government for payments made to you or on your behalf. The required 20 percent and any other money remaining after reimbursement of government expenses is yours to keep.

3. USPS Assignment: If you have incurred medical expenses and you do not wish to pursue the claim using either of the above methods, you can assign your claim to the USPS. By doing so, you authorize the Injury Compensation Control Office to attempt to reach a settlement with the third party on your behalf. The required 20 percent and any other money remaining after reimbursement of government expenses is yours to keep. No fee is charged.

If, after considering the alternatives, you plan to pursue a third party claim, indicate on the Form 2562, section C, item 3, which of the three actions listed you intend to pursue. If you refuse to pursue the claim, the Department of Labor will be notified, and you may become ineligible for injury compensation.

Please return the Form 2562, whether or not you plan to pursue a third party claim, to our office within ___[7 to 14]___ days of the date of this letter. If you have any questions, you may contact our office at ___[ICCO telephone number]___.

Date of Injury:_____

This memorandum acknowledges receipt of your completed Form 2562, Injury Compensation Program – Notice of Potential Third Party Claim, in which you indicate that you wish to assign your claim to the U.S. Postal Service.

Please be advised that we will be happy to accept such an assignment. Accordingly, enclosed is Form 2577, Assignment of Claim to the USPS. Please sign and return the form immediately to this office in the self-addressed envelope provided for your convenience.

Since you have assigned your full personal injury claim to the Postal Service, it is extremely important that you not discuss the claim with the party responsible for your injury or with the party's insurance company or representative. If anyone questions you regarding this matter, please refer him or her to this office at ___[ICCO telephone number]___.

We believe that you are entitled to special damages (medical bills, personal property loss, and lost wages) and general damages (pain and suffering, inconvenience) for any injury suffered because of the negligence of another. We will do our best to see that any recovery is appropriate.

Claim NegotiationNegotiation Strategy*Factors to Consider

Both sides in a third party action are normally interested in settling the claim amicably and avoiding the inconvenience and expense of litigation. Essentially, injury compensation control office personnel and the representatives of the third party are trying to reach an agreement as to the value of the employee's injury with its attendant pain, suffering, and inconvenience for which there is no fixed price.

Whether the injury is major or minor depends on factors other than the medical or lost time expenses. These factors are:

- The severity of the injury.
- Whether permanent disfigurement resulted from the injury.
- Whether there is a possibility of long-term medical problems because of the injury. For example, the physician says the claimant will probably develop arthritis 5 to 10 years from now because of the injury.

Credibility

No single negotiating method is best. The correct technique is the one that works best for you. To be effective, however, you will need to establish and maintain credibility.

- Use terms of the trade to sound knowledgeable and to increase your confidence in yourself and your job. These include the following:
 - Legal terminology, such as negligence, tort, absolute liability, comparative negligence, contributory negligence.
 - Shorthand terminology familiar to the other party, such as "specials," "medicals," "med pay," "P.D." (property damage), "pain and suffering."
- Know your case. Review the complete file so that you know and can discuss:
 - All the details concerning the accident and the injury.
 - The legal basis for the claim (i.e., what the third party did or did not do and how this caused the injury).
 - The nature and extent of the employee's injury.
 - Special damages, including property damages, doctors' bills, hospital bills, prescriptions, other medical expenses, and lost earnings (even if wholly or partially compensated by Department of Labor (DOL) payments, annual or sick leave taken, or schedule award).
 - General damages, including pain, suffering, embarrassment, temporary and permanent limitation of use of part of the body, interference with the employee's normal activities (such as sports, hobbies, and home life).

Calculations

Be prepared with calculations to guide you:

- Figure the government's lien by adding up all costs for:
 - Compensation payments.
 - Medical bills and related expenses.
 - Any other employee out-of-pocket expenses.

- Compute a projected settlement figure by multiplying the total dollar amount of the lien by one of the following:
 - For a minor injury, three times the amount of the lien.
 - For a major injury, five times the amount of the lien.
 - For disfigurement cases, use DOL schedule, which pays a maximum of $3,500 for disfigurement of the face, head, or neck.

Conduct of Negotiations

Remember that it is in the best interest of the USPS to obtain the maximum settlement: the greater the settlement, the larger the surplus and a surplus is insurance against expenditures if the employee's injury recurs.

Try to get the third party representatives to make the first settlement offer. Occasionally, they will surprise you and offer more than the minimum you were prepared to accept.

Make high original settlement demands. The third party representatives will never offer to pay more than you demand. Normally, you can expect them at first to offer to pay nothing at all, or perhaps only the "out-of-pocket" expenses. If you start high and they start low, a settlement can usually be reached at an acceptable point in between. If your original demand is at or below a fair settlement amount, there is no room to negotiate.

Do not necessarily believe everything representatives of the other side say. They too will be trying to emphasize the facts and laws that are favorable to them and to gloss over matters that could increase the possibility of liability and the extent of the damages.

If at first it appears that a mutually satisfactory settlement cannot be reached, do not give up. To avoid litigation, both sides should be willing to give a little. If the parties are not very far apart after negotiation, impasses frequently can be resolved by "splitting the difference" — settling for an amount halfway between the lowest settlement demand and the highest settlement offer.

Common Questions From an Attorney or Adjuster

- Q. What right do you have to accept an assignment?
- A. Title 5, United States Code, 8131.
- Q. If the employee was aware of the hazard, why should we (the insurance company) pay?
- A. Awareness of a hazard by the employee does not provide a shield for the insurance company.
- Q. What pain and suffering?
- A. Have you ever sustained this type of injury? Have you ever experienced emotional trauma? How do you know the level of pain and suffering?
- Q. Your claim couldn't possibly be worth $3,000! How could it?
- A. You mean it is worth more? Your insured's dog is a monster. There may be permanent disfigurement. I handle numerous claims, and my request is reasonable.
- Q. What is your formula?
- A. There is no formula. Each case is evaluated and compared with other settlements.
- Q. Are you a lawyer?
- A. We are not the employee's legal representatives, but representatives of the USPS, which is an assignee of the claim.
- Q. How can you assign a personal injury claim?
- A. You can't under state law, but we are presenting this claim under federal law, 5 U.S.C. 8131, 8132.
- Q. Can we get a release from the injured employee even though the claim has been assigned to the USPS?
- A. Yes, but it is legally ineffective.
- Q. Your carrier crossed the lawn and fell. Therefore, there is no liability.
- A. Our carrier's status as invitee is not altered by crossing the lawn.
- Q. Your carrier failed to use the sidewalk and is negligent.
- A. Our carrier used reasonable care and is not required to use sidewalks.

Watch Your Language

Use simple sentences with nouns and active verbs.

- “The animal charged....”

Personalize. Use names.

- “...our letter carrier, Madeline Johnson.”

Use specifics.

- “The beast caused a gash that required medical treatment and....”

Develop a convincing vocabulary:

- To describe the event:

charge	skulk	brutal	lunge
savage	ferocious	impale	slink
violent	pounce	onslaught	vicious

- To describe the injury:

cavity	groove	pierced	misery
stab	bruised	anguish	gash
excruciating	throbbing	slash	crushed
rip	ache	pain	raw

Important Points of Telephone Negotiating

- Caller Advantage
The caller is prepared and chooses the time of the call. You should offset this advantage by telling the adjuster that you will review the case and return his or her call.
- Risky
Telephone negotiating creates the temptation to settle too soon. Do not resolve on the first call and offer.
- Easy To Be Depersonalized
Do not be Uncle Sam versus Big Business. Remain a representative of the injured employee.
- Fast
Know what you want before you call or return a call: an offer, a counter offer, a statement of position? When you get the answer or information you want, get off the phone.
- Protection
When you encounter problems or become nervous, excuse yourself to take care of other business. Return the call when you are better prepared.

Summary

1. Be the caller.
2. Plan and prepare.

Our records show that you have presented or you intend to present a claim for damages against a third party apparently responsible for your injury.

The Federal Employees' Compensation Act provides that the United States must be reimbursed out of any third party recovery for any disbursements made to you or on your behalf by the United States. Therefore, you should include as damages in your claim the disbursements indicated on the enclosed Form 2557, Employee's Third Party Recovery Statement, and any other disbursements that you have received or that have been made on your behalf. If you receive additional treatment, compensation, or continuation of pay, contact this office for an up-to-date statement of disbursement before settling your claim.

This office must be notified of any recovery you obtain. Completion and submission of the Form 2557 will serve as notification of a recovery obtained without the services of an attorney. It will also enable you to determine the amount of any refund you must pay to the Postal Service. A self-addressed return envelope is enclosed for your convenience.

If you retain the services of an attorney to assist you in your third party claim, please advise this office immediately and provide the attorney's name and complete address.

If you have not initiated a third party action or retained an attorney to represent you, we encourage you to consider assigning your claim to the U.S. Postal Service.

If you wish to discuss this matter or desire us to assist you, please contact our office at ____ [ICCO telephone number] ____.

Sincerely,

Dear ___[name]___:

We have been informed that the postal employee named above will make, or has made, a claim for damages as a result of an incident involving ___[you/your insurer]___ that occurred on the date shown.

The injury occurred in the performance of federal employment and comes under the Federal Employees' Compensation Act (Title 5, United States Code, 8108, et seq.). Section 8132 requires that the government be reimbursed for payments made to or on behalf of a beneficiary out of the recovery made from a third party. Section 8132, Adjustment After Recovery From a Third Person, also states:

No court, insurer, attorney, or other person shall pay or distribute to the beneficiary or his designee the proceeds of such suit or settlement without first satisfying or assuring satisfaction of the interest of the United States.

Because of the government's financial interest in the outcome of this case, we request that you please request a statement from this office of the government's disbursements before distributing any proceeds in settlement of this case.

Sincerely,

This is a follow-up to our letter dated _____ regarding the third party claim that you plan to pursue on your own.

Under the provisions of Title 5, United States Code, 8131, the Secretary of Labor can require a workers' compensation beneficiary to prosecute an action for damages in his or her own name when injury or death occurs under circumstances that indicate a party other than the government has a legal liability to pay damages. As a beneficiary of workers' compensation, you were asked to seek the recovery of damages from such a third party. When you recover damages, you are entitled to keep a minimum of 20 percent of the net recovery, but out of the remainder of the damages recovered, you must reimburse the United States for any payments it has made to you.

If you have initiated a third party action, you should contact us for a statement of any Office of Workers' Compensation Programs (OWCP) disbursements made to you or on your behalf before you make a final settlement. These disbursements must be repaid from any recovery you make from the third party.

If you have reached a settlement, please submit a completed copy of the previously provided Form 2557 to this office. If you have not reached a settlement, please provide a statement for our records about whether, as a result of this injury, you have presented a claim for damages against anyone other than the Postal Service or OWCP. Please answer the questions on the enclosed Form 2559, Third Party Claim – Information Request, and return it promptly to this office.

If you wish to discuss this matter or desire to have us assist you, please contact the Injury Compensation Control Office at ___[ICCO telephone number]___.

We have been advised that you have been retained to represent the above-named employee with respect to the third party damage claim arising for the above-referenced injury. Copies of the reports contained in our file are enclosed for your information. If disbursements have been made in this case, you will also find a statement showing the disbursements made to date.

Title 5, United States Code, 8132 states, in part:

No court, insurer, attorney or other person shall pay or distribute to the beneficiary or his designee the proceeds of such suit or settlement without first satisfying or assuring satisfaction of the interest of the United States.

Also, enclosed is Form 2556, Third Party Statement of Recovery, for your use. Upon request, we will furnish you an updated statement of disbursements or copies of additional reports.

THIRD PARTY CASE ATTORNEY INFORMATION SHEET

The purpose of this enclosure is to provide you with specific information that you may not be aware of as to the implications of the Federal Workers' Compensation Laws.

1. Assistance that the USPS ___[Injury Compensation Control Office]___ can provide:

Although most of our records and investigations are not public information, all information available will be forwarded to you upon request since you represent our employee.

2. Lien against any recovery:

We have a lien upon any recovery; the exact amount of the lien depends upon the results of certain computations. Specials that our lien may comprise are medical bills, schedule awards, and compensation benefits. An update of these specials can be obtained upon request. This lien is against any recovery, regardless of whether it is for special and/or general damages.

3. Basis of the federal lien:

Our lien is based upon Title 5, United States Code, 8132, which indicates, in part:

If an injury for which FECA compensation is payable is caused under circumstances creating a legal liability in a person other than the United States to pay damages, and the employee receives money in satisfaction of that liability, after deducting the costs of suit and a reasonable attorney's fee, the employee shall refund to the United States the amount of compensation paid by the United States and credit any surplus or future payments of compensation payable for the same injury.

4. Statement of recovery:

We are providing a Form 2556, Statement of Recovery. If and when a settlement is made, this statement of recovery must be completed. Full instructions for completion are on the reverse of the form; however, if you need any additional information or assistance, please call this office.

5. How to compute the amount of the federal lien:

Form 2556, Third Party Statement of Recovery, is used to compute the amount of the lien and of the employee's recovery. Our lien is not the total amount of our expenses; we allow a deduction to the employee for the payment of attorney fees. This allowance for attorney's fees goes to the employee.

6. Satisfaction of lien:

Please ensure that our lien is satisfied before distributing any recovery. Federal law prohibits the distribution of a recovery without first ensuring satisfaction of the lien.

We have received information from you that you do not intend to take action against the third party in your on-the-job injury claim.

Please be advised that under the provisions of Title 5, United States Code, 8131, the Secretary of Labor can require a workers' compensation beneficiary to prosecute an action for damages in his or her own name when injury or death occurs under circumstances that indicate a party other than the government has a legal liability to pay damages. 11 Rehabilitation Program

Overview

The Joint DOL-USPS Rehabilitation Program was developed to fulfill the USPS legal obligation to provide work for injured-on-duty (IOD) employees. Providing gainful employment within medically defined work restrictions has proven to be in the best interest of both the employee and the USPS. In many cases, returning to work has aided the employee in reaching maximum recovery. This program is also one of the most viable means of controlling workers' compensation costs.

Over the years, an in-house rehabilitation program has evolved and has been incorporated into the Rehabilitation Program as a means of facilitating the proper placement and accommodation of current employees with permanent partial disabilities resulting from injuries on duty. This program is also appropriate for reassigning to permanent modified positions employees who have not received compensation but have been in temporary limited duty assignments for an extended period of time.

From December 1978 to May 1979, DOL and the USPS conducted a pilot program for the rehabilitation of injured USPS workers through reemployment. From that pilot program, procedures and forms were developed that provided the basis for the original guidelines issued in October 1979 and for Handbook EL-515, Joint Rehabilitation Guidelines (issued in May 1992), now being made a part of this handbook. The Rehabilitation Program is applicable for both former and current USPS employees on OWCP rolls.

To be eligible for participation in the Rehabilitation Program, the employee must meet the following criteria:

- He or she must have an approved FECA claim on file with OWCP.
- He or she must have a job-related, permanent partial disability documented by medical evidence.
- He or she must be receiving or be eligible to receive compensation payments for the disability. (Note that an employee working in a limited duty assignment is eligible for disability compensation but is not receiving it because an appropriate limited duty assignment has been made available.)

Procedures

Potential Rehabilitation Candidates

When you review chargeback reports each accounting period...

Obligation: Recognizing OWCP and USPS Responsibilities

It is the administrative responsibility of the Secretary of Labor, pursuant to Title 5, United States Code, Chapter 81, to direct the rehabilitation efforts of those permanently disabled individuals covered under FECA. OWCP, Employment Standards Administration, DOL, administers those responsibilities at the discretion of the Secretary.

The USPS responsibility is outlined in FECA, 8151(b)(2). It is the policy of the USPS to make every effort to reemploy or reassign IOD employees with permanent partial disabilities to positions consistent with their medical work restrictions.

11-1 Identifying Potential Rehabilitation Program Participants — area IC personnel

OWCP Pay Statuses

Regular-periodic-roll (PR) status applies to both current and former employees who have been medically determined to be totally disabled for an extended or indefinite period.

No wage-earning-capacity (PN) status applies to employees who have been determined to be totally and permanently disabled.

- Identify possible participants by doing the following:
 - Review periodic roll reports and prioritize these employees according to their potential for termination or reduction of compensation in the following target groups:
 - 49 years old and under — injured less than 5 years.
 - 49 years old and under — injured more than 5 years.
 - 50-60 years old — regardless of injury date.
 - 61 years old and over — regardless of injury date.
 - Review the most current medical documents for both PR- and PN-status employees in the order of the priority target groups mentioned.
 - If OWCP has previously screened a PR-status case for possible Rehabilitation Program participation, wait at least 1 year before submitting another request, unless new evidence indicating a change in duty status has been received.
 - Compare current documents with previous medical reports to determine if there is any change in the employee's duty status.
 - Consider for reemployment individuals who were separated on the basis of unsatisfactory attendance if the periods of absenteeism were deemed compensable by OWCP. Do not, however, refer former employees who have been separated because of serious misconduct (e.g., mail theft).
- ◇ While a PN status indicates that the employee will never be able to return to work in any capacity, it must be remembered that conditions can and do change. The medical status, therefore, should be reviewed periodically.

SEE Section 4.26, Considering a Former or Current Employee for Reemployment

SEE Exhibit 11.1, OWCP's Role in Referring Employees to the Rehabilitation Program.

11-2 Requesting Referral From OWCP — area IC personnel or IC specialist

- After potential Rehabilitation Program participants have been identified, contact OWCP district director to review the PR and PN cases to determine the feasibility of Rehabilitation Program participation and prepare a referral package. The request should include the names of the employees and their corresponding OWCP file numbers.
- Enter HRIS call-up for OWCP response (see Exhibit 11.1, OWCP's Role in Referring Employees to the Rehabilitation Program).
- Maintain contact with OWCP rehabilitation specialist or counselor assigned to the case. After the official referral is made to the USPS, OWCP rehabilitation counselor will contact the ICCO within 3 weeks to determine if the package has been received and to discuss the case.
Request OWCP rehabilitation specialist's or counselor's assistance to obtain and clarify any missing or conflicting documentation. Continued coordination between the ICCO and OWCP rehabilitation specialist or counselor will result in a successful Rehabilitation Program effort in most instances.

11-3 Responding to the Referral Package Received From OWCP — area IC personnel or IC specialist

- Upon receiving the referral package from OWCP, review it to ensure completeness and timeliness of all medical documentation, and to ensure that the package contains the following items:
 - OWCP-3, Injured Worker's Rehabilitation Status Report (see Exhibit 11.1, OWCP's Role in Referring Employees to the Rehabilitation Program).
 - OWCP-5a, b, or c, Work Capacity Evaluation, and the medical report.
 - OWCP-9, Rehabilitation Case Record.
 - OWCP-35, Routine Referral and Award.
- ◇ All medical documentation must be based on a medical examination conducted within 1 year of the date of the referral.
- Enter the information into HRIS.
- Within 5 days of receiving the referral, review the employee's OPF located in the personnel services office to identify major elements of the employee's work history.
- If the OPF has been retired to the Federal Records Center, submit an SF-127, Request for Official Personnel Folder (Separated Employee), in duplicate, to:

NATIONAL PERSONNEL RECORDS CENTER (CIVILIAN)
GENERAL SERVICE ADMINISTRATION
111 WINNEBAGO
ST LOUIS MO 63118-4199

The request generally takes about 2 weeks for processing. Upon receiving the OPF, review and document the rehabilitation file as indicated above.
- Retrieve and review the employee's injury compensation case file, normally located in the ICCO, for the accepted conditions and diagnoses of record.
- If the former employee has relocated, send a copy of the rehabilitation file to the appropriate ICCO. When the former employee relocates to an area outside the geographic area of the originating ICCO, the senior IC specialist must send all pertinent rehabilitation documents, via transmittal letter, to the gaining ICCO that has jurisdiction where the former employee has relocated (see Section 11.13, Initiating a Job Offer for a Relocated Injured Employee). (ELM 546.143)
- Based on review of the referral package and the employee's previous work history, determine whether to:
 - Recommend a refusal to reemploy with justification (see Section 11.6, Initiating Management Refusal Action, for refusal procedures).
 - Pursue the rehabilitation effort (see Section 11.7, Identifying a Modified Job Assignment).

Medical Evaluation

When medical evaluation is necessary...

11-4 Evaluating the Results of Medical Examinations— associate area medical director or contract medical provider

Evaluation of OWCP Rehabilitation Program Referrals

The USPS medical provider will evaluate all medical records referred by OWCP.

An injured employee may have some degree of concurrent disability not caused by or related to the original job injury or disability. The USPS medical provider will carefully evaluate all concurrent disabilities and include their potential impact in his or her recommendation. Concurrent disabilities must be accommodated in job offers under the Rehabilitation Program.

As with other after-duty examinations, consultative services may be used if deemed appropriate by the USPS medical provider.

The medical officer concurs with OWCP-documented medical limitations or provides an opinion increasing the employee's limitations in a separate report. The medical officer cannot lessen the medical limitations rendered by OWCP in any way.

The job assignment is made on the basis of OWCP-documented medical limitation.

SEE Chapter 6, Medical Management.

The Pre-reemployment or Reassignment Medical Examination

Before job offers can be extended, employees may undergo a complete physical examination by the USPS. This examination is paid for by the USPS and is in addition to medical documentation submitted by OWCP. In medically contested cases where OWCP has conducted a second opinion and/or impartial medical examination, it would not be necessary.

- Initiate a pre-reemployment or reassignment medical examination by doing the following:
 - Schedule an appointment with the USPS contract medical provider.
 - Advise the USPS contract medical provider, in writing, that the employee is being considered for reemployment or reassignment under the Rehabilitation Program and provide copies of all medical records provided by OWCP (see Exhibit 11.4a, Sample Letter: Task Force Review Letter). Submit these documents in advance of the scheduled examination date.
- Issue a letter to the employee advising him or her to report for the scheduled medical examination (see Exhibit 11.4b, Sample Letter: Employee Scheduling for Pre-reemployment/ Reassignment Medical Examination). Prepare the letter for the signature of the district HR manager or designee. It is encouraged that two copies of the letter be sent by both regular and certified mail with return receipt requested. Provide copies to OWCP rehabilitation specialist, rehabilitation counselor, and the claims examiner. The letter should include the following:
 - The reason for the examination.
 - The date, time, and location of the examination.
 - A statement indicating the employee's right to bring updated medical documents.

- A statement indicating possible consequences if the employee fails to appear for the examination.
- Use HRIS call-up to follow up.
- If the employee fails to appear for the pre-reemployment or reassignment medical examination, do one of the following:
 - If there is an acceptable reason for the employee's failure to appear (e.g., family emergency), reschedule the examination.
 - If the excuse is unacceptable, contact the claims examiner immediately, both by phone and in writing, for appropriate follow-up from OWCP.

11-5 Responding to the Results of the Medical Examination – area IC personnel or ICCO

Results of Medical Examination

Results of the pre-reemployment or reassignment medical examination are documented on Form 2485, Medical Examination and Assessment. The USPS contract medical provider also completes Form 2489, Identification of Physical/Mental Disability, at this time.

- After the USPS contract medical provider forwards a copy of Form 2485 and Form 2489 and any consultative reports to the ICCO, evaluate the results of the examination to determine if a job offer can be made.
- If the results of the medical examination indicate any of the following situations, proceed to initiate a management refusal action (see Section 11.6, Initiating Management Refusal Action):
 - The injured employee’s restrictions are so severe that a suitable USPS assignment cannot be identified. Most restrictions can be accommodated within the USPS. Some limitations, however, prohibit accommodation in a USPS environment.
 - The medical evidence indicates that the injured employee is no longer disabled because of residuals from the job-related injury. The current disability has been caused by a nonoccupational condition.
- ◇ In cases where the injured employee is not eligible for participation in the Rehabilitation Program, continued entitlement to compensation benefits may also be in question.
- If the results of the USPS medical examination confirm that the employee is permanently partially disabled because of a job-related injury and capable of performing restricted duties, proceed to identify a modified job assignment (see Section 11.7, Identifying a Modified Job Assignment).
- ◇ Maintain close contact with the functional managers or supervisors to identify a suitable modified assignment, as it is the most critical and often the most difficult step in the Rehabilitation Program process.

Management Refusal

When management refuses to provide a modified job offer...

11-6 Initiating Management Refusal Action — senior IC specialist or district HR manager

- When it is determined that management will not extend a job offer, prepare a letter to the Headquarters manager of Safety and Risk Management (see Exhibit 11.6a, Sample Letter: Request for Concurrence on a Management Refusal). The letter must be signed by the district manager and a copy sent through the appropriate functional manager (the manager of function where the employee was assigned at time of injury) and the designated area HR analyst, and must include the following:
 - The specific reasons for the proposed management refusal.
 - Supporting medical evidence and other documentation.
 - A request for Headquarters' concurrence with the proposed action.
- Upon receipt of Headquarters' concurrence, initiate the following:
 - Notify the injured employee, in writing, that while he or she was considered for placement under the Rehabilitation Program, a job offer will not be extended, and the reasons why.
 - Provide a copy of this letter to OWCP rehabilitation specialist and rehabilitation counselor. Prepare a cover letter that includes the following:
 - A summary of actions taken.
 - A request for consideration of appropriate action, e.g.:
 - Pursuance of placement with a new employer.
 - Issuance of a loss of wage-earning capacity (LWEC) decision, as appropriate, if further rehabilitation efforts are unsuccessful (see Exhibit 11.6b, Loss of Wage-Earning Capacity). This request should be addressed by the claims examiner.
 - Termination of compensation payments when medical evidence indicates disability is not because of the job-related condition.
 - Copies of Headquarters' concurrence.
 - Employee's notification letter.
 - Supporting documentation.

SEE Chapter 8, Controversion and Challenge.

Management Job Offer

When management identifies a modified job offer...

Identification of Modified Job Assignments

Determining the procedure to be used to facilitate assignment identification is a local management decision. The following two processes are common practices:

- Management contact by placement priority.

This procedure calls for the ICCO to contact the appropriate management level on a person-to-person basis.

While this method usually results in the development of a suitable assignment, it can be extremely time consuming, delay the entire process, and create an unnecessary amount of correspondence. If the manager of the office where the employee was officially assigned at the time of injury cannot identify a permanent modified assignment within that office, the ICCO must proceed to the next management level until an assignment is identified or all avenues are exhausted.

- Management team.

In this process, management designates representatives from major functions or work units to serve on a Rehabilitation Program committee chaired by the senior IC specialist. Medical restrictions of potential program participants are reviewed, placement priorities are considered, and recommended assignments are drafted. Following the meeting, the senior IC specialist submits the recommended modified assignment to the appropriate manager for concurrence.

The management team method has proven to be very successful. It allows for immediate input from the major functional areas, availability of the senior IC specialist to answer questions and clarify responsibilities, and a timely rehabilitation process.

11-7 Identifying a Modified Job Assignment – ICCO

- Initiate the following actions:
 - Prepare a memorandum for the appropriate management review (see Exhibit 11.7a, Sample Letter: Request for Identification of Rehabilitation Position) that includes the following information:
 - Notification that the employee is being considered for permanent placement under the Rehabilitation Program.
 - A request that a modified assignment be identified.
 - A brief work history of the employee.
 - The employee’s medical restrictions.
 - Priority placement guidelines (see Exhibit 11.7b, Rehabilitation Assignment Priority). Placement priority for the Rehabilitation Program is the same as for limited duty.
 - Submit the prepared memorandum to the locally determined review authority.
- Assist management in identifying a suitable modified job assignment. Review the injured employee’s medically defined work restrictions. Each task within the identified assignment must comply with the employee’s medical limitation. Consider the following possible placements:
 - Employee’s current position. If the employee is a current employee (was never separated from the USPS rolls) and is capable of performing his or her core duties with only minor modification, assignment to the current position may be feasible. This type of accommodation is not considered a modified assignment, and the work-hours are charged to the regular operation LDC.
 - Reassignment to an existing position. If a current employee can no longer perform the core duties of his or her position but is capable of performing the core duties of another authorized position for which he or she is qualified, reassignment may be offered. Since the employee is performing the core duties of the position, the work-hours are charged to the regular operation LDC.
 - Residual vacancy. If a vacancy has been posted for bid or application and there are no successful bidders or applicants, both current and former employees may be offered a residual vacancy if they can perform the core duties of the position with only minor modification. Again, since the core duties are being performed, this is not considered a modified assignment and the work-hours are charged to the regular operation LDC.
 - Modified assignment. If a current or former employee’s restrictions prohibit accommodation as described in the categories above, individual tasks must be identified and combined to develop a modified assignment consistent with the employee’s medical restrictions. These tasks are usually sub functions and may be from multiple positions. The work-hours for employees accommodated in modified assignments are charged to LDC 69.
- Ensure that:
 - Any adverse or disruptive influence on the employee is minimized (see Exhibit 11.7b, Rehabilitation Assignment Priority).
 - Contractual obligations are honored (see Exhibit 11.7c, Contractual Obligations for Rehabilitation Positions).

11-8 Preparing the Job Description — area IC personnel or ICCO

- Once a suitable assignment has been identified, develop a concise job description that is clear and readily understandable.

Do not use a standard position description with annotations to reflect the accommodations unless the employee's work restrictions are so minor that they can be accommodated in a regular assignment. (For example, a letter carrier can perform his or her regular job with the use of a cart.)

Include the following elements:

- The name of the injured employee cited on the job description. This demonstrates that the assignment was specifically tailored to accommodate the injured employee's medical limitations.
- The job title. Choose a job title to indicate a modified assignment and state what the employee's status will be (for example, Clerk, Distribution (Modified), Full-Time Regular).
- The work schedule, tour, and location.
- All specific tasks involved in the assignment. Avoid terms such as "other duties as assigned." If such terms are used, however, give examples of what the "other duties" are.
- The physical requirements of the proposed tasks. Blanket statements such as "all assigned duties are within the defined medical restrictions" are not acceptable.
- Any special workload demands or unusual working conditions.

SEE Exhibit 11.8a, Sample Modified Job Description.

- Request the employee's treating physician or the ruling medical authority identified by OWCP to review the modified job description and provide his or her opinion about whether the identified tasks comply with the employee's medical restrictions (see Exhibit 11.8b, Request for Medical Review of Proposed Job Description).

Contact OWCP rehabilitation specialist and request that he or she assists in expediting the request.

- When the ruling authority is the employee's treating physician, contact him or her directly.
- When the ruling authority is a physician contracted by OWCP, the review request by OWCP must be made by either the rehabilitation specialist, the rehabilitation counselor, or the claims examiner.
- ◇ When review by the physician who provided the work restrictions is not feasible, ensure that the USPS contract medical provider reviews the proposed job description.
- In those instances when the reviewing physician determines that the job description should be modified, make the necessary changes to the job description before the actual job offer is made.
- Once the proposed job description has been finalized, prepare (but do not yet send) a job offer letter that includes the following:
 - The offered position title.
 - The work schedule and tour.
 - The work location.
 - The grade and salary.
 - The effective date of job availability.
 - A description of the appropriate appeal rights.

- The date that a response to the job offer is required (usually 2 weeks from date of receipt).
 - The possible consequences of refusing the offered job.
 - A space designated for the employee's acceptance or refusal and comments.
- ◇ Do not include any information regarding election of OPM benefits.
- SEE Section 4.26, Considering a Former or Current Employee for Reemployment
- SEE Exhibit 11.8c, Sample Letter: Rehabilitation Program Job Offer.

11-9 Conducting the Pre-reemployment or Reassignment Interview With the Employee – ICCO

- Schedule a pre-reemployment or reassignment interview with the employee and do the following:
 - Send a certified letter, with return receipt requested, to the employee approximately 2 weeks before the scheduled interview, requesting him or her to report for a pre-reemployment or reassignment interview (see Exhibit 11.9a, Sample Letter: Employee Scheduling for Pre-reemployment/ Reassignment Interview). Provide a copy to OWCP rehabilitation specialist and OWCP rehabilitation counselor or the staff nurse, if appropriate, and request their presence, depending upon availability, at the interview.
 - Invite the following individuals to attend the interview so they are available to respond to the concerns of the employee:
 - Representatives from the personnel services office and Labor Relations.
 - The manager or supervisor of the proposed work site.
- ◇ Whether or not the above individuals need to attend the interview depends on how much the designated ICCO person knows about these functional area matters.
- If the employee fails to appear or provide an acceptable reason for not appearing, advise the rehabilitation specialist and request him or her to initiate appropriate follow-up action.
- Ensure that the employee receives the following information during the pre-employment interview (see Exhibit 11.9b, Pre-reemployment/Reassignment Employee Interview Checklist):
 - An in-depth analysis of his or her medical limitations and his or her responsibility to work within the prescribed work restrictions.
 - A full explanation of all restoration rights and benefits (see Exhibit 11.9c, Restoration Rights and Benefits). (A copy can be provided to the employee.)
 - If applicable, the status of injury compensation, disability retirement benefits, and future eligibility (see Exhibit 11.9d, Retirement Considerations).
 - All details regarding the identified assignment, including title, grade, salary, duties, work location, tour of duty and all other pertinent information. If applicable, indicate that the job description was reviewed by a physician, and state the doctor's name and findings.
 - Instructions for completion and submission of any required employment forms.

11-10 Extending the Job Offer — area IC personnel or ICCO

- Within 90 days of the official referral by the rehabilitation specialist (normally during the pre-reemployment interview), provide the employee with a written job offer package that includes the following:
 - The job offer letter (see Exhibit 11.8c, Sample Letter: Rehabilitation Program Job Offer).
 - The prepared job description (see Exhibit 11.8a, Sample Modified Job Description).
Without the job description the offer is invalid.

Allow the employee 2 weeks to respond to the package.

- ◇ If the job offer cannot be extended within 90 days because of unusual circumstances, the senior IC specialist must notify the rehabilitation specialist in writing before the 90th day with a copy to the area HR analyst of the reasons for the delay and the expected date it is encouraged that the job offer be sent by both regular and certified, return receipt mail.
- Prepare a summary of the pre-reemployment interview and send it along with a copy of the job offer to both the rehabilitation specialist and the claims examiner at the time it is provided to the employee.

Good Faith Understanding

In the rehabilitation effort, both the employee and the USPS are expected to act in good faith. The USPS acts in good faith by offering an appropriate job to the employee within 90 days of the official referral by the rehabilitation specialist.

The employee acts in good faith by being flexible and realistic about the job being offered.

The rehabilitation specialist is responsible for monitoring the case relative to the good faith effort of both parties.

11-11 Responding to the Employee's Acceptance of the Job Offer – ICCO

- Upon receipt of the employee's acceptance, issue a letter to the employee advising him or her where, when, and to whom he or she is to report (see Exhibit 11.11a, Sample Letter: Employee Report to Duty).

Direction of the Employee Back to Work

When an employee returns to work, the ICCO person will accompany the employee to the appropriate office. If this is not practical, direct the employee as indicated below or as established by local protocol.

In reemployment cases, when the employee was a former employee who was previously separated from USPS rolls, the employee will normally be directed to report initially to the personnel services office for completion of the appropriate paperwork.

In reassignment cases, when the employee is a current employee who was never separated from USPS rolls, the employee may be directed to the work site. Personnel can usually process the appropriate paperwork without the employee's presence.

- Provide copies of the report-to-duty letter to the following individuals or units:
 - Personnel services office. The local personnel services office has the administrative responsibility to complete all standard personnel forms including those required for health benefits insurance, life insurance, and retirement. Forward with a transmittal letter a copy of the report-to-duty letter requesting processing of the necessary paperwork. In addition to the report-to-duty letter, provide also:
 - Form 2489, Identification of Physical/Mental Disability, completed by the USPS contract medical provider. Information from this form is entered onto Form 50. (Do not retain a copy of Form 2489 in the Rehabilitation Program file.)
 - A copy of the prepared job description and the job offer and acceptance letter.
 - A copy of the appropriate sample, Exhibit 11.11b, Sample Forms 50 Actions
 - The manager or supervisor at the identified work site. Provide also a copy of the job description and the job offer and acceptance letter. It is imperative that the manager or supervisor be advised of any change in the employee's status or work restrictions.
 - OWCP rehabilitation specialist or rehabilitation counselor. Provide also a copy, along with copy of employee's acceptance.
 - OWCP claims examiner. Provide also a copy of the employee's acceptance and a completed CA-3, Report of Termination of Disability and/or Payment, upon the employee's actual return to work.
- Coordinate with the personnel services office to ensure that OPM is notified of the reemployment of a disability annuitant previously approved for as annuity, even in cases where it was waived in lieu of OWCP benefits (see Exhibit 11.11c, OPM Notification of Reemployment of a Disability Annuitant).
 - The reemployed individual's name.
 - Social Security number.
 - Date of birth.
 - Civil service annuity claim number (CSA — civil service account).
 - Date of reemployment.

- Indication of whether retirement deductions are to be made from the salary or the position to which reemployed.

A copy of Form 2485, Medical Examination and Assessment, must be attached.

The notification should be sent to:

RETIREMENT OPERATIONS CENTER
OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT
PO BOX 45
BRYERS PA 16017-0045

SEE Exhibit 11.9d, Retirement Considerations.

- Enter call-up dates into HRIS for periodic follow-up actions.

11-12 Responding to the Employee's Refusal of, or Refusal to Respond to, the Job Offer — area IC personnel or ICCO

Obligation: Recognizing the Penalty of Refusing Work

Section 8106 of FECA provides that an employee who refuses to seek suitable work or refuses or neglects to work after suitable work is offered is not entitled to compensation.

- If the employee refuses the job offer, notify the rehabilitation specialist by telephone.
- Within 2 working days, advise the claims examiner, in writing, of the employee's refusal to accept the offered assignment, and send a copy to OWCP rehabilitation specialist. The following is to be attached to the advisement letter:
 - A copy of the job offer and refusal letter signed by the employee.
 - A copy of the pre-reemployment interview summary.
- Ensure that the offered assignment remains available during the entire OWCP due process procedure, which may result in a decision to terminate benefits.
- ◇ The employee must be allowed to return to work if he or she accepts the job offer any time before the final OWCP due process action (i.e., issuance of decision to terminate benefits). This requirement is extremely important. If for any reason the offered assignment becomes unavailable before the conclusion of this process (e.g., assignment given to someone else, premature administrative action, etc.), or the offered position is deemed invalid by OWCP, the employee's entitlement to compensation payments will continue, and the entire rehabilitation effort is voided.

OWCP Due Process

The OWCP claims examiner is provided with a copy of the job offer and job description at the same time it is extended to the employee. If the employee refuses the offer, a series of actions must take place to ensure that the injured employee receives due process as a result of a USPS offer of employment. These actions include the following:

- The claims examiner reviews the offer package, along with the evidence of record, and determines if it is suitable to the employee's partially disabled condition.
- When the offered job is determined not to be suitable, the claims examiner advises the ICCO, OWCP rehabilitation specialist, and the employee, in writing, of the unsuitability of the offer.
- When the claims examiner determines that the offered job is suitable, the claims examiner notifies the employee in writing of the following points:
 - That OWCP considers the job offer suitable under the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 8106(c).

- That if the employee refuses the job, he or she will not be entitled to monetary benefits (except medical benefits) unless he or she can show that such refusal was reasonable or justified. The employee has 30 days from the date of the notification by the claims examiner to accept the employment or to explain why the employment was refused.
- That the offered job remains available for due process consideration.
- That the employee is entitled to LWEC, if applicable.
- That the employee can still accept the job without penalty.
- That further action will be taken without additional notice by OWCP for the employee's failure to cooperate.
- When the employee does not provide good cause for refusing the offered job, the claims examiner may terminate the employee's benefits at the end of the 30-day notification period in addition to 15 days for due process consideration.

SEE Exhibit 11.6b, Loss of Wage-Earning Capacity.

- When the claims examiner determines that the offered job was not suitable, coordinate with the appropriate manager or supervisor to make the necessary revisions and reoffer the job. This action will be considered a new job offer and, if refused, the employee will again be entitled to full due process.

Employee Relocation

When an injured employee has relocated to another geographical area subsequent to a job-related disability...

Obligation: Extending a Job Offer to a Relocated Employee

If a current employee voluntarily moves to another area, a job offer should be extended by the originating district first. As long as the employee is on USPS rolls and was not required to move, he or she should be available to return to work at his or her employing district.

If a former employee voluntarily moves to an isolated area that has limited job opportunities, a reasonable attempt should be made to reemploy the individual at a USPS facility within the commuting distance of his or her current address. However, if an assignment cannot be identified, the originating installation may make a suitable job offer.

If a current or former injured employee is required to move to a different geographic area because of health conditions that were caused by the injury, or that predated it, the issue of job availability must be considered with respect to the new area of residence.

It is USPS policy for the affected districts to act in a cooperative manner in meeting USPS obligations and achieving USPS objectives.

11-13 Initiating a Job Offer for a Relocated Injured Former Employee — originating district's senior IC specialist

- When a former employee has relocated to an area outside the geographic boundaries of the employing district, within 5 days of receipt of OWCP referral, send pertinent rehabilitation information with a cover letter, by certified mail with return receipt requested, to the senior IC specialist of the gaining district (the district where the employee now resides) requesting assistance in placing the employee. Provide a copy of the letter to the designated area HR analyst.
- Update the HRIS.
- ◇ Contact the designated area HR analyst if assistance is required.

11-14 Identifying a Modified Position for Current or Former Employees Who Have Relocated for Health Conditions — area IC personnel or senior IC specialist

- For current or former employees who have relocated for health conditions, make a good faith effort to identify a suitable assignment within commuting distance of the employee's new residence.
- Once a modified position is identified, continue the rehabilitation effort following standard procedures, keeping the originating district advised of the rehabilitation effort status.
- ◇ Contact the designated area HR analyst if assistance is required.

11-15 Arranging for Payment of Relocation Expenses — senior IC specialist

Obligation: Receiving Payment or Reimbursement of Moving Expenses

20 CFR 10.123(f) provides that an injured employee who relocates to accept a suitable job offer after termination from the USPS rolls may be entitled to receive payment or reimbursement of moving expenses from OWCP compensation fund. This provision further states that federal travel regulations pertaining to permanent change of duty station moves are to be used in determining whether expenses claimed are reasonable and necessary. (See FECA PM 2-813.14 for additional information.)

Relocation Expenses

Relocation expenses are payable only to former employees (no longer on postal rolls). When paid by OWCP, these expenses are paid from the compensation fund and charged back to the USPS along with all other compensable payments.

There is nothing in FECA or OWCP procedures that prohibits the employing district from paying or reimbursing the employee out of USPS funds under normal relocation procedures without requesting reimbursement from OWCP.

OWCP Responsibility

- OWCP adjudicates all requests for relocation. When the job offer is determined suitable and relocation is approved, OWCP senior claims examiner should notify the concerned parties of the procedures to obtain reimbursement.
- OWCP district office pays or reimburses authorized expenses except where the USPS has requested an advance payment from OWCP compensation fund.
- OWCP national office handles all requests for advance payment from the compensation fund in cases where the USPS cannot advance the money for the move from its own accounts.

Employee Responsibility

General Services Administration (GSA) regulations require that an employee whose moving expenses are paid by the federal government must remain in federal employment for one year after the move. If the employee ceases work for a reason unacceptable to OWCP, the relocation expenses will be declared an overpayment.

- Incorporate a positive statement in the job offer concerning payment of relocation expenses, forward a copy of the job description to OWCP claims examiner requesting a suitability determination before extending the job offer.
- Advise a potential Rehabilitation Program participant who has relocated that his or her relocation expenses will be paid as long as the offered assignment is found suitable by OWCP. Advise him or her of GSA regulations requiring continued employment for 1 year.
- Coordinate with Finance to ensure the following:
 - Upon acceptance of the job offer, Finance, in coordination with the ICCO, will initiate required relocation actions, e.g., arrange for a government bill of lading to have a moving company transport the employee’s household goods, issue advance payments, etc.
 - Upon completion of the move, Finance will examine the expenditures and certify that the types of expenses and actual amounts are allowable according to GSA travel regulations, and in accordance with what the USPS would authorize for any other employee undergoing a permanent change of duty station. Copies of the certified bills and travel vouchers are then sent to OWCP for payment.

- If the employee ceases to work for a reason unacceptable to OWCP, Finance will declare the relocation expenses as overpayment.

Employee Return to Work

When the employee returns to work...

11-16 Monitoring the Injured Employee's Return to Work — ICCO or employee's supervisor

- Brief the immediate supervisor on the injured employee's medical status and work limitations.
- Conduct periodic follow-ups in coordination with OWCP to assist in the employee's readjustment to a working environment, to ensure that the employee is working safely within the prescribed work restrictions, and to identify potential problems. As a means of follow-up, the following actions are encouraged:
 - On the day the employee returns to work, accompany the employee to his or her designated office or work site. When this is not possible, do the following:
 - Contact the office to which the employee is to report before the reporting time. Remind the appropriate person of the employee's reporting time and request that the ICCO be called if there is any problem.
 - Contact the employee and the supervisor later in the day to see if there are any potential concerns or problems. Let the employee know that the ICCO is available if he or she has questions regarding the assignment, work restriction, or claim. Advise the employee that routine employee matters must be handled through his or her supervisor or the local personnel services office.
 - At the end of the first week, interview the employee and supervisor to evaluate the employee's adjustment to the work environment, the status of his or her physical well being, etc. (see Exhibit 11.16a, Sample Letter: Post-Reemployment/Reassignment Employee Interview, and Exhibit 11.16b, Sample Letter: Post-Reemployment/Reassignment Supervisor Interview).
 - At the end of the first month, schedule the employee for a follow-up FFD, if necessary, to determine his or her medical condition during the adjustment period. The FFD findings may reveal that the employee's work restrictions need to be further modified on either a temporary or permanent basis. It is not unusual for an employee's work limitations to be temporarily more restrictive during the initial return-to-work period.
 - Coordinate with the appropriate manager or supervisor and make the recommended modification to the work restrictions. Make any changes in writing and provide a copy to the employee, supervisor, OWCP rehabilitation specialist, and claims examiner.
 - At the end of the third and sixth months, interview the employee and the supervisor to determine adjustment progress.
- ◇ If the modification is permanent and restrictive to a degree that it prohibits the employee from performing the assigned tasks, a new job description will need to be developed.
 - Make additional contacts depending on the individual circumstances. If everything appears to be going well, further contacts are not necessary.
 - Document progress reports based on the follow-up actions listed above and make them part of the employee's rehabilitation file. Provide copies of the reports to the rehabilitation specialist and the area HR analyst through normal management channels.

 OWCP Rehabilitation Specialist Required Follow-Up

In coordinating efforts with the ICCO when conducting employee follow-ups, OWCP rehabilitation specialist or counselor has the responsibility to review the employee's progress for a minimum of 2 months following the return to work. If a rehabilitation nurse worked with the employee and the USPS in coordinating the RTW effort, the nurse contacts the employee for 2 months at the following intervals:

- The day the employee returns to work.
- The end of the first month.
- The end of the second month.

Follow-ups may continue beyond 2 months if:

- The employee still has adjustment problems.
 - The employee is expected to increase from part-time to full-time employment.
 - The rehabilitation specialist, as documented on OWCP-3 Injured Worker's Rehabilitation Status Report, believes that continued follow-up is necessary for the employee to remain successfully employed.

- To ensure the best interest of both the employee and the USPS, monitor the employee's progress as long as the employee remains in the Rehabilitation Program.

In many cases, after injured employees return to work under the Rehabilitation Program, their medical conditions improve to a point where they can successfully bid on positions for which they meet the physical requirements. In other cases, full recovery occurs over a period of time and the employees return to their former (or equivalent) positions.

1-Year Follow-Up

When the employee has been back to work for 1 year...

11-17 Scheduling and Monitoring the Results of a Follow-Up FFD — ICCO or postal contract physician

- Upon completion of the employee's first year in an assignment under the Rehabilitation Program, and continuing on an annual basis, ask the postal contract physician to review current medical information from the employee's treating physician. If the contract physician determines that a FFD is warranted, based on a change in medical conditions, then schedule the employee for the FFD to determine if there has been any change in the employee's condition and if the assignment needs to be adjusted or changed.
- ◇ It is in the best interest of all concerned to motivate injured employees to perform at their full capabilities. When medically feasible, the progressive upgrading of assigned duties has been proven to help employees reach maximum recovery levels.
- After the FFD has been conducted, provide the employee's supervisor or manager and OWCP claims examiner a copy of the FFD results in writing.
- If the FFD indicates no change in the employee's work limitations, advise the employee, in writing, of the FFD findings and the fact that his or her rehabilitation assignment will remain the same.
- If the results of the FFD indicate that the employee's work limitations should be further restricted, take the following actions:
 - If the further restriction is slight and does not affect the performance of the assigned tasks, advise the employee of the fact that the specified work limitation has been further restricted, the degree of restriction, and the fact that the new restriction does not affect his or her current assignment.
 - If the further restriction is significant and necessitates either a revision in the current assignment or the development of a new job description, consult the employee's supervisor and revise the current assignment to conform with the new restrictions. Advise the employee of the following:
 - That his or her work limitations have been further restricted (cite the degree of restriction).
 - That because the restrictions are considered permanent and may hinder the performance of the current position, a new job description will be developed, and upon finalization, a formal job offer will be extended pending OWCP's approval.
 - That, in the interim, his or her current assignment has been adjusted to meet the new work restrictions.

Since the previously offered and accepted assignment no longer complies with the employee's work limitations, and therefore is no longer a valid job offer, proceed with developing a new job description. Because the employee is already in a work status with the USPS, follow the procedures outlined in the next section (see USPS In-House Rehabilitation Program).

- When the results of the FFD indicate the employee's condition has improved to the extent that the work limitations may be reduced, initiate the following action:
 - If the FFD indicates the employee is still permanently partially disabled from the job-related injury but is capable of a higher level of performance than that required in the current assignment, notify the ICCO to proceed with the in-house Rehabilitation Program procedures as outlined in the next section and advise the employee of the following:

- The FFD findings and the new restrictions.
- That a new job description is being developed to conform with his or her updated work restrictions and that upon finalization, a formal offer will be extended pending OWCP's approval.
- That, in the interim, he or she will remain in the current assignment because his or her work restrictions are well within the requirements of the current assignment.
- If the FFD indicates that the employee has improved and is capable of performing the full duties of the position held at the time of injury, the ICCO will proceed with appropriate restoration action as outlined below.

USPS In-House Rehabilitation Program

When an employee's disability is deemed to be permanent...

Obligation: Providing Rehabilitation for the Permanently Disabled Beneficiary

Section 8104 of FECA provides that the Secretary of Labor may direct a permanently disabled beneficiary under FECA to undergo vocational rehabilitation, and may furnish services from the Employee's Compensation Fund. The worker is entitled to compensation at the total disability rate while in a Rehabilitation Program.

OWCP Vocational Rehabilitation Services

Reemployed workers may voluntarily request vocational rehabilitation services offered by OWCP to keep them competitive in the labor market. Since it is USPS policy to make injured employees whole with regard to salary upon their return to work, USPS rehabilitation participants are not normally considered for these services.

The workers who are eligible include those holding the following:

- The positions with substantial loss of wage-earning capacity.
- The positions that will be reduced due to labor market trends.
- The positions with skill levels offering temporary employment.
- The positions that are made available to an experienced employee now able to perform only limited duties. These positions are especially tailored to the injured worker and would not be available competitively at entry level. These positions with specific duties and salaries could probably not be duplicated in the general labor market.

Criteria for receiving these services are as follows:

- The rehabilitation services authorized by OWCP are initiated within 3 months of return to work and occur during nonworking hours.
 - The employee's interest and ability to handle part-time rehabilitation services in addition to the regular work assignment must be considered.
 - The Rehabilitation Program can be completed within 2 years.

In-House Rehabilitation Program

For the most part, the in-house program process is the same as that outlined in the previous section. Although this is considered an "in-house" program, FECA provisions and OWCP procedures are still applicable. OWCP is still the final authority in determining job suitability and compensation entitlement.

11-18 Identifying Potential In-House Program Participants – ICCO

- Identify potential participants by reviewing routine and requested medical reports from the treating physician, e.g., CA-17, narrative reports, etc. Once a determination of permanent disability is made, the temporary limited duty assignment is no longer appropriate and a permanent accommodation is required. When reviewing the reports, ascertain whether the employee's treating physician has done the following:
 - Determined that the employee's partial disability is permanent.
 - Failed to provide an anticipated recovery date or declared the disability to be permanent after the employee has been working in a limited duty capacity for an extended period, e.g., 1 year.
 - Repeatedly changed the anticipated recovery date of an employee who has been working in a limited duty capacity for an extended period.

SEE Chapter 6, Medical Management.

11-19 Scheduling and Monitoring the Results of the FFD to Determine If a Job Offer Can Be Made — area IC personnel or ICCO

- When a potential in-house program participant has been identified, first check OWCP case file for current medical information. If OWCP case file does not contain current or adequate medical information, then schedule the employee for an FFD (see Section 11.17, Scheduling and Monitoring the Results of a Follow-Up FFD). Require that the examination include a consultative examination by an appropriate board-certified specialist.
- ◇ In instances where OWCP work restrictions are not current, it is imperative that the FFD be as thorough as possible. A consultation by a specialist is particularly important when there is a difference of medical opinion between the employee's treating physician and the USPS contract medical provider.
- When the employee fails to appear for the FFD for an acceptable reason (such as a family emergency), reschedule the examination. If the excuse is unacceptable, seek guidance from Labor Relations.
- When the FFD has been conducted, ensure that the USPS contract medical provider provides the ICCO with the results of the FFD using by Form 2485.
- Determine whether to extend a job offer by reviewing the FFD results. If the FFD indicates that the employee is no longer disabled from the job-related injury (or has returned to his or her preinjury state), a permanent reassignment under the in-house Rehabilitation Program is not appropriate. In this instance, initiate the following actions:
 - If the FFD finding is in conflict with the employee's treating physician:
 - Request the USPS medical provider to identify the conflict and outline suggested course of actions with the ICCO personnel.
 - Allow the employee to remain in his or her limited duty assignment until the matter is resolved. (At this point, all that exists is a difference in opinion between the USPS examining physicians and the employee's treating physician, which is not a sufficient reason to relieve an employee of his or her limited duty assignment.)
 - If the difference in opinion cannot be resolved (ELM 547.34), prepare a challenge package and request OWCP to schedule a second opinion and independent medical examination.
 - Upon receipt of OWCP's decision, take appropriate action such as the following:
 - Direct the employee to return to his or her regular position.
 - Advise the employee of his or her right to apply for a nonoccupational light-duty assignment under contractual provisions.
 - Proceed with the in-house rehabilitation effort if it is determined that the employee does have permanent residual effects from the job-related injury.
 - If the FFD is in agreement with the treating physician or the conflict has been resolved, proceed with an in-house rehabilitation effort.

SEE Exhibit 11.7c, Contractual Obligations for Rehabilitation Positions.
 Chapter 6, Medical Management.
 Chapter 8, Controversion and Challenge.

11-20 Extending an In-House Rehabilitation Job Offer — ICCO

- When a job offer can be made, proceed with the rehabilitation effort as outlined (see Section 11.5, Responding to the Results of the Medical Examination, through Section 11.10, Extending the Job Offer), except where OWCP involvement or notification is cited. Normally, there is no OWCP participation during the job identification through job offer process of the “in-house” program.

SEE Exhibit 11.7b, Rehabilitation Assignment Priority.

11-21 Responding to the Employee's Refusal of the In-House Rehabilitation Job Offer – ICCO

- When the injured employee refuses the job offer, prepare a letter for the signature of the district HR manager with a copy to the appropriate functional manager, advising the employee or designee of the following:
 - That because his or her disabilities have been determined to be permanent, he or she is no longer eligible for a limited duty assignment.
 - That he or she may still accept the offered assignment, which will remain open until OWCP determines its suitability and gives due process.
 - That OWCP will be advised that a permanent assignment was offered in good faith and rejected by the employee.
 - That the employee will remain in his or her limited duty assignment until OWCP makes a suitability determination on the rehabilitation job offer.
- SEE Exhibit 11.21, Sample Letter: Termination of Limited Duty Assignment for Refusal of In-House Rehabilitation Program Job Offer.
- Advise management against any premature personnel action.

OWCP has the sole authority in determining if a job offer is valid. Additionally, under FECA provisions, the employee must be provided with another opportunity to accept the offer. Keep the offered position available until a final decision is made by OWCP (see Section 11.12, Responding to the Employee's Refusal of, or Refusal to Respond to, the Job Offer, for information concerning OWCP's due process).
- Send a complete package to OWCP claims examiner consisting of the following:
 - A summary letter of the actions taken.
 - The job offer and refusal.
 - The job description.
 - Supporting medical documentation.
 - The employee notification letter.
- If OWCP determines that the rehabilitation job offer is suitable, the employee is no longer entitled to limited duty. If the employee still refuses an in-house rehabilitation job offer after due process has been provided, terminate the limited duty assignment and direct the employee to personnel services office for other options available.

11-22 Responding to the Employee's Acceptance of the In-House Rehabilitation Job Offer –
ICCO

- When the employee accepts the job, initiate appropriate notification as outlined in 11.11, Responding to the Employee's Acceptance of the Job Offer.

In addition to sending a copy of the employee's report-to-duty letter, provide OWCP with a complete package that includes copies of the following:

- Job offer and acceptance.
- Job description.
- Supporting medical documentation.
- Report-to-duty letter.

11-23 Responding to the Injured Employee's Return to Work – ICCO

- When the injured employee assumes the new permanent assignment, monitor the employee's work and medical progress and initiate follow-up action as cited in 11.16, Monitoring the Injured Employee's Return to Work.

Exhibit 11.1

Office of Workers' Compensation Program's Role in Referring Employees to the Rehabilitation Program

The Office of Workers' Compensation Programs (OWCP) rehabilitation specialist has the overall managerial responsibility for developing and screening referrals of injured employees from all sources. In addition, private or state rehabilitation counselors acting as screeners (OWCP RC-Ss) in a contractual arrangement with OWCP may screen and evaluate referrals of employees and perform initial interviews. In addition to requests received from ICCOs, the rehabilitation specialist (RS) may identify possible program participants from other sources, such as the claims examiner (CE), computer-generated referral lists, health professionals, the injured employee, unions, or attorneys.

Screening

Once the employee has been identified as a possible participant, the RS or the OWCP RC-S screens the compensation file to review basic information regarding the employee's medical condition, physical capabilities, reemployment potential, and other data that will determine the course of the rehabilitation effort.

Within 5 days of receipt of the files, the RS sends an OWCP-3, Rehabilitation Status Report, indicating the actions planned for the employee. Copies of OWCP-3 are sent to the appropriate parties, including those cited below, for information:

- Designated area HR analyst. (The area HR analyst should furnish a copy to the senior IC specialist.)
- Injured employee and representative, if any.
- OWCP compensation file.

Initial Employee Contact

The RS or OWCP RC-S contacts an eligible employee by mail or telephone to arrange an initial interview to discuss rehabilitation services and explain reemployment. The RS or OWCP RC-S uses an OWCP-6, Initial Interview Letter, soliciting personal or phone contact. If the employee does not respond to the OWCP-6 within 21 days:

- The RS notifies the CE of the employee's noncooperation and requests the CE to take appropriate action. The first action of the CE is to send an OWCP-11, Notification of Due Process for Failure to Cooperate, to the employee.
- If the employee fails to respond to the notification letter within 30 days, the CE reduces compensation benefits to $0 until the employee agrees to cooperate.

Interview With the Employee

The RS or OWCP RC-S conducts an interview with each employee by personal visit or telephone. The interview precedes any other services.

The quality of the initial interview depends on the ability of the RS or OWCP RC-S to communicate professional competence, a sense of urgency, and concern to the employee. The RS or OWCP RC-S must be able to listen effectively and ensure the following elements:

- The employee must be given an opportunity to express his or her feelings and other concerns that may interfere with the recovery process.
- The RS or OWCP RC-S must analyze and summarize the interview and clarify the rehabilitation process.
- The purpose of rehabilitation (i.e., to help a person get back to work) must be explained.

- The RS or OWCP RC-S stresses that training may not necessarily be included in the Rehabilitation Program.
- If the employee was previously approved for annuity by OPM, the RS advises the employee to contact the personnel services office for an explanation on the effects of reemployment on retirement benefits (see Exhibit 11.9d, Retirement Considerations).
- The RS or OWCP RC-S secures additional information, if needed, from the employee and discusses the next step in the rehabilitation process.

Determining Appropriate Action

Following the interview, services are either initiated to prepare the employee for a return to work, or are deferred, pending receipt of further medical or other information.

Usually, a rehabilitation counselor is assigned to facilitate the process; however, in some cases, a registered field nurse may be assigned by OWCP staff nurse to facilitate the medical management of the case.

OWCP Nurse Intervention Program

OWCP currently has a staff nurse assigned to each district office. When an injured employee has been in COP for 45 days, the CE automatically refers the case to the staff nurse for assignment to a field nurse to provide rehabilitation services within a 180-day period. The field nurse coordinates medical services and clarifies medical issues and obtains work restrictions. The injured employee is not required to participate in rehabilitation with the staff nurse. If the injured employee refuses such services, OWCP procedures call for the case to be referred back to the RS, where participation is mandatory.

Contact With Agency

Once work limitations are identified, the field nurse contacts the injured employee. The nurse will contact USPS district IC personnel to discuss identification of a modified job to accommodate the work restrictions. Ideally the field nurse meets with the IC personnel on site to identify possible job assignments for the injured employee.

If the claim file does not contain a current work restriction evaluation and a report of a medical evaluation conducted within the past year, the RS, OWCP RC-S, or staff nurse will notify the CE. The CE will obtain these documents before an official referral is made to the USPS.

SEE Chapter 6, Medical Management.

Closure of Referral Action

The RS or OWCP RC-S closes a referral by annotating the appropriate block of the OWCP-3, citing the reason for closure, and providing copies to all interested parties when rehabilitation services are considered inappropriate in the following cases:

- If unsuccessful attempts have been made to contact the employee (referred back to the CE).
- If the employee has already successfully returned to work with the USPS (e.g., limited duty).
- If the claim files have been previously referred to the RS or OWCP RC-S and there is no change from the previous condition.
- If the employee is permanently restricted to working less than 2 hours per day.
- If medical documentation does not indicate the employee can return to work at this time (referred back to the CE).

If the employee refuses to cooperate in recommended reemployment efforts, the RS or OWCP RC-S will take the following steps:

- If current medical information indicates that the employee can work at least 4 hours per day, the RS or OWCP RC-S informs the employee of the pertinent section of the Act. Section 8113(b) states that “if an individual without good cause fails to apply for and undergo vocational rehabilitation” and “the wage-earning capacity of the individual would probably have substantially increased,” the Secretary may reduce compensation. Furthermore, Section 8106(c) states that “a partially disabled employee who refuses to seek suitable work or refuses or neglects to work after suitable work is offered to, procured by, or secured for him, is not entitled to compensation.”
- If the employee persists in refusing to participate, the RS completes an OWCP-3, Injured Worker’s Rehabilitation Status Report, detailing the employee’s failure to cooperate, recommends to the CE that compensation be reduced to $0, and closes the referral action. A copy of OWCP-3 is provided to the CE, and he or she then evaluates the employee’s refusal and takes appropriate action.

Referral to a Rehabilitation Counselor by OWCP Rehabilitation Specialist

The OWCP RC is directed by the RS to provide rehabilitation services throughout the reemployment process and prepare monthly progress reports.

Initially, counseling and guidance focus on preparing the employee and easing the transition in returning to work, because frequently the employee has been away from work for a long time. There is usually a need to share concerns about the injury, the pain resulting from the injury, feelings about the loss of the preinjury job, and concerns about adjustment to work. The OWCP RC also provides the employee with information on benefits if a loss of salary occurs when accepting a new job.

Counseling services are continued after the employee returns to work to ensure that the employee has adjusted to the work environment.

In the rare instances when the RS performs these services directly with the employee, the RS is responsible for all those duties normally provided by the OWCP RC, such as counseling and guidance, coordination with the appropriate ICCO staff person, and follow-up.

The RS refers the employee to an OWCP RC through OWCP-35, Routine Referral and Award, which authorizes counseling, guidance, testing, and placement services by the OWCP RC. This form authorizes services for a specified dollar amount for up to 2 years of service unless the RS modifies the limit. Other documents in the referral package include:

- OWCP-3, Injured Worker's Rehabilitation Status Report.
- OWCP-5a, b, or c, Work Capacity Evaluation, with most current work restrictions.
- OWCP-9, Rehabilitation Case Record.
- Significant medical reports.

Actions Taken by OWCP Rehabilitation Counselor

The OWCP RC performs the following tasks:

- Meets with the employee, listens to his or her concerns, provides an understanding of the reemployment process, and ensures that the employee is prepared for return to work.
- Explains the purpose and process of reemployment or reassignment to the employee's treating physician, if needed.
- Ensures that current medical reports and work restrictions, if needed, are obtained from the treating physician. If there is a medical report from a second opinion specialist or impartial specialist, the CE determines which report carries the weight of medical evidence.
- Evaluates the feasibility of the employee's reemployment based on all information available.
- Recommends any additional services to assist in proper reemployment.
- Coordinates with the ICCO and the RS and discusses any major obstacles to reemployment with the RS.
- Facilitates the employee's transition back to work through open and objective communication with all parties involved with the employee.
- Serves as a liaison between employee's treating physician and the USPS in developing a rehabilitation job.
- Evaluates the suitability of the proposed job offer before the pre-reemployment interview of the employee.

Referral to the USPS

When it is determined that the employee is a candidate for participation in the rehabilitation program, the RS sends a referral package to the area IC office or the ICCO at the originating installation. An OWCP-3 is used as the official referral for reemployment or reassignment under the rehabilitation program. The case is considered referred to the USPS only when the RS signs the OWCP-3 and places an "X" in the "Placement — Previous Employer" box. A copy of the referral is sent to the designated area HR analyst for monitoring.

Injured employees under FECA are entitled to compensation at the total disability rate while in a rehabilitation program. The RC will request the CE to continue total disability benefits during the rehabilitation efforts.

An employee receiving compensation for a scheduled award can receive rehabilitation services; however, an employee who is concurrently receiving an OPM annuity with the scheduled award is not entitled to OWCP rehabilitation services (since the person would not otherwise be entitled to disability compensation).

Dear Dr. ___[name]___:

Our records reflect that you are providing medical care to our above mentioned former employee for the job-related injury [he/she] sustained on ___[date]___.

Mr./Mrs. ___[name]___ has chosen to receive Workers' Compensation benefits under the Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA). ___[He/She]___ is not receiving retirement benefits.

Federal employees receiving benefits under FECA are required by statute to return to either their former or alternate work, when medically able. They are also to inquire of their treating physicians the earliest date they may return to work. The employer is required to demonstrate that suitable work is made available to the injured employee in accordance with medical capabilities.

In keeping with our obligation, we request that you complete the enclosed form to provide the employee's work restrictions and return it to this office as soon as possible. When completing the form, please document the physical limitations currently imposed on your patient's life activities both on and off the job. Please be aware that we can create alternative work that will simulate these limitations. Enclosed is a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Thank you for your cooperation to this matter.

It will be helpful if you will bring current medical documentation from your treating physician. Such documentation should include:

1. Diagnosis.
2. Dates of treatment.
3. Prognosis.
4. Results of pertinent medical studies.
5. Specific work restrictions (if any) and their duration.
6. Prescribed medication, including that which is (would be) required while working.
7. Date of anticipated return to work (either full or modified duty).
8. Medical justification for current disability (either total or partial).

During the course of this examination, it may be medically determined that additional testing is warranted. Therefore, please allow additional time for these studies. Please call the above-listed phone number to confirm your appointment with Dr. ___[name]___ at least 48 hours before the appointment date.

As indicated above, this examination is critical to the rehabilitation program effort. Failure to cooperate in this effort will be brought to the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs' (OWCP) attention for action deemed necessary.

Loss of Wage-Earning CapacityFormal LWEC Decisions

Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA) 5 U.S.C. 8115(a) provides compensation for the reduction of compensation to reflect a worker's earning capacity (see also 20 CFR 10.303).

The law provides for payment of compensation based upon loss of wage-earning capacity (LWEC) for permanent effects of an injury, i.e., the injured employee has reached maximum medical improvement but still continues to have residuals from the job-related injury. 20 CFR 10.303 states that an injured employee who is unable to return to the position held at the time of injury, or to earn equivalent wages, but who is not totally disabled for all gainful employment is entitled to compensation computed on LWEC (see FECA PM 2-813).

The Office of Workers' Compensation Programs (OWCP) claims examiner determines the employee's LWEC entitlement. This compensation is paid on the basis of the difference between the employee's capacity to earn wages and the current wages of the job held at time of injury. The "Shadrick" formula is used by OWCP to determine an injured employee's wage-earning capacity (see FECA PM 2-900).

As mentioned elsewhere, the USPS should request OWCP to consider issuing an LWEC decision in certain cases. It is important, however, that the ICCO ensure that such requests are appropriate. The fact that an employee may be eligible for LWEC based on a selected (or constructed) position in no way negates management's obligation to make a good faith job offer to an injured employee. Every effort must be made to identify suitable assignments and, when necessary, management refusal actions must be in compliance with procedures outlined in 11.6, Initiating Management Refusal Action.

LWEC is based on the following criteria:

- Failure to cooperate with the early stages of the rehabilitation process. CFR 10.124(f) provides that if an injured employee refuses to participate in rehabilitation after being directed to do so, OWCP may assume, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that rehabilitation would have resulted in reemployment with no loss of earnings, and compensation may be adjusted to $0. However, there is no reduction to $0 if a training or job placement program is identified before the employee's refusal to cooperate. In these cases, the LWEC, even with failure to cooperate, is based on the earnings of jobs identified, not reduced to $0.
- Actual earnings. When an injured employee returns to alternative employment with an actual wage loss, OWCP claims examiner must determine whether the earnings in the alternative employment fairly and reasonably represent the employee's wage-earning capacity. If the earnings do fairly and reasonably represent the injured employee's wage-earning capacity, the claims examiner should prepare a formal LWEC decision.

Since it is USPS policy to make injured employees whole (no loss of earnings) upon reemployment or reassignment under the rehabilitation program, the employee's compensation should be adjusted to $0 unless the employee is not capable of working his or her normal schedule (e.g., less than 8 hours per day).

- Selected position. In determining the type of work a permanent partially disabled employee can perform, an OWCP claims examiner selects a specific job, taking into consideration several determination factors. These include:
 - Nature and degree of injury-related disability (and any other disability that preceded the injury).
 - Work limitation resulting from injury-related and preceding disabilities.
Note: OWCP only takes into account disability conditions that pre-existed the injury. Disabling conditions which develop subsequent to the injury are not taken into account.
 - Usual or former employment.
 - Age and education of the employee.
 - Qualifications for other employment, i.e., experience.
 - Availability of suitable employment in the employee's geographical area.
 - Any other factors which may affect the employee's earning capacity.
- Estimated earning capacity (as a last resort). When extensive rehabilitation efforts do not succeed, the injured employee's wage-earning capacity is determined on the basis of a minimum of two positions deemed suitable but not actually held. In making this determination, the test is whether the injured employee's wage-earning capacity based on the selected jobs appears reasonable when considering the following factors specified in 5 U.S.C. 8115:
 - The nature of the injury.
 - The degree of physical impairment (including impairments resulting from both injury-related and preexisting conditions — any conditions arising after the compensable injury should not be considered).
 - The usual employment.
 - The injured employee's age.
 - Qualifications for other employment (including education and previous employment and training as well as work limitations imposed by the injury-related and preexisting impairments).
 - The availability of suitable employment. This is usually evaluated with respect to the area where the injured employee resides at the time of determination rather than the area of residence at the time of injury. However, when the employee voluntarily moves to an isolated locality with few job opportunities, the question of availability should be applied to the area of residence at the time of the injury. If the employee is required to move because of health conditions caused by the injury or that predated it, availability must be considered with respect to the new area of residence.
 - Other factors or circumstances. These may include the employee's aptitude for acquiring new skills, general appearance, personality factors, ability to adjust to the handicap, the industrial realities in the area where the employee is to be rated, other skills possessed by the employee, mental alertness, and the need for a license.

Modification of Formal LWEC Decisions

Once an LWEC decision has been issued, basic criteria must be met before any further change in compensation can be made. The criteria used by OWCP for modifying a formal LWEC are explained in FECA PM 2-813. These criteria are:

- The original rating was in error.
- The claimant's medical condition has changed.
- The claimant has been vocationally rehabilitated.
- A wage increase of 25 percent or greater has occurred.

Attachment: Rehabilitation Assignment Priority [see Exhibit 11.7b].

Exhibit 11.7b

Rehabilitation Assignment Priority

Whenever possible, assign qualified employees to rehabilitation job assignments duty in their regular craft, during regular tour of duty, and in their regular work facility.

Prioritize the rehabilitation job assignment in the following manner:

- To the extent that there is adequate work available within the employee’s work limitation tolerances, within the employee’s craft, in the work facility to which the employee is regularly assigned, and during the hours when the employee regularly works, that work constitutes the rehabilitation job assignment to which the employee is assigned.
- If adequate duties are not available within the employee’s work limitation tolerances in the craft and work facility to which the employee is regularly assigned within the employee’s regular hours of duty, other work may be assigned within that facility.
- If adequate work is not available at the facility within the employee’s regular hours of duty, work outside the employee’s regular schedule may be assigned as rehabilitation. However, all reasonable efforts must be made to assign the employee to a rehabilitation job assignment within the employee’s craft and to keep the hours of the rehabilitation job assignment as close as possible to the employee’s regular schedule.
- An employee may be assigned rehabilitation outside of the work facility to which the employee is normally assigned only if there is not adequate work available within the employee’s work limitation tolerances at the employee’s facility. In such instances, every effort must be made to assign the employee to work within the employee’s craft within the employee’s regular schedule and as near as possible to the regular work facility to which the employee is normally assigned.

If it is necessary to change any of the elements to meet the employee’s physical limitations or to provide the employee with suitable work, the elements must be changed in this specific order:

Priority of Choice	Regular Craft	Regular Tour	Regular Facility
1st	Within	Within	Within
2nd	Outside	Within	Within
3rd	Within	Outside	Within
4th	Outside	Outside	Within
5th	Within	Within	Outside
6th	Outside	Within	Outside
7th	Within	Outside	Outside
8th	Outside	Outside	Outside

Exhibit 11.7c

Contractual Obligations for Rehabilitation Positions

Reemployment or reassignment must be in compliance with applicable collective bargaining agreements. Individuals so reemployed or reassigned must receive all appropriate rights and protection under the newly applicable collective bargaining agreement.

Contractual obligations may affect rehabilitation assignments in two ways:

- The nature of the assignment itself. For example, contractual obligations affect whether the assignment may be full-time, part-time, to a residual vacancy, or to a uniquely created position for the employee.
- The assigned employee's rights, such as seniority rights.

The contractual obligations relating to rehabilitation assignments are complex, are not necessarily identical in every collective bargaining agreement, and are fact-driven in their application.

Minimum qualification requirements, including written examinations, may be waived in individual cases for former or current employees injured on duty and considered for reemployment or reassignment. When there is evidence, including that submitted by the medical officer, that the employee can be expected to perform satisfactorily in the position within 90 days after assignment, one of the following may grant a waiver:

- For Headquarters and Headquarters field unit positions, the vice president of Employee Resource Management.
- For area positions, an area HR manager.
- For other field positions, a district HR manager.

Former employees who are reemployed into bargaining unit positions or current career employees who are reassigned into such positions are credited with seniority in accordance with the collective bargaining agreement covering the position to which they are assigned.

Labor Relations must be consulted to ensure that contractual obligations are considered and addressed, as required.

Pre-reemployment or Reassignment Employee Interview Checklist

1. Explain the specific duties required of the position that is being offered under the Rehabilitation Program.
2. Explain the physical requirements demanded of the position. (If applicable, advise employee that the job description was reviewed by a physician (name the physician) who determined that the proposed duties were in compliance with the employee's work restrictions.)
3. Inform employee of the location of the work facility and work schedule being assigned.
4. Explain fully all restoration rights, responsibilities, and benefits upon reemployment:
 - Employee status seniority. These are based upon provision of the applicable U.S. Postal Service collective bargaining agreements covering the position to which the employee is being assigned.
 - Probation period. Reemployed individuals who have completed their probationary periods, or individuals who would have completed their probationary periods but for their compensable injuries, are not required to serve a new probationary period.
 - Leave credit. Total time on Office of Workers' Compensation (OWCP) rolls will be creditable for computing leave rate accrual.
 - Salary determination. This is based upon the position to which the individual is reemployed/reassigned.
 - Retirement:
 - A separated (nonretired) employee who returns to work, either part time or full time, receives full credit for time spent on FECA rolls, but his or her family may be left without survivor's benefits in event of death.
 - An employee who has applied for and been approved for retirement, even if he or she receives Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA) benefits and never receives disability annuity, will not always receive credit for time spent on FECA rolls when returning to work. In this case, future retirement benefits are determined in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 8344(a).
 - Bid rights. Reemployed/reassigned individuals may bid on other positions provided they meet the physical requirements of the job. Persons in permanent rehabilitation positions have the same rights to pursue promotional and advancement opportunities as other employees. If a Rehabilitation Program employee is a successful bidder on another position, the employee will no longer be a Rehabilitation Program participants unless the employee's work restrictions continue.
 - Medical Treatment. The individual is entitled to continued medical treatment, if needed, as a result of the injury.
 - Disability Retirement. The individual is entitled to apply for these benefits if, after returning to work, he or she is medically determined to be permanently disabled from performing any type of work.
5. Inform the employee of the time required for receipt of acceptance or declination of job offer before follow-up action is initiated (usually 2 weeks).
6. Inform the employee that refusal of a valid job offer may result in termination or reduction of OWCP benefits.
7. Document the date the pre-reemployment/reassignment interview was held and other pertinent information relating to the interview.

Restoration Rights and Benefits

The U.S. Postal Service has legal responsibilities to employees with job-related disabilities under 5 U.S.C. 8151 and the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) regulations.

Upon full recovery, former and current injured employees will be returned to their regular or former (or equivalent) positions as stated in Chapter 4, Claims Management. All rights and benefits that the employee would have had or have acquired in the regular or former position had there been no injury or disability are restored.

Upon partial recovery, former employees being reemployed and current employees being reassigned under the provisions of the Rehabilitation Program are entitled to the following rights and benefits:

- Probationary period: Individuals who have completed their probationary periods, or would have completed their probationary periods but for their compensable injuries, are not required to serve a new probationary period.
- Leave credit: For purposes of computing leave rate accrual, former employees who were eligible to accrue leave are credited, upon reemployment, with the total time compensation was received from Office of Workers' Compensation Programs (OWCP).
- Retirement benefits: See Exhibit 11.9d, Retirement Considerations.
- Salary determination: The following salary restoration criteria must be met for both reemployment and reassignment of former and current employees. Note: the term grade or step, as used below, means grade or salary for individuals in a nonstep salary schedule.
 - Reemployment or reassignment to the grade or step at time of disability. Individuals receive the current salary for that grade and the step that the individual would have acquired had there been no injury or disability.
 - Reemployment or reassignment to a higher grade. Individuals placed in a position with a grade higher than that of the position held at time of disability are placed at the current salary for the grade or step that the individual would have acquired had there been no injury or disability.
 - Reemployment or reassignment to a lower grade.
 - The salary below maximum of lower grade. The individual will be placed in any higher step in the lower grade less than one full step above the current salary for the grade or step that the individual would have acquired had there been no injury or disability.
 - Salary above maximum of lower grade. In those cases where the current salary for the grade or step that the individual would have acquired had there been no injury or disability exceeds the maximum salary of the lower grade position, the employee is afforded a saved rate at the higher grade and step salary. These saved-rate provisions apply for an indefinite period and are subject to the rules of the salary schedule assigned for the following employees:
 - Former career employees who are being reemployed under the provisions of the rehabilitation program.
 - Current career employees who accept a job offer and are permanently reassigned because of a job-related injury.
 - Limited duty career employees who are permanently reassigned because of a job-related injury.

- Reemployment or reassignment to a position in a different salary schedule. When an individual is reemployed or reassigned to a position in a salary schedule different from the schedule under which the employee was paid at the time of injury or disability, the individual is treated under the following rules, applicable to the new salary schedule:
 - The individual is reemployed or reassigned at the grade appropriate for the position to which he or she was reemployed or reassigned.
 - The individual is placed in any higher step in the new grade less than one full step above the current salary for the grade or step the individual would have acquired had there been no injury or disability.
 - If reemployment or reassignment is to a nonstep schedule, the individual is placed at a salary plus any salary increases the individual would have acquired had there been no injury or disability. Merit salary increases (546.142 (3) (b)) are based on the most recent performance rating before the injury or disability.
 - If the current salary for the grade the individual would have acquired had there been no injury or disability exceeds the maximum salary of the new grade, the individual is given a saved rate. These saved-rate provisions apply for an indefinite period and are subject to the rules of the salary schedule to which assigned for the following employees:
 - Former career employees.
 - Limited duty career employees.
 - Current career employees who have accepted a job offer and are reassigned to a lower grade because of a job-related injury.
 - Former position under a different salary schedule. If the position held at the time of injury or disability is no longer under the same salary schedule, the current salary for the former grade or step is determined for Headquarters and Headquarters field units by the vice president of Human Resources (HR); for area positions, the area HR managers; and for field positions, the district HR manager within the district boundaries.
- Step increases:
 - Upon reemployment under the provisions of the Rehabilitation Program, former employees are assigned a new waiting period for step or merit increases.
 - Upon return to work or reassignment, current employees who were in a LWOP-IOD status receive credit for the period of absence as if duty with the USPS had been continuous for step increase purposes. The date assigned is based on the effective date for the most recent step, merit, or equivalent increase the individual would have acquired had there been no injury or disability.
 - Upon reassignment of limited duty employees, standard step increase procedures apply.

Exhibit 11.9d

Retirement ConsiderationsEmployee Notification

Ensure that the potential Rehabilitation Program participant is advised during the pre-reemployment interview of the effect the reemployment will have on future retirement benefits.

Disability Annuitant Status Ceases

The reemployment status of a disability annuitant is determined by the continuing nature of his or her disability annuity and restoration of that individual's wage-earning capacity. The disability annuitant status will cease if the individual meets the following conditions:

- Reemployed to full-time employment.
- Deemed recovered, restored to earning capacity, or found administratively recovered by Office of Personnel Management (OPM).

Individuals whose disability annuitant status ceases will receive credit for time spent on Office of Workers' Compensation Programs (OWCP) rolls during periods of separation, and they will be covered by the same retirement system they were entitled to before the separation. Their future retirement benefits will be based on their reemployment.

Disability Annuitant Status Remains

A disability annuitant status will remain if the individual meets the following conditions:

- Reemployed to part-time employment (working less than full time).
- Receiving compensation from OWCP during reemployment.

Example: A former full-time distribution clerk with disability annuitant status partially recovers from a compensable job-related injury and is reemployed under the Rehabilitation Program. However, medical restrictions limit work to 20 hours per week. In this case, wage-earning capacity has not been restored because the employee is unable to earn wages equivalent to wages of the position held at the time of injury or disability.

These individuals will not receive credit for the period of separation during which the annuitant received OWCP benefits. For reemployment purposes, OPM considers these former employees to be "reemployed annuitants." Although they will be placed under the same retirement system, they were covered by before their separation, retirement deductions for Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) reemployed annuitants are optional. CSRS annuitants must file an election to have CSRS deductions withheld from their pay during reemployment. This option does not apply to Federal Employees' Retirement System (FERS) disability annuitants. FERS reemployed annuitants will have retirement contributions withheld during their period of reemployment. Personnel offices must refer to subchapter 100 of the OPM CSRS and FERS Handbook for Personnel and Payroll Offices for guidance when hiring reemployed annuitants.

Reinstatement of Eligibility

Reemployed annuitants continue to maintain their OPM annuitant status. Consequently, upon separation from reemployment, they are eligible for:

- Their disability annuity, plus any cost-of-living allowances granted retirees during the period they were not receiving an annuity.

- If they complete the equivalent of at least 1 year of full-time employment, a supplemental annuity based on their period of reemployment.
- If they complete the equivalent of at least 5 years of full-time employment, their annuities redetermined to include all periods of service, including the time spent on OWCP rolls during the period of separation.

Former annuitants reemployed under the procedures in this chapter may be entitled to the restoration of disability retirement status if they are later found unable to perform successfully in the new position because of the original compensable injury or disability and are again separated.

Job Offer Made But Individual Fails to Cooperate

A former employee who has an approved OWCP disability claim and an approved disability retirement on file with OPM has the right to elect benefits from either OWCP or OPM. Once the employee has elected OWCP benefits, any subsequent election should be initiated by either OWCP or the injured employee.

With the above in mind, the senior injury compensation (IC) specialist must ensure that any communication regarding the job offer or the employee's failure to cooperate in the rehabilitation effort originating from the injury compensation control office (ICCO) does not include any reference to an election of OPM benefits. OWCP will not consider the employee to have made an informed election of benefits unless the employee was advised by OWCP that the job is considered to be suitable, and notified of the consequences of a refusal without reasonable cause.

If the employee decides not to accept the job offer or fails to cooperate in the rehabilitation effort, an election of OPM benefits will be offered when appropriate by OWCP, and the employee may voluntarily elect to receive OPM disability annuity.

OPM Notification

Upon reemployment of a disability annuitant (or in advance, if possible), the senior IC specialist must ensure that the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) is notified. OPM must be notified in all cases where the reemployed individual was previously approved for an annuity, even in cases where it was waived in lieu of OWCP benefits. Failure to notify OPM may adversely affect the employee's future retirement benefits.

Separated Employee Status

- Former employees who were separated from the USPS but who did not apply for a disability annuity will receive retirement credit for all time spent on OWCP rolls, including periods of separation.
- Former employees who were separated from the USPS but who did apply for disability annuity will not receive retirement credit for any time spent on the OWCP roles, including periods of separation.

Current Employee Status

Current employees (never separated from the U.S. Postal Service) will receive retirement credit for all time spent on OWCP rolls while in an LWOP-IOD status.

Additional Guidance

See Exhibit 11.9e, Questions and Answers on Retirement Credit for Time Spent in Receipt of OWCP Benefits.

Exhibit 11.9e

Questions and Answers on Retirement Credit for Time Spent in Receipt of Office of Workers' Compensation Programs BenefitsGeneral Service Credit

- Q. Does a retiring employee receive full credit in his or her retirement computation for periods of leave without pay (LWOP) and separation during which he or she receives Office of Workers' Compensation (OWCP) benefits?
- A. Yes. As long as the period(s) involved occurred before the separation on which eligibility to the annuity is based, this service is available as service credit for purposes of eligibility, average salary, and length of service.
- Q. Is there any purpose for which a period of separation during which the employee received OWCP benefits cannot be credited?
- A. Yes. A period of separation cannot be credited in meeting the 1-year-out-of-2 provision of Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS), irrespective of the separated employee's entitlement to OWCP benefits.
- Q. What is the 1-year-out-of-2 provision?
- A. Under the 1-year-out-of-2 provision, a CSRS employee must complete 1 year of creditable service subject to retirement deductions in the 2 years immediately preceding his or her separation before being eligible for a nondisability retirement based on that separation. Federal Employees' Retirement System (FERS) does not have the same requirement.

Employees and Annuitants

- Q. What is the difference between a separated employee and an annuitant?
- A. A separated employee is a former federal employee who was covered by either CSRS or FERS. An annuitant is a separated employee who has applied for and received either a CSRS or FERS annuity on the basis of his or her separation.
- Q. Is an annuitant who elects to receive OWCP benefits for loss of wage-earning capacity (LWEC) in lieu of annuity still considered an annuitant?
- A. Yes. This is because he or she may, at any time, reverse the election and choose to receive an annuity in lieu of OWCP benefits.
- Q. How can an annuitant receive retirement credit for periods of separation after retirement during which he or she receives employee's compensation in lieu of civil service annuity?
- A. An annuitant can credit periods of separation during which he or she receives OWCP benefits in lieu of annuity by becoming reemployed and earning new title to annuity based on a separation that occurs after the period of receipt of OWCP benefits.

Reemployed Annuitants

- Q. How does an annuitant earn a new title to annuity?
- A. A new title to annuity can only be earned through reemployment. When the right to annuity ceases on or during reemployment, a new right to an immediate or deferred annuity will be determined at the time of the employee's next separation. CSRS employees must meet the 1-year-out-of-2 provision (see question 3) in order to establish a new title to a nondisability annuity. When the right to annuity continues during reemployment, a new title to annuity is earned only when the reemployed annuitant completes 5 years of actual, continuous, full-time service, or the part-time equivalent, and earns a right to a redetermined annuity.

- Q. What kinds of annuities terminate on or during reemployment?
- A. Under CSRS, a discontinued service annuity terminates when the employee is reemployed in a position that would be covered by CSRS. Other CSRS annuities terminate when the annuitant is reemployed under special circumstances, such as becoming a member of Congress or a Presidential appointee. All other annuities, and the right to receive annuity, are not directly affected by reemployment. However, special rules apply to disability annuities that terminate during reemployment.
- Q. What are the special rules that apply to disability annuities that terminate during reemployment?
- A. When a CSRS or FERS disability annuitant is found recovered or restored to earning capacity by Office of Personnel Management (OPM), the normal termination date can be affected by reemployment. A disability annuity usually terminates 1 year after the date of a finding of recovery, or 6 months after the end of the calendar year for which the disability annuitant was found restored to earning capacity. When a disability annuitant who has been found recovered or restored to earning capacity is reemployed before the ordinary termination date of the annuity, the annuity terminates on the later of (a) the date of reemployment or (b) the date of OPM's finding.
- Q. On what basis can a disability annuitant be found recovered?
- A. OPM will find a disability annuitant recovered from his or her disability in either of these cases:
- a. Medical evidence shows that the medical condition that initially caused the disability has ameliorated to the point that the annuitant is no longer disabled for the position from which he or she retired.
 - b. The annuitant is permanently reemployed, under CSRS or FERS, in a position of the same grade or pay level as the position from which he or she retired.
- Q. What circumstances will prevent OPM from making a recovery finding on the basis of reemployment?
- A. If the disability annuitant is age 60 or over, he or she may only be found recovered at his or her own request. Also, if the reemployed disability annuitant continues to receive OWCP benefits on the basis of loss of wage-earning capacity (LWEC) (working less than full time), a recovery finding on the basis of reemployment is inappropriate.
- Q. May a reemployed disability annuitant request OPM to make a finding of recovery from disability? What effect does the request have?
- A. Yes. A reemployed disability annuitant may request to be found recovered from his or her disability. A disability annuitant age 60 or over may only be found recovered at his or her request. However, an annuitant's request cannot constitute the sole basis for a recovery finding. There must also be evidence of medical recovery or equivalent employment. To receive prompt attention, a request for a recovery finding should be accompanied by such documentation.
- Q. On what basis may a disability annuitant be found restored to earning capacity?
- A. A disability annuitant is deemed restored to earning capacity when, at the end of any calendar year in which the annuitant is under age 60, the annuitant's earnings equal or exceed 80 percent of the current pay of the position from which the annuitant retired.

Q. Are OWCP benefits counted as part of a disability annuitant's earnings either for restoration to earning capacity purposes or as part of his or her salary for average salary purposes?

A. No.

Q. How is average salary computed, especially when the employee is working a part-time schedule?

A. Average salary is computed on the rate of basic pay (excluding cost of living allowances (COLA)) of the position, not on how much the employee is actually paid. For part-time service before April 7, 1986 the full-time annual rate of the position is prorated by the employee's part-time work schedule. Part-time service on or after that date is credited at the full-time salary rate, but the amount of service is prorated.

Q. What CSRS or FERS benefits are payable if the reemployed annuitant (whose annuity terminated on or during reemployment) separates without new title or either immediate or deferred annuity?

A. If a nondisability annuity terminated on or during reemployment, it may be reinstated as of the date of separation.

If a disability annuity terminated on or during reemployment, and the employee is (a) still, or once again, disabled by the same medical condition and (b) under age 62, the disability annuity may be reinstated.

If a disability annuity terminates on or during reemployment, but the employee does not meet the above, he or she may be entitled to discontinued service annuity based on the termination of the disability annuity. To meet this requirement, he or she will need to have 25 years of service when he or she initially retires, or 20 years of service, and be age 50 or over when the disability annuity terminates. If none of the above circumstances applies to the employee, he or she will be entitled to a deferred annuity based on the previous separation.

Q. What benefits will be payable to a reemployed annuitant whose annuity does not terminate during reemployment if he or she is not entitled to a redetermined annuity?

A. If the annuitant completes at least 1 year of actual, continuous full-time reemployment service, or its part-time equivalent, he or she will be entitled to a supplemental annuity. A supplemental annuity is in addition to the regular annuity.

Q. Can periods of separation during which the annuitant receives OWCP benefits be included in the computation of the supplemental annuity?

A. No. Only actual reemployment service may be used in the computation of a supplemental annuity.

OPM Notification of Reemployment of a Disability Annuitant*With Variants for Full- and Part-Time Employees*

RETIREMENT OPERATIONS CENTER
 OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT
 PO BOX 45
 BOYERS, PENNSYLVANIA 16017-0045

RE: ___[name of employee]_____

DOB: _____

SSN: _____

CSA No: _____

OWCP No: _____

The above-referenced former employee has disability annuitant status with your office and has been receiving workers' compensation payments from the Department of Labor.

Mr./Ms. ___[name]___ has accepted a job offer with the U.S. Postal Service under the provisions of the Joint USPS/DOL Rehabilitation Program. Mr./Ms. ___[name]___'s reemployment will be effective on ___[effective date]___. Attached for your records are a copy of the results of the pre-reemployment medical examination (PS Form 2485) and a copy of the Standard Form 50, Notification of Personnel Action.

[Applies to employees who will be working full-time and whose compensation will be terminated upon reemployment:]

Since Mr./Mrs. ___[name]___ will be working on a full-time basis in a position of equivalent grade and pay to the one he/she occupied at retirement, we are requesting an administrative finding of recovery retroactive to his/her date of reemployment. This determination is made in accordance with Chapter 102 of the OPM Operating Manual 830-1. Retirement contributions will be withheld from the employee's salary.

[Applies to employees who will be working part-time and who will continue to receive compensation because of loss of wage-earning capacity (LWEC):]

Since Mr./Mrs. ___[name]___ will be working on a part-time basis and will continue to receive compensation from the Department of Labor for loss of wage-earning capacity, we have determined the position is not equivalent in grade or pay to the one he/she occupied at retirement. In view of this determination, we have informed Mr./Mrs. ___[name]___ of his/her status as a reemployed annuitant.

We have further advised Mr./Mrs. ___[name]___ that he/she will retain his/her right to the disability annuity and may elect to receive this annuity upon separation and termination of compensation.

We have also advised him/her that he/she will be entitled to a supplemental annuity based on the period of reemployment if he/she works the equivalent of at least 1 year full time and the option of having the annuity redetermined if he/she works the equivalent of at least 5 years full time. This determination has been made in accordance Chapter 102 of the OPM Operating Manual 830-1.

Please note that the standard retirement deductions ___[will/will not]___ be withheld from Mr./Ms. ___[name]___'s salary. (Federal Employees' Retirement System contributions are mandatory; Civil Service Retirement System contributions are optional.)

If further clarification is required, please contact the undersigned on ___[telephone number]___

Sincerely,

___[signature]___

Dear Mr./Ms. ___[employee's name]___:

This is in further reference to our job offer letter, dated ___[date]___.

By the above letter, you were offered permanent reassignment under the provisions of the Rehabilitation Program. You were advised that this assignment was in strict compliance with your medically defined permanent work restrictions, and requested to respond by ___[date]___. [As of the date of this letter, you have failed to respond. On ___[date of employee response]___, you advised that you were refusing the job offer]. This office believes your refusal is invalid for the following reason(s):

___[Respond to employee's reasons for refusal (if any were given)]___.

The purpose of the limited duty program is to accommodate the temporary partial disabilities of injured-on-duty employees. Since your disabilities have now been medically defined as being permanent, you are no longer eligible for participation in the limited duty program. However, your limited duty assignment will continue pending OWCP's suitability determination on the rehabilitation job offer.

Please be aware that OWCP will be advised that you were offered a permanent assignment in accordance with your work limitations and that such assignment will remain available until a decision is rendered by OWCP.

If you have any questions or wish to reconsider the offered position, please contact the senior injury compensation specialist on ___[telephone number]___.

Sincerely,

12 Records Management

Overview

This chapter explains the administrative system that the ICCO must establish to ensure proper handling of records kept to reflect the status of all claims and to ensure compliance with the Privacy Act. It also provides an overview of the HRIS, the WCIS, and the Workers' Compensation Information Reporting System (WCIRS). (For step-by-step procedures on how to use these systems, see the WCIS/WCIRS Reference Guide, January 1995.)

Under FECA, all records, medical and other reports, statements of witnesses, and other papers relating to the injury or death of a civil employee of the United States or other persons entitled to compensation or benefits from the United States under FECA, and all amendments and extensions thereof, are the official records of OWCP. They are not records of the agency, establishment, or department making or having the care or use of such records. (20 CFR 10.10)

These records are contained within a government-wide system of records under the control of DOL. The regulations of the agency in possession of such records, however, govern the procedure for requesting access to or amending the records. The ICCO, consequently, is responsible for the maintenance, disclosure, and disposition of injury compensation program records within the USPS consistent with the Privacy Act. (FECA, 20 CFR 10.12, and 29 CFR 70a.1(b)(3))

The ICCO maintains three types of program records. Individually identifiable information within two of these types, case files and claims status records, must be collected, used, disclosed, and safeguarded in compliance with Privacy Act regulations found in the ASM 353.

- Case files. The ICCO prepares a case file for each new claim it receives. These files consist of all relevant claim forms, medical documentation, correspondence, and any other pertinent information. These files contain sensitive information regarding the injured claimant.
- Claim status records. These records consist of logs and reports that relate to the status of claims, e.g., Inspection Service Referral Report, Third Party Log, etc. These records contain information that identifies individual claimants.
- Program administration and general office records. These records relate to the general administration and internal operations of the ICCO, e.g., directives, general reports, etc. These records do not contain individually identifiable information.

Many of the logs and reports are available through HRIS, WCIS, and WCIRS. HRIS should be used to gather pertinent IC data whenever possible for effective claims management. Manual logs should only be used in cases where there is no electronic capture of data under HRIS available.

Procedures

Injury Compensation Case Files

When you establish the IC office record system...

Obligation: Case Files and the Privacy Act

IC case files are maintained to monitor the administration of benefits under FECA, as amended, which covers all officers and employees of the USPS. IC records are maintained by the USPS within the Privacy Act system of records identified as USPS 120.098 (OWCP Records Copies).

Privacy Act regulations apply to all IC case files and claim status records (identified as USPS 120.099), including those that are computerized. These files and records are, therefore, to be treated as restricted and given the same measure of security as other personnel records systems.

Postal Service regulations implementing the Privacy Act are found in ASM 353. Descriptions of Privacy Act systems of records USPS 120.098 and 120.099 are found in the ASM Appendix.

The Privacy Act of 1974

The Privacy Act of 1974 provides safeguards for individuals against invasion of personal privacy. It provides criminal penalties, including fines up to $5,000 for any officer or employee of a federal agency who, knowing that disclosure is prohibited, willfully discloses information about an individual to any person or agency not entitled to receive it. In addition, the Privacy Act provides criminal penalties for any person who knowingly and willfully requests or obtains under false pretense any record from a federal agency concerning another individual.

12-1 Ensuring That Privacy Act Requirements Are Met — senior IC specialist

- Ensure that files and records containing identifiable information are stored in locked cabinets, and secure those cabinets when the records are not in use.
- Ensure that computerized information is password-protected and not left unattended on screens.
- Familiarize staff with necessary precautions to ensure that file information is disclosed only to individuals with proper authorization (see Exhibit 12.1a, Disclosure Conditions).
- Ensure that an accurate accounting is maintained of every disclosure of information from a system of records except for:
 - Information disclosed to the file subject.
 - Information disclosed to USPS employees for use in the performance of their duties.
 - Information that is public under the Freedom of Information Act.
- Records of correspondence in many instances satisfy Privacy Act requirements, but the ICCO staff, at the discretion of the manager, can also maintain a log for accounting of disclosure in each file (see Exhibit 12.1b, Injury Compensation Privacy Act Log for Accounting of Disclosure).
- ◇ For retention period for accounting of disclosure, see ASM 353.3

12-2 Establishing Files — ICCO

- Prepare a separate folder for each new injury or illness reportable to OWCP and place files alphabetically in file cabinet according to employee's last name. (A color-coded system may be helpful to identify the type of claim CA-1, CA-2, CA-5/5b, third party pursuits, etc.)
- For nonreportable traumatic injury cases, maintain the original CA-1 claim form in the employee's OMF, if it is available, or in the employee's OPF.
- ◇ If the CA-1 is maintained in the OPF, the CA-1 and any medical documentation must be kept in a sealed envelope within the OPF.
- File claims for recurrences (CA-2as) in the same folders with the original injuries or illnesses.
- If OWCP combines two or more of an employee's claims (as often happens when an employee has multiple new injuries to the same part of the body), process the claims as one and identify them with one OWCP file number.

Annotate the involved files and keep the claim files together. This can be accomplished by various means, depending on the size of the individual files and available material, e.g.:

- Use one folder and insert dividers, correctly labeled, separating the individual claim documents that were processed before the claims were combined.
 - Establish a master folder and fasten it together with the other claim folders using large rubber bands.
 - Establish a master folder and place all involved case files in an expandable folder.
- When an employee with an IC case file is reassigned to another postal facility in a different geographic area, transfer the file, via certified mail, to the appropriate ICCO and retain a copy of the transmittal letter in the general administrative file.

12-3 Maintaining and Closing Files – ICCO

Factors Considered in Records Retention

Receiving compensation, for purposes of records retention, is defined as any payments (wage loss and medical) made by OWCP. Moreover, the case is considered active when an employee is working in a limited duty status in lieu of receiving compensation for wage loss.

The end of the fiscal year from the effective date of termination of all FECA benefits is the cutoff date for file retention purposes.

When employee compensation is terminated (no wage loss, no medical payments, and no limited duty), the case file must be placed in inactive files, retained for 5 years, and then destroyed.

- Retain active files at the local ICCO as long as the employee or survivor is in receipt of FECA benefits (wage loss or medical payments or limited duty).
- Once FECA benefits cease, cut off the file at the end of the fiscal year and move the case folder to the inactive file for 5 years. Do not send the files to a national files retention center (NFRC).
- Review inactive files at the end of each fiscal year to verify that each file has been inactive during the year.
- Destroy by shredding or burning files that have remained inactive for 5 years from date of cutoff.

12-4 Using Logs, Registers, and Reports — senior IC specialist

- Track cost and forecast trends over specified periods of time by using the logs, registers, and reports available via the reporting systems (see Exhibit 12.4, Injury Compensation Computer Systems).
- ◇ Accurate data are essential in order to provide facts on a particular case or information about the overall IC Program.
- Familiarize staff with aids that can assist them in the performance of their tasks. The following are used most often in day-to-day claim and program management:
 - Available via HRIS:
 - Call-up Messages. Use this register to provide a list of suspended items that require attention on a specified date. The daily use of this register is vital to ensuring good claims management.
 - Injury Claim Log. Use this log, a master journal of all claims filed, in the preparation of various reports and responses to inquiries. It is available on demand.
 - Claim Control Register. Use this individual case register to provide an up-to-date picture of the status of a case. Generate the register from the basic format available on demand, place it on the left-hand side of the case file, and update it manually.
 - Controversion/Challenge Status Report. Use this report, available on demand, to identify cases awaiting OWCP decisions.
 - Rehabilitation Program. Use this log to identify employees on OWCP's rolls and track job offers and results.
 - Injury Compensation Activity Summary (ICAS). Use this report to track and summarize program activity. The information in this report is used by all levels of management to access program trends and activities.
 - Available via WCIS:
 - Chargeback Report. Use this report, which reflects the dollar amounts DOL OWCP is charging back to the USPS for monies disbursed under FECA provisions, to provide data useful in planning the budget, initiating rehabilitation efforts, and evaluating the cost of injuries. Updated every accounting period, the Chargeback Report is a primary cost indicator used by all levels of management.
 - From the MISSC:
 - Workers' Compensation-Injury on Duty Report (WC-IOD). Use this report, automatically generated every accounting period, to gain awareness of both hours and cost of the COP and LWOP-IOD being entered into the USPS payroll system. This cost report, along with the dollar amounts reflected on the chargeback, provides a good picture of the overall cost of injuries.

12-5 Maintaining Logs, Registers, and Reports – ICCO

- Maintain accounting of disclosure logs with the related records and dispose of them with those records or after 5 years, whichever is longer.
- Maintain other logs, registers, and reports on a fiscal year basis, cutting off inactive documents each fiscal year. It is not necessary to retain complete copies of all management reports. Some management reports consist of summaries as well as detailed information. Dispose of logs, registers, reports, and summaries 10 years after date of cutoff.
- Update the Injury Compensation Activity Summary or HRIS each accounting period.
- Review the Chargeback Report or WCIS carefully each accounting period. If you find that an erroneous payment is covered, submit a written request to OWCP to correct the error. Such requests must be accompanied by supporting documentation.
- ◇ When local efforts fail to correct the error, refer the matter to the designated area HR analyst.
- Review the Workers' Compensation Injury on Duty Report for the MISSC carefully each accounting period. If you discover errors, notify the area HR analyst or Headquarters IC specialist, in writing, to initiate corrective action.

Individual Case Files

When an employee submits an injury claim...

12-6 Preparing an IC Case File – ICCO

- Establish an IC case file for each employee who submits an injury claim. Upon receipt of the claim form, set up a file, using a sturdy file folder with two-pronged fasteners on both sides. Do not use OPFs.
- Prepare the label and include the following information:
 - (a) Employee's name: last, first, middle initial.
 - (b) Date of injury.
 - (c) Social Security number.
 - (d) Type of claim form filed.
 - (e) Name of station or post office.
 - (f) Nature of injury.

Example:

Coleman, Ray T. DOI: 06/05/95
233-42-5555	CA-1
Penn Pines Sta	Low Back

- Provide additional information to assist the ICCO in locating files within the local office's system (color coding, e.g.).
- Generate the appropriate claims management aids from HRIS and place on the left-hand side of the folder. Available aids consist of:
 - Claim Control Register. This register provides basic information regarding the injury and space for activity notes.
 - COP Tracking Log. This log allows for tracking COP by date and accounting period. It also provides space for entering the actual number of COP hours used per day. In addition, a comments column allows for entering information such as holiday pay, medical care, etc.
 - Claim Activity Tracking Log. This log is specifically designed to keep track of all correspondence, forms, etc. It provides space for entering the date, description and suspense date (if any) for each action.
 - Privacy Act Disclosure Log. (See 12.1b, Injury Compensation Privacy Act for Accounting of Log Disclosure.)
- Arrange claim documents in the folder chronologically from bottom to top on the right-hand side of the folder. A copy of the originating claim form (CA-1, CA-2, CA-5 and CA-5b) should always be on the bottom.

Keep only copies of claim forms and medical reports pertaining to a FECA claim in the ICCO case file.

File documents may include, but not be limited to:

 - All pertinent CA forms (CA-1, 2, 7, 8, 16, 17, 20, etc.).
 - All pertinent medical reports.

- All pertinent PS forms (third party recovery forms; Form 1769, Accident Report; etc.) and form letters.
- Correspondence.
- Investigative reports.
- ◇ Do not maintain uncirculated personal notes with the case file or any file that is accessible to other persons.
- Forward the originals of pertinent CA forms, medical reports, pertinent investigative reports, and correspondence to the OWCP district office.
- Place the file alphabetically in the file cabinet according to the employee's last name.

Disclosure Request

When requests are made for information in IC files...

12-7 Determining Whether the Requester May Be Allowed Access to the Records – ICCO

Employee Records

Records related to an employee's injury or illness are sensitive and must be protected from unauthorized access and disclosure. These records are in the exclusive custody of ICCO personnel, and disclosure is made directly from ICCO to the requester.

- Determine whether the individual requesting the information may be allowed access to the information requested (see ASM Appendix and Exhibit 12.1a, Disclosure Conditions, for information that will help in the decision).
- If the request is for Inspection Service Records, refer the requester to the chief postal inspector (see ASM 353.324a).
- If the request is for medical or psychological records, contact the postal or contract medical provider or OHNA to determine if disclosure of any portion of the records could have an adverse effect on the individual. When such a determination is made, respond according to the type of requester:
 - If the request is from an employee, prepare a written response advising the requester that:
 - Because of the nature of the requested medical information, the documentation cannot be provided directly to the employee.
 - Upon the employee's written authorization, however, the requested information will be provided to his or her representative or personal treating physician.
 - The employee has the right to appeal the withholding of this information to the USPS General Counsel.
- If the request is from a union official other than the employee's authorized representative, immediately consult with Labor Relations. In some instances, a summary prepared by the contract medical provider or the OHNA may be sufficient to respond to the union request.
- If the request is from a judge who requests release of medical information via court orders or subpoenas, immediately consult the chief field counsel. When it is determined that the records must be released, a cautionary statement must be included as to the possible adverse effect that would result if information from the record were made known to the subject or to the public. This statement is prepared by either the contract medical provider or the OHNA.

Disclosure Denied

When the requester may not be allowed access to IC files...

12-8 Denying Access to IC Files – ICCO

- If the requester asks for information that cannot be disclosed or does not have the required authorization (see ASM Appendix and Exhibit 12.1a, Disclosure Conditions), send a response to the requester advising why the requested documents cannot be provided, adapting as follows if necessary:
 - If the request is in the form of a subpoena, a more detailed response is required to explain that a court order signed by a judge is required (see Exhibit 12.8, Noncompliant Response to a Subpoena, for a sample letter).
 - If the requester is the file subject or a representative with written permission from the file subject, consult with the chief field counsel before notifying the requester of the denial. Prepare a written response to the requester including:
 - Reason for the denial.
 - Advisement of appeal rights. The requester has a right to appeal the denial to the General Counsel at USPS Headquarters.

Disclosure Granted

When the requester may be allowed access to IC files...

12-9 Granting Access to Injury Compensation File Information by Telephone – ICCO

- If the requester is an individual seeking information that is public under the Privacy Act or a postal employee known to you who requires IC claim information in the performance of postal duties, ask for a Social Security number, OWCP file number, or other specific information that will provide positive identification. Provide the information when you are satisfied.

Public Information

The name, job, title, grade, salary, duty status, and/or date of postal employment of any current or former employee are public information under the Freedom of Information Act and may be disclosed to any person without requiring employee authorization or logging the request. Other information contained in IC case files is, for the most part, exempt from public disclosure.

12-10 Granting On-Site Access to IC File Information – ICCO

- Establish the identity of the requester.
- If the request is from the file subject or another authorized individual:
 - Inform the requester that:
 - Postal employees who wish to review any of their own records must do so on their own time, except as provided for under current collective bargaining agreements.
 - Records are available for inspection and copying during normal ICCO business hours.
 - A complete official file can be obtained from the OWCP district office.
 - Schedule an appointment with the requester for the earliest possible date but not more than 10 working days from the date of request.
 - Before the scheduled appointment, review the file to ensure that the file is in proper order.
 - If the file subject is accompanied by another individual, have the file subject sign a statement that he or she authorizes a representative to be present during his or her review of the specific record or records.
 - Allow the file subject and/or his or her authorized representative to review the file in your presence or that of another ICCO staff person. The ICCO representative must maintain control over the official record.
- If requested, make copies (either the ICCO representative or the reviewer in the presence of the ICCO staff person).

Furnish without charge the first 100 pages in response to a request from anyone other than a postal employee in performance of postal duties. After that, a fee of 15 cents per page may be charged for duplicating any record. Copying fees collected as a result of Privacy Act requests are deposited in AIC 127.

12-11 Granting Access to IC File Information by Mail — ICCO

- Respond in writing to any authorized individual requesting records by mail.
- If the disclosure is in response to a subpoena, court order, or other demand for testimony or records, contact the office of the chief field counsel immediately for instructions.
- Send all records that may be disclosed (see Exhibit 12.1a, Disclosure Conditions) within 10 working days.
- Furnish without charge the first 100 pages in response to a request from a file subject or his or her representative. After that, a fee of 15 cents per page may be charged for duplicating any record. Copying fees collected as a result of Privacy Act requests are deposited in AIC 127.

Obtaining Information Not Found in Files

When pertinent information is not submitted with the claim...

12-12 Requesting Materials From the Medical Unit – ICCO

- To obtain medical documentation relevant to an IC claim (e.g., information regarding a preexisting condition) that remains in the employee's medical folder, prepare a written request to the medical unit in care of the respective OHNA stating the specific record or information being requested and the reason for needing it.

12-13 Requesting Materials From OWCP Claim Files — ICCO

- To obtain copies of materials from OWCP claim files, submit a request in writing, through the area HR analyst, to the appropriate claims examiner. Identify yourself and state the reason you are requesting the information. Once it is received, the material becomes part of the IC case file and access is limited.

12-14 Requesting Permission to Inspect OWCP Claim Files — senior IC specialist

- To request that a designee be permitted to inspect files at the OWCP district office, submit a request to the OWCP district director well in advance of the planned visit. The letter should:
 - Request confirmation of the planned visit date(s).
 - Provide a list of the cases to be reviewed.
 - State the purpose of the review.
 - Identify the reviewer(s).

Upon arrival at the OWCP district office, reviewers must present picture identification.

The above procedures are not normally required for designated liaisons (e.g., designated area HR analysts) once proper identification is established.

Injury Compensation Computer SystemsHuman Resources Information System

The IC module is part of the national HRIS. The primary objective of the module is to improve the ability of local ICCOs to track and control IC claims.

The module provides detailed tracking of every on-the-job injury case, including local first-aids cases. It creates logs and reports that eliminate the need for manual logs and aids in evaluating injury activities. It ensures data integrity by comparing the WCIS and safety and IC databases. If there is a discrepancy, the system creates an exception to advise you. The module also provides an automatic tickler system in the form of system messages called call-ups. These messages are scheduled case activities for specific dates in the future. The messages assist you in providing timely return to work of recovered employees, timely settlement of third party cases, and a great deal more.

One of the benefits of a national system is that information such as employee name, address, job assignment, years of service, OWCP case status, etc. are provided from other existing HRIS and WCIS subsystems. Also, multiple people can access the same injury record at the same time. Local injury data are rolled up to the area and national levels to provide the total number of ICCO activities taken, service wide injury trends, through the ICAS report generated each accounting period.

For more information, see the Injury Compensation System User's Guide.

Workers' Compensation Information Subsystems

WCIS is considered a valuable management tool in controlling and reducing compensation costs and monitoring injury claims activities. The WCIS is a database that contains current information on all postal injury claims, including compensation and medical payments, made to or on behalf of postal employees by the DOL, OWCP. Additionally, the data contained in the WCIS are used by Headquarters and the area offices to generate various management reports. This information is updated weekly at the MISSC with computer tapes furnished by the OWCP and is available for online query by IC personnel and postal inspectors assigned to the investigation of IC claims for fraud or abuse.

In WCIS, all open OWCP cases filed by USPS employees and all cases closed less than 2 years can be viewed. Individual payments made during the past 2 years can also be viewed. After 2 years, this information cannot be viewed by accessing the automated compensation payment system or bill payment system; however, the amount of these payments is always reflected in TOTAL (total payments).

Privacy Act Consideration

The warning "Restricted Information" appears on WCIS screen displays and documents containing sensitive information. All records associated with WCIS applications are subject to USPS policies concerning the Privacy Act, and any questions or correspondence related to disclosures should be referred to the ASM, 352, 353, and Appendix. Relative to the restricted information, computer terminals should be kept in a secured area and should not be left unattended when restricted information is being displayed.

Workers' Compensation Information Reporting System

Workers' Compensation Information Reporting System (WCIRS) is an ad hoc reporting system written in FOCUS language in which information is extracted from the WCIS IDMS database. This file is updated every 28 days or when the periodic roll files are received and inputted into the system. Certain menu-driven reports are available and can be easily printed on local printers. A recent enhancement accomplished on the WCIRS is the addition of a reports menu designed specifically to assist the Inspection Service in its review of periodic roll case files. These reports are accessible to all WCIS/WCIRS users.

Types of WCIRS Reports

The WCIRS provides users with the capability of requesting available online reports in three categories:

- Fiscal year payments.
- Reported claims (from 1989 to current year).
- Periodic rolls (current year only).

Other management reports can be generated by individuals skilled in FOCUS programming language using the ad hoc reports menu item on the main menu. Any special requests need to be directed to the Headquarters WCIS/WCIRS Coordinator at 202-268-3685 with the reason for requesting this report. Sufficient time should be given for the programmer to schedule to accommodate the existing work load.

For more information, see the Workers' Compensation Information Reporting System (WCIRS) Reference Guide, January 1995.

___[city, state, ZIP Code]___

Re: [Reference lawsuit identified on subpoena]

Dear ___[name]___:

This letter responds to the subpoena you have served on the U.S. Postal Service in ___[city]___, ___[state]___ seeking disclosure of records regarding a postal employee. For the reasons set forth below, we are unable to release the requested records at this time.

The records that you are requesting are protected from disclosure under the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a. The Act prohibits disclosure of such records except in certain specified instances. Generally, in private litigation, the records may only be disclosed pursuant to a release signed by the employee whose records are sought, or "the order of a court of competent jurisdiction" (5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(11)). The federal courts have consistently held that a subpoena signed by an attorney or clerk of court is insufficient to meet the requirements of the Privacy Act (Doe v. DiGenova, 779 F.2d 74, 85 (DC Cir. 1985); Perry v. State Farm Fire & Casualty, 734 F.2d 1441, 1447 (11th Cir. 1984); Bruce v. United States, 621 F.2d 914, 916 (8th Cir. 1980); Moore v. United States Postal Service, 609 F.Supp. 681 (E.D.N.Y. 1985); Stiles v. Atlanta Gas Light Co., 453 F.Supp. 798, 800 (N.D. Ga. 1978)). Because the subpoena you have submitted bears only the signature of the ___[clerk of court/attorney]___, and contains no indication of judicial approval, we are unable to release the requested records. However, upon receipt of either an employee release or court order directing disclosure, we will release the record.

[For requests related to workers' compensation records, add the following two paragraphs:]

Additionally, it is noted that some of the requested records may pertain to a job-related injury and the claim for benefits under the Federal Employees' Compensation Act arising therefrom. Such official records are under the exclusive jurisdiction of the U.S. Department of Labor.

A request for authorization to produce these records should be sent to:

EMPLOYMENT STANDARDS ADMINISTRATION
OFFICE OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION PROGRAMS
200 CONSTITUTION AVENUE
WASHINGTON DC 20210-0001

[For requests seeking the appearance of postal officials regarding the contents of employee records, add the following paragraph:]

In addition to documents, you seek testimony of a postal official. To the extent that any information known to him or her about a postal employee was gained through the generation or review of records protected from disclosure by the Privacy Act, the official may not reveal that information absent a court order or the employee's authorization. Thus, no postal official will appear at the scheduled deposition until you obtain a court order or an authorization from the person who is the subject of your inquiries.

Sincerely,

13 Timekeeping and Accounting

Overview

The purpose of this chapter is to provide the ICCO with specific guidelines for proper timekeeping and accounting procedures. These guidelines are essential for effective management and administration of the injury compensation program. Although the administration of compensation and leave administration is addressed, special attention is given to COP.

Public Law 93-416, approved September 7, 1974, significantly revised FECA to provide for continuation of regular pay for a period not to exceed 45 days for certain employees who file a claim for wage loss caused by traumatic injury. Pay received during the COP period is considered regular “income” and not “compensation,” and unlike compensation, it is subject to all taxes and other payroll deductions applicable to regular income.

The intent of the COP provision is to eliminate interruption in the employee’s income during the period immediately following a job-related traumatic injury.

Employees eligible for COP include all current:

- Regular schedule employees, including managers and supervisors.
- Part-time flexible employees.
- Transitional employees.
- Temporary employees.
- Casual employees.
- Rural carriers.

Independent contractors and individuals employed by independent contractors are generally not entitled to COP. See Chapter 4, Claims Management, for information concerning COP eligibility criteria.

Procedures

Continuation of Pay

When an employee chooses COP after sustaining a traumatic injury...

13-1 Tracking Time for COP – ICCO or designated control point personnel

Obligation: Monitoring COP

The ICCO must monitor COP hours to ensure that employees do not receive COP for more than a 45-calendar-day period for any one injury.

COP Entitlement

Employees may receive COP for up to 45 calendar days for time lost from work because of disability resulting from a job-related injury provided that absence from work time is medically indicated. Medical documentation to support this absence must be furnished within 10 days from the beginning of disability.

The maximum number of COP hours most employees are entitled to receive per injury is 264. Rural carriers with an H route cannot exceed 312 COP hours; rural carriers with a J route cannot exceed 288 COP hours.

Holidays and scheduled leave are counted as workdays.

An employee's entitlement to COP must be used within 90 days of the DOI, or if there is no immediate time loss, within 90 days of the first time loss following the DOI. The only exception is when continuing days of COP bridge the 90th day. In that case, pay may be continued until entitlement is exhausted or the employee returns to work.

- Track employees' COP days as follows:
 - Start tracking COP days on the calendar day following the first full day or shift the employee is absent from work because of a disabling traumatic injury.

For example, if an employee whose regular work schedule is Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., sustains a disabling injury at 2:00 p.m. Friday, the first day to be charged against the COP entitlement is Saturday rather than the employee's next scheduled workday, even though there is no payment made.
 - Continue tracking up to the day the employee returns to work or 45 days is reached, whichever comes first. Include weekends, holidays, and planned leave during that time.
 - For a bargaining unit or FLSA-nonexempt EAS employee, count any day or shift on which the employee requires time off as a full calendar day.
 - For an FLSA-exempt EAS employee, if the employee returns to work part time because of medical limitations or requires time off for treatment of the injury, any portion of the day lost counts as a full day of COP regardless of the FLSA-exempt status.
 - If the employee loses time because of further periods of disability or for medical treatment, start and stop tracking in the same way for each subsequent absence.
 - Ensure that the number of days included within the employee's COP limit does not exceed 45 calendar days within the 90-day entitlement period.

- ◇ Only if the injury occurs before the beginning of the workday may the DOI be charged to COP.
 - Track an employee's COP hours as follows:
 - Count actual hours charged to COP.
 - Ensure that the number of hours charged to COP within the 45-day COP period does not exceed:
 - For a rural carrier with an H route, 312 hours.
 - For a rural carrier with a J route, 288 hours.
 - For other employees, 264 hours.
- SEE Exhibit 13.1, COP/LWOP-IOD Timekeeping Worksheet, for assistance in tracking days and hours.
- SEE Exhibit 13.17, Recovering Excessive COP Hours, for information on monitoring COP.

13-2 Providing COP for Most Full-Time, Part-Time, Transitional, Casual, or Temporary Employees – ICCO or designated control point personnel

Pay During the COP Period

Pay during the COP period includes:

- Night shift differential or Sunday premium pay employees would normally receive.
- Holiday pay employees would normally receive (recorded as holiday pay but counted as COP days).

Changes in pay that otherwise would have occurred during the 45-day period (e.g., step, general, or promotion increases, demotion, termination of a temporary detail) are reflected in the COP amount and take effect at the time they normally would have occurred.

- Provide COP with Form 3971, Request for or Notification of Absence, for different types of employees in the following manner:

- Regular schedule employees (full-time or part-time employees who work each week for the same number of hours) receive pay for the regularly scheduled hours not worked because of the injury. The amount paid during COP is equal to their current basic rate plus COLA and premium pay, excluding overtime.

$$\text{COP Rate} = \text{current basic pay} + \text{COLA and premium pay (excluding overtime)}$$

- Part-time flexible schedule employees who work each week, but do not work the same number of hours each week) receive pay at a weekly rate equal to their total earnings, excluding overtime, during the 1 year preceding the DOI (or since appointment, if less than 1 year), divided by the number of weeks during which some earnings were received during that same period.

The amount paid during COP is equal to basic pay plus COLA and premium pay, excluding overtime.

$$\text{Weekly COP Rate} = \frac{\text{total earnings during 1 year preceding the DOI, including COLA and premium pay (excluding overtime)}}{\text{number of weeks that earnings were received during the year}}$$

The calculated weekly pay rate is prorated for any partial weeks of eligibility: for each day, an amount equal to the weekly pay, less any regular pay received for the week, divided by the number of days that have not been worked.

$$\text{Daily COP rate} = \frac{\text{calculated weekly pay less any regular pay received for the week}}{\text{number of days not worked during the same period}}$$

However, the weekly pay may not be less than 2.9 times the average daily pay received during the 52-week period immediately preceding the DOI.

$$\text{Average daily pay} = \frac{\text{total earnings during the 1 year preceding the injury (excluding overtime)}}{\text{number of days worked during the same period}}$$

This minimum does not apply to partial weeks in which COP begins or ends.

- Casual or temporary employees, or other intermittent employees who are not part of the regular work force and who do not work each week, receive weekly pay (including prorated amounts for partial weeks) as computed for part-time flexible employees.

When casual employees or other employees with specific terms of employment are injured, authorize COP only through the end of their appointments.

Example: If a casual employee is hired for 89 days and becomes injured on the 85th day, COP is covered only through the 89th day.

- Transitional employees are noncareer employees hired to fill positions normally held by career employees for a temporary period not to exceed 359 days. These employees work each week but may not work the same hours weekly. Transitional carriers are hired at the level and initial step of the position they are filling (i.e., Level 5 or Level 6) and receive COLA. All other transitionals (APWU) are hired at the level and initial step of the position they are filling but do not receive COLA.

If an employee is hired for 89 days and the appointment is changed to 60 days because of lack of work before the date that the injury occurred, COP is awarded through the 60th day.

13-3 Providing COP for Employees Being Terminated — ICCO or designated control point personnel

- Ensure that COP is not interrupted as part of a disciplinary action nor terminated as a result of a disciplinary action that terminates employment unless final written notice of termination for cause was issued to the employee before the date of injury.
 - If an employee has received notice of a disciplinary action or termination prior to injury, provide COP only through the end of his or her appointment.
 - If an employee receives notice of a disciplinary action or termination after the DOI, provide COP beyond the date of separation. The employee is identified by special coding on Form 50, Notification of Personnel Action. The entries on Form 50 should reflect the following:
 - Item 21.....Code “9.”
 - Item 22.....PP/YR 45th day of COP.
 - Item 23.....Code “CP.”
 - Item 95.....Code +“W.”

If, after separation, it is determined that COP is to be terminated before the date shown in item 22, completion of another Form 50 is required and must include the appropriate pay period and year in item 22.

- If a claim is submitted before termination of employment and if the separation date was identified before the DOI, COP is not provided beyond the day of separation. COP is not paid if any one of the following conditions applies:
 - The disability is a result of an occupational disease or illness.
 - The employee is neither a citizen nor a resident of the United States, Canada, or the territory under the administration of the Panama Canal Commission (i.e., a foreign national employed outside the areas indicated).
 - The injury occurred off USPS premises, and the employee was not engaged in official “off-premises” duties.
 - The injury occurred on USPS premises, but the employee was not engaged in any employment-related activity.

Example:The employee was injured when he or she came into work on his or her day off to pick up a paycheck or was changing a tire on a personal vehicle in the parking lot.

 - The employee caused the injury by his or her willful misconduct, or intended to bring about his or her injury or death or that of another person, or the employee’s intoxication was the proximate cause of the injury.
 - The injury was not reported on a form approved by OWCP (usually Form CA-1) within 30 days following the injury.
 - Work stoppage first occurred more than 90 days following the injury.
 - The employee initially reported the injury after employment was terminated.
- ◇ COP may be paid if the medical evidence indicates that the claimant is fit for limited duty and limited duty is not provided. However, limited duty is not offered if the claimant has been terminated.
- For periods of disability either after the 45th day of COP or after the date of separation if COP was not authorized, instruct the claimant to request compensation payments by submitting a CA-7, Claim for Compensation on Account of Traumatic Injury or Occupational Disease, listing the dates of total disability and providing medical reports to substantiate such disability.

13-4 Recording COP for Most Full-Time, Part-Time, Transitional, Casual, or Temporary Employees – ICCO personnel

- On the DOI, keep the injured employee in a work status or grant administrative leave for any fraction of a day or shift lost, so that the employee receives pay for the entire shift that he or she is scheduled to work. Do not charge the DOI to the 45-day COP period, except when the injury occurs before the beginning of the workday or shift.
 - If an employee receives first-aid treatment and returns to work the same day, excuse his or her time spent for first-aid treatment to administrative leave. Do not require the employee to clock out when leaving the place of duty for first-aid examination or treatment.
 - If an employee, including a casual or temporary employee, is directed by management to an on-site or off-site medical unit the same day as the accident, record the time spent waiting for and receiving medical attention as work time, up to all time that the employee would have been directed to work beyond the regularly scheduled shift.
- ◇ An employee whose treatment extends beyond his or her scheduled end of shift is not to be credited with that time.
 - If an employee, except a casual or temporary employee, is excused from work during the scheduled shift, charge the remaining portion of the shift to Other Paid Leave (Administrative), rather than COP.
 - If an employee is excused from work on a nonscheduled day for which the guarantee period applies, change the remaining portion of the employee’s workday to Guaranteed Time and Guaranteed Overtime, as applicable.

Guaranteed Time

Guaranteed time, under the guarantee provisions of collective bargaining agreements, is time paid for but not worked because the employee has been released by the supervisor and has clocked out before the end of a guaranteed period.

Example: Most bargaining unit full-time regular employees are guaranteed 8 hours of work or pay if called in on their nonscheduled day to work. If such an employee works 6 hours and is then released, and told by his or her supervisor to clock out because of lack of work, the remaining 2 hours of the employee’s 8-hour guarantee are recorded as guaranteed time.

- On any day or shift other than the DOI when an employee stops work for a portion of a day or shift:
 - If a bargaining-unit or FLSA-nonexempt EAS employee requires time off for treatment of an injury, count the day or shift as 1 full calendar day for the purpose of totaling COP, and record COP in any combination with work-hours or any type of leave to equal a full service day:
 - If work is available for the rest of the day and the employee is absent for all or any part of the remaining hours, record the absence as leave, LWOP, AWOL, etc., as appropriate, since absence beyond the time needed because of the injury cannot be charged to COP.
 - If the employee is not allowed to work a partial shift, he or she is entitled to COP for the entire shift.

- If an FLSA-exempt EAS employee returns to work on a part-time basis because of medical limitations, or requires time off for treatment of the injury, COP is granted in full-day increments. Use of any COP counts as a full day toward the 45 days of COP regardless of FLSA status. Record COP only in combination with work-hours, court leave, military leave, and administrative leave equal to a full service day of 8 hours.
 - Do not combine COP with annual leave, sick leave, LWOP, or AWOL, which must be taken in 8-hour increments.
 - If personal absence is granted for some or all of the balance of a full service day of 8 hours in which COP is taken, record the personal absence time as work-hours.

13-5 Recording Limited Duty for Most Full-Time, Part-Time, Casual, Transitional, or Temporary Employees – ICCO or designated control point personnel

- When an injured employee is assigned limited duty, charge and record work-hours to LDC 68, Operation 959.

SEE Chapter 7, Limited Duty Program Management.

13-6 Authorizing and Recording COP for Regular Rural Carriers – ICCO or designated control point personnel

- Authorize COP on Form 1314, Regular Rural Carrier Time Certificate, by marking the Days Assigned Carrier Absent (DACA) block with code C for each day the carrier was scheduled to work. The code C will automatically pay other leave and also identify it as COP on generated reports. Rural carrier leave is charged in whole day increments only.

When the following day is a relief day, J or K day, or a holiday H, enter the appropriate relief or holiday code.

Record other paid leave, e.g., Administrative for the DOI, by marking the DACA block with a code O and annotating the back of the time card to read “Administrative leave due to on-the-job injury.”

SEE Exhibit 13.6, Regular Rural Routes.

- ◇ Pay procedures for rural carriers do not allow for two employees to be certified on the same route on the same day.

13-7 Authorizing and Recording COP for Substitute Rural Carriers – ICCO or designated control point personnel

- For guidance in paying COP for substitute rural carriers, see 13.2, Authorizing COP for Most Full-Time, Part-Time, Transitional, Casual, or Temporary Employees.
- To determine the hourly pay rate for substitute carriers, find the quotient for their basic annual rate for a 40-hour evaluated route at their specific attained step divided by 2,000. Add this amount to the quotient for the annual COLA rate divided by 2080. Level 5 RSC B is the same rate.

$$COP \text{ hourly rate} = \frac{\text{Basic annual rate}}{2,000} + \frac{COLA}{2,080}$$

Example: Basic annual rate for 40 hours at step 12:

($31,818) divided by 2,000		15.91
COLA ($1,997) divided by 2,080	=	+ .96
COP hourly rate		$16.87

13-8 Recording COP for Noncareer Temporary Relief Rural Carriers — ICCO or designated control point personnel

- To determine the hourly pay rate for temporary relief carriers, i.e., rural carrier associates and rural carrier reliefs, use the hourly salary.

13-9 Recording Limited Duty Hours for Regular Rural Carriers – ICCO or designated control point personnel

- When a regular rural carrier is working limited duty, record the hours by entering E in the DACA block of Form 1314, Regular Rural Carrier Time Certificate, for each day the employee is working on limited duty. This allows the regular carrier to be paid limited duty hours and COP leave hours that occur on the same day or days within a service week (see Exhibit 13.6, Regular Rural Routes).
 - Determine the number of COP hours to be used in conjunction with limited duty hours by doing the following:
 - Use whole COP hours in conjunction with limited duty hours to complete the week, remembering that COP cannot exceed 45 calendar days.

H or M route	=	6	days
J route	=	5.5	days
K route	=	5	days
 - Ensure that limited duty hours plus COP hours do not exceed E days multiplied by the daily evaluated hours for J, H, and M routes. COP hours may be rounded to nearest whole number. For each day COP hours are recorded, the whole day counts toward completion of the 45-calendar-day allowance period. For K routes, ensure that limited duty hours plus COP hours do not exceed 40 hours in a week. Take 40 hours and deduct the limited duty hours to determine the COP hours.
 - Record the number of hours in hundredths the employee works in the Limited Duty Hours block. Do not include these hours in the actual weekly work-hours block.
 - Pay limited duty hours at the evaluated hourly rate or level 5 attained step of RSC B, whichever is greater. Limited duty hours worked in excess of 40 are paid at 150 percent of the RSC B rate.
- SEE Chapter 7, Limited Duty Program Management.

Leave and Compensation Administration

When leave or compensation is needed...

13-10 Authorizing Sick or Annual Leave During COP Period — ICCO or designated control point personnel

- Authorize only as much sick or annual leave as the employee has accrued and only for the 45-calendar-day COP period. The use of sick or annual leave does not extend the 45-calendar-day period. Pay that is attributable to the leave period is subject to taxes and other usual payroll deductions.
- If the employee subsequently requests COP instead of the previously requested annual or sick leave, the request must be made within 1 year of the date that leave is used or within 1 year of the date OWCP approves the claim, whichever is later.
- ◇ The employee is not entitled to buy back that leave with later compensation payments.

13-11 Adjusting Pay When OWCP Approves Controversion of COP – ICCO or designated control point personnel

- If OWCP finds that the employee is not entitled to COP after it has been paid, charge the payments to annual or sick leave (see Exhibit 13.11, Timekeeping Codes).
 - Notify the employee, who then makes the choice between sick leave, annual leave, or both.
 - Prepare a pay adjustment on Form 2240, Pay, Leave, or Other Hours Adjustment Request, and Form 2243, PSDS Hours Adjustment Record.

13-12 Recording Absences When Employee Receives Compensation for Wage Loss from OWCP – ICCO or designated control point personnel

- When an employee is absent from work while receiving compensation for wage loss from the OWCP, grant LWOP-IOD. Approve with Form 3971, Request for or Notification of Absence, hours type 49 or 25 in PSDS offices (see Exhibit 13.12, Leave Types).

13-13 Recording Absences When a Claim Is Pending — ICCO or designated control point personnel

- When there are no work-hours while an OWCP claim is pending, record the employee's time either by regular LWOP hours (type 59, 60, or 23 in Postal Service Data Site (PSDS) offices), annual leave (55 or 01 in PSDS offices), or sick leave (56 or 02 in PSDS offices) as appropriate.
- If the claim is subsequently approved, process Form 2240, Pay, Leave, or Other Hours Adjustment Request, to change the leave type originally recorded to LWOP-IOD for the period of time that OWCP has approved payment.

13-14 Notifying Personnel of LWOP Status — ICCO or designated control point personnel

- When an employee has been in an LWOP status more than 30 days, notify the personnel services office to prepare Form 50 (see Exhibit 13.14a, Sample Letter: Personnel Notification — Leave Without Pay). The form will be submitted to the Minneapolis Information Systems Service Center (MNISSC) and annotated under item 50, Remarks, “LWOP for the purpose of receiving workers’ compensation under PL93-416.” The employee LDC should be changed to “67.”
- When the employee returns to duty, notify the personnel services office via memo to update Form 50, item 50 to read “Return to duty” (see Exhibit 13.14b, Sample Letter: Personnel Notification — Return to Duty). The LDC must then be changed back to the appropriate LDC.

13-15 Recording Court Appearance Time When the USPS Prosecutes a Third Party Case –
ICCO or designated control point personnel

- When an employee must appear in court as a witness in a third party action assigned to the USPS, place him or her in an official duty status for:
 - Time spent in court.
 - Time spent traveling between the court and his or her work site.
- Do not place the employee in an official duty status for: Time spent traveling between residence and the court because it is considered commuting time and, therefore, is not compensable.

13-16 Recording Court Appearance Time When an Employee Prosecutes a Third Party Case —
ICCO or designated control point personnel

- When an employee prosecutes a third party action in his or her own name, compensate the employee as follows:
 - For court appearances:
 - Compensate the employee as if he or she were in an official duty status by recording hours as work only, and not as court leave or any other type of leave, on the employee's time card. Form 3971, Request for or Notification of Absence, is not required.
 - Have the employee document the time required for appearances on the memorandum, Third Party Court Appearance, (see Exhibit 13.16), and return it to the ICCO.
 - For time used within the employee's work schedule to develop the case, charge time to annual leave or LWOP.
- ◇ The employee is not in an official duty status as defined by the USPS, but the USPS makes this adjustment to implement the FECA provision requiring compensation of such an employee.

Pay Adjustments and Recovery

When pay adjustments must be made...

13-17 Recovering Excessive COP Hours — ICCO or designated control point personnel

- Monitor COP hours to ensure that employees do not receive COP for more than 45 calendar days for any one injury. Use Report HRHO62, Workers' Compensation — Injury on Duty, for COP data. The report is produced each pay period by the MNISSC and printed automatically to each installation's system printer. It assists the ICCO and other postal officials in monitoring employees in a COP status.

COP in excess of the maximum number of hours could reflect:

- Overpayment.
 - Two or more injuries.
 - Inefficient authorization and tracking procedures.
- Recover excessive COP hours by initiating pay adjustment on Form 2243, PSDS Hours Adjustment Record, or Form 2240, Pay, Leave, or Other Hours Adjustment Request. Note whether the employee chooses sick, annual, and/or LWOP and send the form to the finance office. The finance office processes the form or sends it to the MNISSC if further processing is necessary.

13-18 Recovering Compensation Overpayment — ICCO or designated control point personnel

- Monitor compensation payments via PHC908P1, Chargeback Summary Report, and PHC931P1, Chargeback Detail Report. Immediately notify the OWCP district office of any overpayment.

When an overpayment is discovered, OWCP:

- Determines the period of absence from the job that resulted in the overpayment in the course of adjudication of the claim.
 - Notifies the ICCO or point personnel and the employee of the period of disability that is approved by OWCP.
- Monitor action taken by OWCP on overpayments identified.

13-19 Processing Leave Buy Back – ICCO or designated control point personnel

Leave Buy Back

An employee who sustains a job-related disability may use sick or annual leave or both to avoid interruption of income. If the employee uses leave during a period of disability caused by an occupational disease or illness, and a claim for compensation is approved, the employee may, with the approval of the USPS, “buy back” the used leave and have it recredited to the employee’s account.

If the employee uses leave during a period of disability caused by a traumatic injury and a claim is approved by the OWCP district office, the employee may buy back leave taken after the 45-day COP period. The employee may not repurchase leave taken during the 45-day COP period unless the employee was not entitled to receive COP. Computing the amount due the USPS to effect the leave repurchase is the responsibility of the USPS and is to be done in accordance with USPS accounting principles and practices.

If the USPS does not approve a repurchase of leave, then no compensation may be paid for the period leave was used. Where the USPS agrees to the leave repurchase, the employee may elect to have the compensation payable for the period paid directly to the USPS to be applied against the amount due the agency to effect the repurchase.

- When an employee wishes to buy back leave used subsequent to the 45-day COP period, or leave used during a period of disability caused by an occupational disease or illness, advise the employee either orally or in writing of the USPS leave buy back policy (see Exhibit 13.19a, Sample Letter: Leave Buy Back Policy)
- ◇ Leave cannot be repurchased during the COP period.
- Initiate a leave buy back request through completion and submission of CA-7 or CA-8. Such a form can request a buy back for those days or hours when medical certification of total disability is available or when leave was taken for related medical appointments or therapy. Proceed as follows:
 - Determine the amount of leave used by the employee after the 45-day COP period.
 - Determine if any of the annual leave being bought back is from a previous leave year. If so, determine whether this annual leave, when added to the annual leave carried over by the employee during that previous leave year, if any, will exceed the employee’s annual leave carryover ceiling.
 - If the amount of leave determined above exceeds the employee’s annual leave carryover ceiling, take the following action:
 - Determine the amount of annual leave that can be bought back without creating a forfeiture situation.
 - Inform the employee of the maximum amount of annual leave that can be bought back while remaining within the carryover ceiling.
 - Caution the employee to buy back only the amount of annual leave that can be recredited and explain why.
- When OWCP has issued the form letter CA-1207 (see Exhibit 13.19b) with enclosure EN-1207, Application for Reinstatement of Leave (see Exhibit 13.19c), and the employee has completed items 1 and 2 and submitted the completed EN-1207 to the ICCO, complete items 3 through 7 and send the EN-1207 with a cover letter requesting the MNASC to process the leave buy back.

The MNASC makes pay adjustments changing paid leave to LWOP-IOD and sends Form 1903-DZ to the employee's work location showing deductions and net amount due from OWCP. A copy is sent to the employee.

- Send the verified CA-1207 to OWCP with the current amount of hours to be bought back.
- When OWCP submits approval on the CA-1207, advise the employee to complete and sign the back of the CA-1207, indicating that he or she will do one of the following:
 - Pay the USPS directly and receive compensation from OWCP.
 - Let OWCP pay compensation directly to the USPS MNISSC and he or she will pay or receive the difference.
- ◇ The employee must authorize OWCP to pay the compensation to the disbursing officer, MNISSC, unless full pay for the leave period has previously been refunded.

13-20 Initiating Health Benefits Refund – ICCO or designated control point personnel

Health Benefits Refund Enhancement to WCIS

Implementation of the automated processing of employee refunds of health benefit premiums became effective September 1995 (see Management Memo 95-24 dated 8-21-95).

- To ensure that an eligible employee receives his or her health benefit refund:
 - Follow instructions provided in the WCIS Health Benefits Guide issued September 1995. Note: These instructions are also available on line by requesting them from the Health Benefits menu in WCIS.
 - Maintain health benefits information for a period of 2 years before the initial implementation date (September 6, 1995) for processing of refunds. Information is available to the requester for the current quarter and one previous quarter beginning with postal quarter 4, FY 1995.
 - Process manually all refunds covering periods earlier than postal quarter 4, FY 1995, by doing the following:
 - Retrieve Form 202, Health Benefits Refund Payment Authorization, from the WCIS.
 - In calculating the amount of the refund to be paid, subtract the difference between the OPM health benefits premium rate and the USPS rate of the health benefits plan chosen by the employee.
 - Obtain approval of the facility manager or designee.
 - Submit two copies of the refund authorization to the finance office for payment using Account Identifier Code 587, Fees for Service – Postal Operations.
 - File the original Form 202 in the employee's injury compensation file and one copy in the OPF.

The finance office will forward the refund and one copy of the Form 202 to the employee, and retain one copy for its records.

Recurrence of Disability

Regular Rural Routes

Type Of Routes

H Route (Evaluated Hour Route)

The regular carrier's salary is based upon 12 days per pay period, 312 days per year, or 2,496 hours per year. Evaluated pay hours on an H type route may vary from 12 to 46 hours per week.

J Route (Evaluated Hour Route)

The regular carrier's salary is based upon 5 days during 1 week and 6 days the other week, for a total of 11 days per pay period, 286 days a year, or 2,288 hours per year. One relief day per pay period is authorized. Evaluated pay hours vary from 41 to 46 hours per week.

K Route (Evaluated Hour Route)

The regular carrier's salary is based upon 5 days each week, 260 days per year, or 2,080 hours per year. One relief day is authorized each week. The relief day must be the same day each week except for routes on rotating relief. Evaluated pay hours vary from 40 to 48 hours per week.

Rates of Pay

Basic Rate — the annual, daily, or hourly salary, excluding COLA.

Base Rate — the annual, daily, or hourly rate, including COLA.

Calculating Rate — base or basic daily and hourly rates determined by dividing the base or basic annual rate (BAR) as follows:

Sample Letter: Leave Buy Back Policy

Verbal or Written Information Provided To Injured Employee

To __[name]__:

This refers to your job-related injury or illness of ___[date]___, and the annual or sick leave related thereto used during the period _____.

A claim for compensation [was/will] be submitted to the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs (OWCP) for the above leave period. The buy back cannot be initiated until the period of leave buy back is approved by OWCP with submission of EN-1207.

You may use your sick or annual leave and then buy back the leave to prevent any interruption in pay while your claim for compensation is being processed by OWCP.

If you go into an LWOP status, you will not receive a compensation check until your claim is approved by OWCP. If your claim is disapproved, you will not be allowed to buy back your leave. The following information is provided for you to determine whether or not you want to use the buy back process:

1. Your claim must be approved by OWCP before you submit CA-7 and the subsequent CA-8. After completing them, you must submit forms CA-7 and CA-8 to the USPS for time verification.
2. Unless you are disabled 14 days or more after the 45 days of COP is exhausted, there is a 3-day LWOP waiting period before compensation can be paid. If the 3-day period is applicable, you will not be paid compensation for 3 days and will be required to pay back the full amount of leave pay received for the 3 days when buying back leave.
3. You will be required to reimburse the USPS the difference in your net pay and the amount of compensation for the leave period before your leave is restored. OWCP will pay your compensation to PDC and you will be required to reimburse any difference in the net pay you received. The amount you will be required to refund will depend on your compensation rate (75 percent with dependent, 66 2/3 percent with no dependent) and the amount of tax deductions you take. Because no tax deductions are made on compensation, in some instances the net pay may be less than the compensation rate. In these instances, the USPS will refund the difference to you. If the leave you buy back is from the preceding calendar year, you must refund the difference between compensation and gross pay, since no tax credit can be allowed. After this amount is paid, it can be used as a deduction on an amended tax return. If you have any further questions, consult your tax advisor.
4. Processing the leave buy back request may take a considerable amount of time. For this reason you should consider:
 - a. That if you are planning to leave the Postal Service, you must allow sufficient time to process your leave buy back and credit your leave before actual separation. Buy back cannot be processed after you have been separated from the USPS.
 - b. Whether you plan to carry over the maximum hours of annual leave to the next calendar year. If so, any annual leave you buy back must be accomplished during this calendar year; otherwise, you cannot be reimbursed annual leave which would exceed the maximum carryover. Check with personnel services to find out the maximum carryover allowed.
5. During the buy back process, the period you were on leave will be changed to LWOP-IOD. Since you do not earn leave while on LWOP, the sick and annual leave you earned while in a leave status will be deducted from your leave balance. For example, for every 80 hours bought back and changed to LWOP, both annual and sick leave are reduced by the amount earned in one pay period.
6. If you intend to buy back leave, the buy back must be initiated within 1 year following your return to duty or within 1 year of the date OWCP approves your claim, whichever is later. Moreover, only current employees (i.e., employees on the rolls of the USPS) may buy back leave. Therefore, if you are separated from the USPS for any reason, you cannot buy back leave after you are off the rolls.

U.S. Department of Labor	Employment Standards Administration U.S. Department of Labor Office of Workers' Compensation Programs PO Box 566 New York, NY 10014-0566 (212) 337-2075 File Number: _____ Date of Injury: _____ Employee: _____
---------------------------------	---

Dear Mr./Ms. _____

The condition we accepted under the above case file number entitles you to all compensation and medical benefits provided under the Federal Employees' Compensation Act. If you either enter a leave-without-pay status or "buy back" the leave which you use as a result of the injury, you may receive compensation.

Based on information presently available to the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs (OWCP), you are eligible for $ ___[amount]___ gross compensation, which covers the period from ___[date]___ for total hours leave.

To buy back leave used as a result of your injury:

1. You must refund to the USPS the amount of pay which you received for leave during the above-stated period. This amount will be shown in item 6 on EN-1207, enclosed.
2. Your agency must change your leave record from "leave with pay" to "leave without pay" for the period in question.

If you are unable to refund the entire amount of leave pay received, you may arrange with the USPS to pay the difference between the leave pay and the gross compensation due.

To receive compensation for all or part of the leave period named above, complete items 1 and 2 on the enclosed EN-1207. An accountable officer of the USPS ISSC should then complete items 3 through 7 and return the form to OWCP. If you wish OWCP to pay your compensation directly to the USPS, check item 2(b).

US POSTAL SERVICE INJURY COMPENSATION

If you have not returned to work and you lose pay or will enter a leave-without-pay status in the future, you should file claim for compensation on CA-8, which can be obtained from the USPS or from OWCP.

Sincerely,

Claims Examiner

Appendix C

Definitions

assignment	A written agreement whereby the injured employee or beneficiary transfers his/her right to recover damages from a third party to the USPS and such offer is accepted by the USPS. (See Chapter 10).
beneficiary	An individual who is entitled to certain benefits under the Act when the employee dies as a result of the job-related injury. (See Chapter 1).
benefits	Any of the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Continuation of pay (COP) paid by USPS. (COP is not considered “compensation” by the OWCP).2. Money paid to claimants by the OWCP because of loss of wages or earning ability.3. Money paid in the form of schedule awards (e.g., loss of finger).4. Money paid as reimbursement for medical diagnostic and treatment services supplied under FECA.5. Money paid to survivors of employees whose death is job-related.6. Certain payments to individuals who are participating in an approved vocational rehabilitation program. (See Chapter 1).
burden of proof	The claimant’s responsibility to provide evidence to substantiate the following five features of the claim: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The time.2. The fact of USPS employment.3. The fact of injury.4. The fact of performance of duty.5. The existence of causal relationship between job and injury. (See Chapter 8).
challenge	The formal administrative procedure through which USPS management presents evidence to OWCP to dispute any element of an employee’s claim for benefits that appears questionable. (See Chapter 8).
chargeback	The system of billing Postal Service Headquarters for payments related to OWCP-approved claims and then having them charged to the local USPS installation having jurisdiction over the employee at the time of the injury or illness. (See Chapter 12).
claim	An assertion, in writing, of an individual’s entitlement to benefits under FECA. This claim must be submitted on the required form. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. A claim may be filed for a traumatic injury (Form CA-1), an occupational illness or disease (Form CA-2), or death (Form CA-5 or 5B).

2. A claim for injury may include reimbursement for the replacement or repair of medical braces, artificial limbs, and other prosthetic devices, and for such time lost while such devices or appliances are being replaced or repaired. However, a claim is not appropriate for the replacement or repair of eyeglasses and hearing aids unless the damage or destruction is a direct result of a personal job-related injury requiring medical services. (See Chapters 3 and 4).

claimant	An individual whose claim for benefits and/or compensation has been filed in accordance with FECA.
claims examiner	An OWCP employee possessing special training and experience in claims adjudication.
compensation	See benefits . Compensation refers to all listed items except COP.
continuation of pay (COP)	A benefit a traumatically injured employee may request, i.e., continuation of his/her regular pay with no charge to sick leave or annual leave for the first 45 calendar days of disability. COP is subject to taxes and all other usual payroll deductions. The 45-day calendar period begins at the start of the employee's first full tour following the day of injury, or the first day following the disability, whichever occurs sooner. COP can be received only if the disability begins within 90 days of the occurrence of the injury. (See Chapter 4 and Chapter 13).
contract medical provider	A duly licensed physician or medical facility under contract with the USPS and designated to perform specific medical duties. (See Chapters 2 and 6).
control office	See injury compensation control office .
control point	An individual designated by an installation head (or functional manager in large installation). Control point personnel are trained to coordinate certain program activities with the control office. Their responsibilities include the authorization of medical treatment (i.e., issuance of Form CA-16, Request for Examination and/or Treatment) and to review medical documentation to determine the employee's duty status. (See Chapter 3).
controversion	The formal administrative procedure through which USPS management presents evidence to OWCP to dispute an employee's claim for COP. (See Chapter 8).
daily roll	A system used by OWCP for the payment of compensation payments when the term of disability is not likely to exceed 60 days, unless return to work is imminent. The employee must submit Forms CA-8 to support continued payment while on the daily roll system. (Refer to FECA PM 2-811).
damages	The measure of the injury for purposes of third-party liability. The ICCO tries to recover compensatory damages (compensation for the injury). The two types of damages are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Special damages (or "specials"), damages to which an exact dollar amount can be assigned, e.g., medical expenses. 2. General damages, those to which an exact dollar amount cannot be assigned, e.g., pain and suffering. (See Chapter 10).
employee	Postal Service employee to whom FECA coverage extends, i.e., a full-time, part-time, or temporary (including casual and transitional) employee, regardless of length of time on the job or type of position. (See Chapter 8).

Employee Assistance Program (EAP)	A USPS program designed to assist employees who have job performance or conduct problems due to personal or job-related issues. The EAP provides assessment, short-term counseling, referral, and case management services to help employees maintain productivity. If there is a strong suspicion or evidence that an employee's personal or job-related problem has directly or indirectly caused an injury, an EAP referral should be initiated. Referrals and subsequent participation must be in compliance with EAP established procedures.
Federal Employees' Compensation Act	Statutory provisions that are the source of entitlement to workers' compensation benefits for Federal workers as cited in Title 5, United States Code, 8101, as amended in 1974. (See Chapter 1).
fitness-for-duty examination (FFD)	A physical examination conducted by a physician for the USPS (i.e., contract medical provider) to determine the employee's current medical status. The results of the FFD are documented on Form 2485, Medical Examination and Assessment , which becomes part of the OWCP case file. A copy is also maintained in the employee's official medical folder. The purposes of a FFD are to evaluate medical status, to confirm or verify limited duty capabilities, and/or to assist in the rehabilitation effort. (See Chapter 6).
first-aid injury	A work-related minor injury that requires no more than two medical visits, the second of which is to confirm full recovery. (See Chapters 3 and 4).
health unit	A unit in a designated postal facility professionally staffed with one or more nurses who provide nursing services, first-aid treatment, and triage to injured employees. The health unit nurses are supervised by the occupational health nurse administrator (OHNA). (See Chapter 6).
injury	Traumatic or occupational injury. Includes damage to or destruction of medical braces, artificial limbs, and other prosthetic devices. The term does not include damage or destruction of eyeglasses and hearing aids, unless the damage is a direct result of a personal job-related injury requiring medical services.
injury compensation control office	The office that administers and controls all aspects of the injury compensation program within the installation in which it is domiciled and/or its defined area of responsibility. (See Chapter 1).
labor distribution code (LDC)	A payroll code number that identifies the major work assignment of the employee. The LDC's pertaining to Injury Compensation are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. LDC 68: LIMITED DUTY work-hours of injured employee who is temporarily working in a modified assignment, either part- or full-time (see limited duty). LDC 68 should not be used when injured employee is performing: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Core duties of regular assignment with minor modification or accommodation. b. Full duties of existing position other than his/her regular assignment. c. Same duties as those of regular position at another location. 2. LDC 69: REHABILITATION PROGRAM work-hours of injured employee who is permanently working in a modified assignment, either part- or full-time (see Rehabilitation Program). LDC 69 should not be used when injured employee is permanently assigned to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Core duties of regular assignment with minor modification or accommodation. b. Another existing position for which he/she can perform core duties. c. Residual vacancy for which he/she can perform the core duties.

lien	A claim on the recovery of damages in order to satisfy a debt. (See Chapter 10).
light duty	An assignment (temporary or permanent) of an employee partially disabled from a non-job-related injury or illness. Light duty assignments are subject to the "Light Duty" provisions of the applicable collective bargaining agreement and must be initiated by the employee in writing.
limited duty	A temporary assignment to accommodate a temporary partial disability as a result of a job-related injury (employee is expected to return to full duty or prognosis not yet determined; employee has not been declared permanently partially disabled). See LDC 68 and modified assignment . (See Chapter 7).
medical emergency	An injury or sudden and unexpected onset of a condition requiring immediate medical care. Some problems are emergencies because if not treated promptly they might become more serious (e.g., animal bites, eye injuries, deep cuts, broken bones). Others are emergencies because they are potentially life-threatening (e.g., heart attacks, strokes, weapon wounds, sudden inability to breathe). (See Chapter 3).
modified assignment	A temporary or permanent assignment designed to accommodate the specific medical restrictions of an injured employee. Normally, individual tasks are identified and combined to develop a modified assignment. These tasks are usually subfunctions and may be from multiple positions. Assigned tasks must be fully consistent with the physical limitations specified by the appropriate medical authority. (See Chapters 7 and 11).
monthly pay	The greatest of the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Monthly pay at time of injury, 2. Monthly pay at time disability begins. 3. Monthly pay at time compensable disability recurs if the recurrence begins more than 6 months after the injured employee resumes full-time employment with the USPS or other government agency.
negligence	Failure to act as an ordinary prudent person would act under the same or similar circumstances when such failure is the proximate cause of an injury. (See Chapter 10). Both third-party negligence and employee negligence are factors in third-party liability cases. Negligence may be: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Comparative greater or lesser wrongdoing of the third party or employee when their negligence is compared. The total recovery is reduced by the proportion of negligence by the employee. 2. Contributory contributing to the injury. In certain states, contributory negligence by the employee bars recovery of damages.

occupational illness/ disease	An illness or disease produced by one of the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Systemic infections. 2. Continued or repeated stress or strain. 3. Exposure to toxins, poisons, fumes, etc. 4. Other continued and repeated exposure to conditions of the work environment over a longer period of time than a single day or work shift. (See Chapter 4).
occupational health nurse administrator (OHNA)	A USPS or contract nurse responsible for the administration of the National Medical Program at the district level. This responsibility includes but is not limited to supervising on-site health units, providing assistance to Postal management in all medically-related matters, and oversight of all contracted medical providers. (See Chapter 6).
Office of Workers' Compensation Programs	The Office of the Department of Labor (DOL) that has overall responsibility for the administration of the Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA). (See Chapter 1).
periodic roll	A system utilized by OWCP whereby the U.S. Treasury pays prolonged disability cases each 28 days and death cases each month automatically until advised otherwise by OWCP. (Refer to FECA PM 2-811 and 2-812).
physician	Any surgeon, podiatrist, dentist, clinical psychologist, optometrist, chiropractor, or osteopathic practitioner used within the scope of his or her practice as defined by state law. Exceptions are as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Chiropractors, if their reimbursable services are other than treatment consisting of manual manipulation of the spine to correct subluxation as demonstrated to exist by X ray. 2. Naturopaths, faith healers, and other practitioners of the healing arts, as they are not recognized as physicians within the meaning of FECA. (See Chapter 3).
prima facie medical evidence	Medical evidence that indicates the employee is disabled as a result of a job-related injury. This evidence does not need to include a specific diagnosis, a rationalized opinion concerning causal relationship, or specific reference to the circumstances of the injury. (See Chapters 3 and 4).
prosecute	Any action taken to recover damages, as from a third party. (See Chapter 10).
recurrence	The reappearance of the original symptoms or pains of a previously reported and accepted injury. The recurrence must not have been caused by a specific act or series of acts. (See Chapter 5).
senior injury compensation specialist	The person who is responsible for organizing, managing and coordinating the Injury Compensation program within the boundaries of the district. This person supervises the control office staff, provides technical guidance and training to supervisors, and ensures proper program implementation. (See Chapter 1).
serious injury	For purposes of third-party liability, a personal injury that results in death, dismemberment, significant disfigurement, a fracture, or permanent loss of use of a body organ, member, function, or system. (See Chapter 10).
short term roll	A system utilized by OWCP whereby payment of disability compensation is made for a specified, relatively near-term period when the medical matrix or medical reports indicate full recovery within several months. The short term

	roll is also applicable when there is a question regarding the severity and duration of disability, or a deficiency in the medical reports. (Refer to FECA PM 2-811).
subrogation	The acquisition by one person of the rights of another person to bring a claim. This can occur only if the person making payment is legally obligated to do so. Technically, the USPS is not subrogated to an injured employee's rights against the third party. Rather, it has a lien against any recovery that is made. (See Chapter 10).
survivor	See beneficiary.
third-party liability	Those instances in which an injury or illness suffered by an employee is caused by a person or organization not in the employ of the USPS or any branch of the federal government. (See Chapter 10).
tort	A wrongful act committed intentionally or negligently that causes injury. Third-party tort claims involve such acts resulting in injury to an employee. (See Chapter 10). traumatic injury	A wound or other condition of the body caused by external force, including stress or strain. The injury: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Must be identifiable as to time and place of occurrence and member or function of the body affected.2. Must be caused by a specific event or incident or series of events or incidents within a single day or work shift.3. May also include damage to or destruction of prosthetic devices or appliances. (See Chapter 4).
